

Purlie has seen a lot of hunger.

Purlie is a shy little girl with big, dark eyes. You can tell by her wistful expression that she has seen much hunger in her working life at Tooter's.

She hardly remembers her first order. Her boss was in bad financial straits when Purlie was first hired. He went out of business when Purlie was only six months employed.

Her manager earned very little and lived in one room in a tenement in Pasadena. He was unable to pay the frail little waitress a decent salary. He asked a management team, affiliated with the Tooter's Waitress Relief Fund, to take care of his employee, and subsequently quit the business to go into advertising.

There is still a sad, haunting look that lingers in Purlie's dark eyes. But she's improving. Gradually she's losing her inhibitions, and she camps and carries on with the other waitresses who share the same dining room on the night shift.

Purlie now has the care she needs. Her TWRF sponsors here in Montrose are helping give her a better chance to make a buck.

But there are many other needy waitresses still waiting for customers.

You can support a waitress for as little as $2.35 (Chicken Fried Steak, mashed potatoes, hot rolls, crisp salad, choice of dressings, tax not included). Just fill out the coupon and submit it with your preferences listed.

You will be sent the waitress, a glass of water, coffee if you wish, a menu, and a guest check.

You may call your sponsored waitress, and your request will be granted. You will get the waitress' original ticket and a numerical tabulation. (Waitresses unable to write are assisted by cooks or managers.)

Your patronage can make a big difference in the life of a needy little waitress. If there were no business, we'd probably have to run her off. Please fill out the coupon now. . . .

FROM THE EDITOR

Another month has just gone by and it seems that the year will be over before you know it. But a lot of activities still remain before the year end celebrations begin.

The Miss Gay America Pageant opens at the Old Plantation in Houston this weekend and the out of towners should really be flocking in to see it. Entries from as far as California on the west coast and Alabama on the eastern shore have entered the three day extravaganza. Don't miss it!

Tiffany Jones and Sahdji will be appearing at the Bayou Landing in Dallas this Sunday. Showtime is 9:30 and what a twosome they should make on stage.

Sunday, August 15th, Ernestine and Jennifer George will return to the Old Plantation in Dallas along with the Houston cast of Naomi Simms, Donna Day, and Carmelita. Jann Russell and the Pantomaniacs will be returning to Houston after almost a year's absence. It should really be packed houses at both OP's.

After Dark Bookshop & Film Gallery in Houston really seems to be coming the "in" arcade in town. This all gay establishment has brought some new and innovative ideas and it seems that Houstonians really like them!!!!

And what about this issue's cover boy? You may recognize this hot number from last week's edition. Rick is a Californian now residing in New Orleans and can be found working daily at the Bourbon Pub. He works the day shift by the way. In fact, Rick is also our birthday boy this issue, but you'll have to find out how old he is from him. Happy Birthday, Rick (and sit in my face!).

I would like to thank Ron Oruc and Associates Floral de-

Miss Gay America Opening

The New Miss Gay America Pageant presents Miss Gay America 1976 this Friday, Saturday, and Sunday nights at the Old Plantation Club in Houston.

The Miss Gay America Pageant was conceived as just another contest for female impersonators, an event to perhaps give business a shot in the arm. However, before the first contest was held, it became evident that this would become much more. Entries were received from across the country. The best that female impersonation had to offer came to Nashville, Tennessee, to be a part of the Miss Gay America Pageant 1972.

An appreciative audience on the final night made the judge's decision a unanimous one. From Hot Springs, Arkansas, came Norma Kristie. Norma traveled more than 100,000 miles that year to spread the word about the contest. Much of the success of the pageant is directly attributed to Norma Kristie. And for his contributions the Miss Gay America Board of Directors gave Norma the title of Miss Gay America Emeritus.

In 1973, once again they came in greater numbers to try for the title. From Puerto Rico by way signers for their aid with the Miss Gay America Pageant. Ron is located in the 900 Lovett complex and has a 24 hour flower hot line for that emergency "I forgot".

"Dahling, your outfit is Divine, but your Purse is on fire!" So, we are told, said Tallulah Bankhead to the priest at an Episcopal church. While we are not sure that this is a true story, we do know that there are a lot of Gay Episcopalians running around. A group called Episcopal/Integrity Houston is now holding monthly meetings. If you would like to have more information, call 713/526-9524 or write to Box 25342, Houston 77005.

Don't forget that Mr. Gay Texas will be August 19th at the Old Plantation in Houston. It should be a hot show!!

of Chicago came the Lady Baronessa. Again the judgement was correct. Lady Baronessa with much charm and beauty captivated the audience. Baronessa returned to Nashville, and then flew to Atlanta, Georgia, to pass on her title of Miss Gay America.

After four days and nights of strenuous competition both on and off stage, Shawn Luis, a native Hawaiian, living in Chicago, captured the coveted title. Shawn spent a whirlwind year publicizing the pageant and representing this "different" side of gay life.

After numerous setbacks, the Miss Gay America Pageant 1975 finally made it to the stage in December of 1975 at the Depository Club in Houston, Texas. Due to a last minute change of site, the pageant was not to be denied the life to which it was clinging. After two first nights of a poor showing in attendance, word finally materialized that the "show" was in town. Crowds filled the building to an overflowing capacity to see the crowning of the new Miss Gay America. The heavy burden of the title was accepted by Dani Diletto of Michigan. Dani has traveled in the short span of time he has held the title, to help spread the word of the pageant. Dani will return to Houston this year to pass on the coveted title to a yet undecided winner.

The contest will begin nightly at 8:00 p.m. at the Old Plantation, 2020 Kipling, Houston. Tickets are still available for reserved seating.

"Harry, stop poking me... if you want something, ask for it!"

"Doctor, how could you have two hands on my shoulders and still check my prostate glands?"

Roman Polanski, of China-town fame, has now hit the scene as screenwriter, director, and major star of the psychological drama The Tenant. The film also features Shelly Winters, Melvyn Douglas, and Isabelle Adjani.

dissatisfaction of Roman Polanski who wants to rent her apartment. You see, apartments in Paris (or Europe) are few and far between.

As director Polanski would have it, the woman dies in the hospital. Polanski the actor-star rents the dead woman's apartment and soon begins to realize that all the inhabitants of this apartment house are trying to make him believe that he is the dead woman. They psychologically drive him to believe that he is her. They even go to the extreme of leaving the dead woman's belongings in his apartment.

stage of the film dresses as the woman and runs about the apartment pretending he is her. Polanski the actor has been driven to believe that he is the woman.

Roman Polanski has a warped imagination at times. And spurts of near brilliance appear at times. Polanski's film is a visual drama of how one individual can be driven mad. At times the film has you on the edge of your seat, then lapses into a state of lack luster.

On the overall aspect of the film, it is a feast of a movie. You might say I'm a sucker for any Polanski film. I love his warped way of showing his character's attitudes and total movement on the screen.

GEMINI: Your mind may be flooded with new plans to advance professional projects. Sift through these exciting ideas and select the plan which promises to bring you the greatest advancement in your field and increased earnings.

CANCER: Try to remain calm when difficulties develop between family members and people in your neighborhood. Discount all rumors and hearsay; get the facts before you arrive at a decision in the matter.

LEO: Overlapping fortunate trends favor creative and artistic efforts. If you have doubts concerning your talent, get the advice of more experienced club members or consult an expert. An unbiased appraisal of your ability might save you time and money.

VIRGO: Although your financial outlook is good, it would be best to keep your spending well within budgetary limitations, especially when someone you love tempts you to be extravagant. Do not overlook the possibility of discovering profitable business ventures.

LIBRA: Strengthen ties with your business partners and career associates when conditions may be unsettled. Postpone any efforts to start new projects. Romantic interests and artistic efforts may give you a chance for recognition.

SCORPIO: Make plans to pursue personal undertakings when you may expect to be uninterrupted. Make new plans now for cooperative projects you wish to start. Group activities and social life should be highly favorable for your interests.

CAPRICORN: Get set for a highly fortunate trend in your family and partnership enterprises. Take the lead in formulating ambitious plans for the future after you have contacted all interested people for their suggestions.

AQUARIUS: Career and financial interests are fortunately accented, but the results may be more satisfactory if you concentrate efforts on these concerns this week. To get maximum benefits from a private venture, finalize the matter before the month's end.

PISCES: Your prospects for romance are excellent the first part of the week, but the trend deteriorates fast later in the week. Career obligations and your commitments to local groups may demand all your attention. Be prepared to take advantage of unusual developments.

Dear Aunt Sofa:

I understand that the wearing of a handkerchief in the back pocket symbolize different tastes in sexual orientation. Is this true? Just what are some of the meanings?

ADVISE:

Below you will find a few of the meanings. I had to ask around, as I myself was not "update" on the answer. I understand that there are some more, but this is all I have been able to come up with at the time. If there are any corrections that need to be made or additions, let me hear from you.

Dear Aunt Sofa:

I have been reading the classifieds in some of the "sex" papers and have come across many terms and abbreviations I don't understand. Could you possibly give a run down of most of the terminology used in these ads?

ADVISE:

I must admit there are quite a few lingos when it comes to the "classifieds" of all the papers. Here is a run down of some of them:

b/d - Bondage and discipline s/m - Sadism and masochism
ac/dc - Can perform sexually with both sexes
bi - same as ac/dc
Versatile - in straight ads can mean the same as ac/dc. In gay ads it usually means a person can go "fem" or "butch".
French active - performs oral sex to partner
French passive - receives oral sex from partner
Greek active - performs anal sex on partner
Greek passive - you guessed it!
Roman - Orgies and grop sex activities
Straight - Male/female sex only
Water Sports - Enemas
Golden Showers - urinating on a person
TV - Television or a person who enjoys wearing the clothes of the opposite sex.
