Attorneys for Hinckley enter plea of insanity

Washington (AP) — John W. Hinckley Jr.'s lawyers, admitting for the first time that he shot President Reagan on March 30, notified a federal court Monday that they plan to contend that their client is innocent by reason of insanity.

The decision means Hinckley's 26-year-old life, including his obsession with actress Jodie Foster, likely will be aired before at least one jury — and possibly two. Hinckley wrote that he would "get Reagan" to impress Miss Foster.

The defense lawyers, in a proposed stipulation, conceded Hinckley's role in the shooting of Reagan and three others. The defense attorneys wrote: On March 30, 1981, within the District of Columbia, John W. Hinckley Jr. fired a .22 caliber handgun and struck Ronald Reagan, Timothy McCarthy, James Brady and Thomas Delahanty. McCarthy is a Secret Service agent, Delahanty a police officer and Brady the still hospitalized presidential press secretary.

There was no immediate response from the government, which in past cases has often opposed such shortcuts, preferring to spell out its evidence to a jury.

If past practice in insanity cases is followed, competing psychiatrists would play a significant role in the trial — which is unlikely to begin before December. The experts would help the jury decide whether mental illness prevented Hinckley from understanding the wrongfulness of his actions.

A verdict of innocent by reason of insanity would send Hinckley to a mental institution until a judge ruled he was no longer dangerous to himself or to others because of mental illness. Hinckley could face life imprisonment if convicted of crimes in the 13-count indictment.

Since the shooting, Hinckley has been extensively examined by three separate teams of psychiatrists, with one team appointed by the court and the others hired by the defense and prosecutors.

PC hosts 'future forum'

"Houston of the Future," the last program in the Program Council Ideas and Issues Committee "This Is Your Houston" series, will be offered tomorrow afternoon in the World Affairs Lounge of the University Center.

Three speakers will discuss the "problems and prospective success of a growing Houston," John Toucet, Ideas and Issues chairman, said.

Rosco H. Jones, director of the Houston City Planning Commission, will open the program at 1 p.m. J.L. Taylor, director of the Economic Development Division of the Houston Chamber of Commerce, will speculate on the future economic development of the city at 2 p.m.

Dr. Jib Fowles, associate professor of human science at the UH Clear Lake Campus, will discuss Houston as part of a national and international context at 3 p.m.

Question-and-answer sessions will follow each speech.

Reagan issues new guidelines for combating nation's crime

New Orleans (AP) — President Reagan said Monday the answer to crime isn't in "the social worker's files, the psychiatrist's notes, or bureaucratic budgets," and endorsed proposals to limit bail, ease the margin for police error and set mandatory prison terms for felonies committed with guns.

In his first address focusing on crime — which he called "an American epidemic" — the president outlined a program intended to overcome "a breakdown in the criminal justice system in America that just plain isn't working."

Speaking to the annual meeting of the International Association of Chiefs of Police, Reagan commended law enforcement officers as "the thin blue line that holds back a jungle that threatens to reclaim the clearing we call civilization."

The president reiterated his support for capital punishment, saying that when he was governor of California he had on his desk a list of 12 murderers who had served their time and been paroled, and were responsible for 34 deaths.

"I think capital punishment in the beginning might have reduced that figure considerably," he said. But he did not amplify, and aides could not explain whether he meant that further killings occurred after the prisoners had been released.

And Reagan embraced several of the proposals for overhauling federal criminal laws which were advanced last month by a bipartisan task force headed by Attorney General William French Smith. As the president spoke, Smith and Griffen B. Bell, attorney general under the Carter administration, testified before the Senate Judiciary Committee in behalf of that report.

Bell said, "It seems to me that one final push by everyone involved...is all that stands between us and a federal criminal code that we can rely on during the balance of this century and far into the next."

But the president, who is trying to limit the growth of federal spending, made no reference to a proposal of the bipartisan group that $2 billion in federal grants be allocated to states to build new prisons.

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., declared the administration was trying "to fight crime on the cheap."

Rally funding bill fails in SA Senate

By MIKE MONSON
Writer for The Daily Cougar

A Students' Association Senate bill requesting a student service fee allocation of $213 to co-sponsor a Phi Kappa Theta "TGIF Spirit Rally" failed to pass a roll-call vote at last night's senate meeting.

The bill by-passed committee because the appropriate governing body, the Campus Organizations and Activities Committee, will not hold its first meeting until after the rally, scheduled for Oct. 2.

Moments before the vote was taken, SA President Steve Yaney stated that if passed, the bill would set a bad precedent for funding organizations this year. Seven members of the senate voted in favor of the bill. All but one of the seven are members of campus fraternities. The sponsor and author of the bill, Hotel and Restaurant Management Senator Tim Gori (a member of Phi Kappa Theta), abstained.

During the president's report, Yaney brought up the issue of the over-allocation of Student Service Fee funds for 1981-82. Yaney explained, project allocation was $3.4 million while the actual SSF income was $2.9 million, leaving a deficit of $146,000. Yaney stated that basically, SSF is in "some" trouble and a fee referendum may become necessary.

SA Treasurer David W. Payne explained the projected allocation is based on predicted enrollment figures. Payne said actual fall enrollment (and thus actual SSF payments) fell below the predicted figures. Both Senate Speaker Robert Lusk and College of Social Science Senator Suzy Deterling stated that the SA budget was set and would not be affected by the deficit.

Also during the president's report, Yaney introduced Vice President and Dean of Students Harry Sharp. Sharp called the Senate's attention to changes in the new Student Life Policy Handbook concerning Organizations Policy. Sharp said, "We now 'register' Student Organizations instead of 'recognizing' them. Our lawyers told us this was a very important distinction."

The senate passed four appointments unanimously. To the UC Policy Board, Anna Kim. Freddie Garriett was appointed to the Calendar Board and Martha Bech to the Library Committee. Before Lauren Kelly's appointment as chief election commissioner, she was asked a question to be entered into the minutes. The question, posed by Nat Adams, was, "As a member of a sorority, do you feel you will be influenced in your position?" Adams voiced special concern about Homecoming Queen elections.

Kelly replied, "No."

State Department official announces U.S. advisers will stay in El Salvador

Washington (AP) — Despite earlier suggestions that U.S. advisers would be out of El Salvador by September, Reagan administration officials are now predicting a long-term American military presence in the war-torn Central American nation.

Lt. Col. Jerry Grohowski, a Pentagon spokesman, said U.S. military advisers will remain in El Salvador for the "foreseeable future" as that country's military-civilian junta continues its war against leftist insurgents.

Last week, Thomas O. Enders, assistant secretary of state for inter-American affairs, told a House committee that "we expect to continue to send trainers to El Salvador to meet particular needs that may arise."

Numbers will increase again, but we do not anticipate that the numbers will grow beyond the high mark of our effort this year."

Grohowski said there are now 31 non-combat U.S. advisers in El Salvador, down from 56, the number of advisers dispatched last March when the Reagan administration vowed to "draw the line" against "communist aggression" in the small, impoverished country.

The continued U.S. military presence comes despite a Defense Department statement last March that U.S. advisers would be brought home by September. In that statement, however, the Pentagon left open the possibility that "some others might be sent in."

Grohowski said the administration has lived up to its public statement because the advisers dispatched to El Salvador earlier this year have returned and have been replaced by other Americans.

El Salvador speeches set

The Chicano Law Student's Association will sponsor lectures by two UH history faculty tomorrow at noon on the El Salvador conflict.

Professor John Hart and Assistant Professor Thomas O'Brien will discuss the diplomatic initiative proposed by the governments of France and Mexico to allow the warring factions in El Salvador to resolve their differences without outside influence.

The lectures will be in the Bates College of Law, Room 111, TU II.

Editorial

Conscience for all

The U.S. government is beginning to evidence signs of a conscience in its role as arms merchant to the world. The debate over whether to sell Airborne Warning and Control System aircraft to Saudi Arabia shows the government is starting to realize it can't arm the entire Middle East and hope to keep peace.

All the sales are not made directly, but there are lots of private arms merchants in Europe who thrive on being the middleman for Uncle Sam.

One has to wonder where the pangs of conscience were when the sale of F-16 fighter planes to Israel was approved. Granted, there were a few token delays following Israel's blatant violation of agreements on how the planes were to be used, but the sale still went through.

The government should follow its new conscience in regards to all arms sales, not just in deals that are politically unpopular.

We knew him as a glamorous
movie star . . .
but there was a side of him we never knew . . .

Opinion

Fundamentalists' rhetoric is repeat of old song

By Sig Christensen

"TV ads boycott planned," summed the headline in the Houston Post. The story, essentially, was that Donald Wildman's (THE REVEREND HIMSELF) National Federation for Decency is ready to do battle with demonic advertisers who have ignored his mandate to change the way you look at television. In a few weeks — definitely not today, mind you — these Great Satan's of mass communications shall be exposed. Praise the Lord, thy will be done.

I, for one, am not impressed. This show is a repeat. Plagerized soliloquy spoken by plastic actor. Entertainment for the sighted who refuse to see.

Welcome to the Media Medicine Show Feast of the Religious Phonies. Brought to you via Political Phonies who orbit the halls of Congress. Sponsored by the crawling kingsnakes of New Right Politics, who surely must have believed that rational thought would win the day in spite of a few ideological purists. I'm George Bush, your host, and my first guest today at the Blair House is Jerry (damn those heathen liberal democrats) Falwell.

Another repeat. More food for bloat.

Although the script is obviously fictional, I must admit that I often see the so-called New Right coalition in such extreme terms. I am, however, only reacting to the sabre-rattling of the day as performed by some of our more visible political and religious leaders. Perhaps this is because such men have advanced some frightening ideas, but I also worry because these people have mastered the art of obfuscation.

One of the things the obfuscators have told us is that they are merely responding to the national mandate

As one of the 41,597,406 Americans who voted for somebody other than Ronald Reagan (who garnered 43,201,220 votes), I reject any notion of a mandate. The president and his True Believers may have made a killing at the Electoral College, but only a fool would think that his brand of politics won the hearts of THE PEOPLE. I would venture to say that desperation, rather than supply-side economics or admiration of Reverend Falwell, tipped the scales in favor of conservative politics.

That desperation began in Jimmy Carter's Oval Office. In 1976 Carter was America's Santa Claus, but a lot of the goodies he promised us never even reached the skilled hands of his elves, and we began to wonder...is the beard real or fake? Before we could get the opportunity to test it to our own satisfaction, a grinch who called himself THE IMAN boldly stepped in our way. At the very moment we needed calm, we were subjected to counterfeits.

Suddenly, we were the "Great Satan," a nation amoral. The doctrine of secular humanism, a byproduct of New Deal-New Frontier-Great Society liberalism, was responsible for this predicament. In order to recover Excalibur, we had to turn away from the wrongdoing of our fathers. The America according to Jerry Falwell is a filthy, rotting, sinkhole, thanks to the Warren Court and four decades of liberal government. I have yet to hear an explanation for his paradoxical First Amendment stance; he has simultaneously attacked and defended constitutionally protected artistic expression.

It's no small wonder America puzzles the world.

Torn from without, ripped from within. On the one hand we were cold-blooded killers who deserved to be held hostage. On the other, our democratic traditions had given us too much freedom. We had sinned. Now we'd pay up.

Or so said the phonies, whose one effective tool-invoking the wrath of God-was still fresh enough to bring in some dollars and some votes.

Tent-revival fanaticism on the prime-time tube. Oral Roberts began it all, or was it Billy G., the friend of the presidents. Later, Pat Robertson brought us "PTL," Jerry Falwell gave America the "Old Time Gospel Hour," Jim Roberson and Jim Bakker passing themselves off as Jim Roberson and Jim Bakker. At one time I didn't think they were entertaining because they were dangerous, but rather, I tuned in to see if these guys ever wore the same suit twice.

Somewhere along the way, politicians like Thurmond tuned in, too. Instead of cracking jokes at his fellow charlatans the Senator probably considered how to best use these people, who in turn, wondered how to best use him. By and by, the trickle became a downpour.

So now the respectable preachers are on the warpath, mandate in hand. "TV ads boycott planned," Wildman promises us. If he isn't bluffing this time, he ought to concentrate his dubious mental capacity on a new script for this arrogant act. The 42 million Americans he's told to go to hell wouldn't settle for less.

SPORTS

Even though there are 146 days until the start of the 1982 collegiate baseball season, Head Coach Rolan Walton wants his team to begin fall workouts Monday. Junior third baseman Charlie Rizzo, above, has his eye on another successful season with the Cougars.

Network decision moves kickoff time to 11:30 a.m.

The kickoff time of Saturday's Houston-Baylor game in the Astrodome was changed from 7:30 p.m. to 11:30 a.m. to accommodate ABC-TV's decision to regionally televise the contest, it was announced Monday.

The contest will not be locally blacked out and will be aired on ABC affiliate KTRK-Channel 13, according to Frank Schultz, assistant athletic director-media relations.

"We haven't been on television in quite awhile and neither has Baylor," UH Athletic Director Cedric Dempsey said. "We felt it was important for the conference as a whole for us to accept the starting time."

UH last had a game regionally televised Nov. 29, 1980, against Rice. The Cougars' 35-0 win over Navy in the Dec. 14, 1980 Garden State Bowl was televised over the Mizlou Network and was aired on a local independent television station.

The 11:30 a.m. kickoff for the UH-Baylor game Saturday will not affect the scheduled 2:00 p.m.

start of Rice's game with Tulane at Rice Stadium, according to a spokesman from Rice's sports information department.

"You are looking at about $500,000 for the conference, so it's obvious that they (Rice) will benefit from our being on television too," said Dempsey. "If we had our choice, of course, we would not try to conflict with starting times."

Dempsey said studies have shown that competition for fans was not that severe unless one school is playing a glamour opponent.

"We've noticed in the past it might affect our crowd a little if Rice were playing, say, Louisiana State," Dempsey said. "But otherwise, I don't think we hurt each other's crowds too much."

Attendance has averaged 26,949 for UH's first two home games in the Astrodome this season. UH averaged 33,230 in attendance for six home games last year.

UH has a 14-7-1 TV record going into its game with Baylor.

Coaches happy with teams

Both the Cougar men's and women's cross country coaches were pleased with Houston's sweep of the Rice Invitational Sept. 26.

"I was pleased that we came in first, considering that three out of our top seven runners are injured," Howie Ryan, coach of the men's team, said.

"It was a big win and I'm pleased with the way our women ran," Ken Lehman, the women's team coach, said. "We ran well, but I wasn't really surprised."

The men's team won its third consecutive Rice title as UH picked up 28 points. LSU was second with 43, Lamar finished third with 59, Rice had 95, University of Texas-San Antonio 136 and Pan American 149.

Senior Andy Halpin led the Cougars for the second week in a row with a second-place time of 20:04 over the 4-mile Buffalo Bayou course. LSU's Bobby Beck placed first with 19:55.4.

Behind Halpin was freshman Kyle Wright placing third with 20:15. Other top Cougar finishers were sophomore Earl Zilles (fifth place with a time of 20:31), freshman Rich Walsh (eighth, 20:36) and junior Paul Hamilton (10th, 20:41).

The Cougar women surprised everyone but Lehman with their victory. Their 47 points placed them ahead of Lamar (57), Texas A&M (60), LSU (99), Rice (111), San Jacinto (153), Sam Houston State and UT-SA (176).

Junior Kirschen Hagenlocher was the top UH finisher, placing second in the two-mile run with a time of 11:19.8. Sophomore Rosemary Hessman finished seventh with an 11:55 and Nancy Staudt was eighth in 12:05.

"Kirschen was running strong," Lehman said. "If she's feeling real good, she should do all right the rest of the season."

The Cougars will face highly-regarded Texas and Arkansas teams in the University of Texas-Arlington Invitational Oct. 2. The men's team won the race last year with Zilles finishing third for UH's best finish. The women's team did not compete in the UTA meet last season.

Another Cougar coach with positive words about his team's performances over the weekend is women's volleyball Head Coach Dave Olbright.

The Cougars came away from the Brigham Young Invitational at Provo, Utah more aware of their potential as a team, Olbright says. UH finished tenth out of a field of 18 tough teams, after experiencing what Olbright called one of their best matches of the year so far.

After finishing third in their pool (defeating Utah 15-12, 15-13 and losing to Colorado State 13-15, 5-15 and Portland State 2-15, 5-15), the Cougars faced the BYU second team.

UH was down two games 13-15, 10-15, before coming back to win the last three games in the hard-fought matchup 15-10, 15-11 and 15-7.

"When you lose the first two games and come back to win, it's fulfilling to win," Olbright said. "The kids felt good about that match. It shows they really wanted it. A coach likes to see that."

UH went on to play Southern Illinois for ninth place and lost 6-15, 5-15 and 13-15. Olbright found solace, though, in knowing that his young team played well.

"The best result of this tournament," Olbright said, "was the experience we gained in playing some talented teams that played a higher caliber of volleyball for a longer period of time."

"The team is becoming more aware of the potential they have and they are beginning to realize what team unity can do for them."

UH was the second highest finishing team from Texas, another fact which did not escape Olbright. The University of Texas-Arlington placed fourth and Lamar defeated Texas Tech for the last two places. BYU won the tournament, with Long Beach State finishing second and Portland State third.

The Cougars will next compete in the Southwest Missouri Invitational on Oct. 2-3. UH will then play host to 12 teams for the 15th annual UH Invitational on Oct. 8-10.

Texas moves up to third spot

(AP) — The University of Texas, a 14-7 winner over Miami-Florida Saturday, rose from fourth to third place in The Associated Press college football poll. Texas received one first-place ballot and 1,104 points. Miami dropped from 14th to 17th.

Thanks to their last-gasp 28-24 triumph over runner-up Oklahoma, the Trojans of Southern California have become the first team this season to hold onto the No. 1 ranking in the poll for more than one week.

However, Notre Dame and

Nebraska, two of the nation's traditional powers, fell out of the rankings after suffering their second setbacks in three games. Notre Dame was beaten 15-14 in the last minute by Purdue while Nebraska lost to Penn State 30-24.

Penn State, third a week ago, climbed into second place after downing Nebraska. Pitt, idle last week, went from fifth to fourth. Oklahoma fell from second to fifth.

North Carolina jumped from ninth to sixth place.

A YEAR OUT OF COLLEGE, ANDA STRAUSS IS MAKING AVIATION HISTORY IN THE ARMY.

"I'm being assigned to a Chinook helicopter unit in Germany as a test pilot and maintenance officer, and I'm proud that I'll be the first woman to have that assignment over there. It's a real thrill for me."

"So was learning how to fly a helicopter. It takes a lot more skill than an airplane. If you think college is demanding, flight school is even tougher. It's not only academically demanding, it's really mentally demanding as well as physically."

"In Germany, I'll have a chance to use some of the leadership and management techniques I learned in ROTC. It's going to be a real challenge having command responsibilities."

2nd Lt. Anda Strauss was a political science major at Wake Forest and a member of Army ROTC.

"I got into ROTC really just to see what it was all about. For me, it all couldn't have worked out better."

Army ROTC got Anda Strauss off to a good start. Maybe it can do the same for you. To find out, stop by your Army ROTC office on campus.

Alpha Lambda Delta to award fellowships

The national council of Alpha Lambda Delta will award 14 graduate study fellowships for the 1982-83 year, according to Assistant Vice Chancellor Connie Wallace. Each award is $2,500.

Any member of Alpha Lambda Delta who graduated with a 3.5 cumulative grade point average is eligible. Graduating seniors are eligible if they have maintained the average through the end of the fall semester.

Applicants will be judged on scholastic record, recommendations, need and "the soundness of their stated project and purpose," Wallace said.

Application are available in Wallace's office on the third floor of the Student Life Building and must be returned to the national headquarters of Alpha Lambda Delta by Jan. 4.

Dick Tracy, comic page super sleuth, still fights foes after 50th birthday

Washington (AP) Dick Tracy, who matched violence with violence as he mopped up the likes of B.B. Eyes, Flattop, Mumbles and the Brow, observes 50 years on newspaper comic pages Sunday still black of hair, steely of eye and square of jaw.

The strip was the first to depart from the "funnies" approach, delighting in showing death in graphic detail: bullets passing through heads, a pool of blood, a body trapped under ice.

Dick Tracy's "immortality" brought complaints back in 1931 — and in 1981. Last May, the Harrisburg, Pa., Patriot-News dropped Dick Tracy and another strip saying, "These strips are not marginal; violence is the sole reason for their existence; terrorism is grist for their mill."

Tracy first appeared on Sunday, Oct. 4, 1931, in the old Detroit Mirror as a witness to a robbery who is called to view a police lineup. He notices a woman in a cell, has a hunch and throws a punch, and from the masculine way she ducks unmasks a male crook in women's clothing.

Eight days later he proposes to Tess Trueheart, watches helplessly as Big Boy's thugs kidnap Tess and gun down her father during a holdup. Then this colloquy between the police chief and Tracy:

"How'd you like to join the plain clothes squad?"

"You've taken the words right out of my mouth."

Thus the super-detective was created, to sally forth in print, in Saturday matinee movie serials, and on the radio as the tough guy who could gun down a gangster and deliver this sermon to his tender audience:

"Johnny Mintworth paid the price for living a loose, careless life. He made his first mistake when he kept company with a girl who was a perfume thief. He thought she was cute."

Dick Tracy was even parodied in another comic strip, Li'l Abner, as "Fearless Fosdick," a detective so inept that he once killed 42 people while trying to arrest a balloon vendor.

Tracy was born in the days of depression, prohibition and gangsters, the brainchild of Chester Gould. In "The Celebrated Cases of Dick Tracy," published last year by Chelsea House, Gould is quoted: "I decided that if the police couldn't catch the gangsters, I'd create a fellow who would."

There followed a memorable set of bad guys: "The Blank," a faceless man whose name was Frank Redrum, murder spelled backwards; Jerome Trohs, a midget who is scalded to death in a shower; the Mole, a miser who lived underground; B.B. Eyes, a World War II bootlegger; Flattop, a killer for hire; Pruneface, Haf-and-Haf, Angeltop and Torcher.

Their names often spelled their worst traits backwards and nearly always matched their appearance. "I wanted my villains to stand out definitely so that there would be no mistake who the villain was," Gould said once.
