

BROOKLYN
San Antonio, Texas
22^d February 1873.

Major E. C. Wharton.

Dear Major,

Allow me to recommend to your Kindness, the great violinist, Don Eusebio Delgado, bearer of this.

Mr. D. is a Citizen of Mexico. Born in Cuba, he moved to the City of Mexico in early life; and there he acquired his music-al talent, which he afterwards perfected in Paris. He goes to New Orleans, when he is a Stranger, with the view of giving Concerts. Any assistance you can procure him to further his ends, shall be duly and gratefully acknowledged by me.

Mr. Delgado is a "talent hors ligne," and I fear not to recommend ^{him} as such.

Besides, as you will perceive, is well-bred and polished; and worthy of your patronage, and that of our mutual friends.

Therefore, please assist him in the premises, Dear Major, and oblige

Your sincere friend
Toussaint Beaumgard

S. B. M. Delgado was "Chef d'orchestre" to Emperor Maximilian's Opera House. Adieu - S. B.
