

3315 I $\frac{1}{2}$ Galveston Texas
J.H.K. Ruff Aug. 13th 1917.

Dear Mrs. Cunningham; —

I am feeling as if I need a little advice from you. I don't know what to do next. Have been filling your engagements, have spoken seven times, before missionary societies and fraternal organizations. Won't know that I have always said, what you most needed. but what I have said has been well received, and the people have been very generous, with compliments. I seem very much interested, and anxious to do something to better conditions, but I feel that we ought to be doing something. I have three other engage ments to fill, will probably make more. The press has done fine. We have added four or five to the committee.

Mrs. Blum has resigned.

What more can we do?
When are you coming to lend your aid? I know you are the busiest woman in the wide world, but wish you would take two minutes to write me a little advice.

Mrs. Webster is as dear as she can be and stands right-by. I enjoy the speaking and have been able to "pile up" a deal of information. I doubt not you will want to send me over the state.

Very Sincerely Mrs. D. G. Bliss
