Shell

Shell

NUMBER 41

SATURDAY, MARCH 22, 1980

CASH BASIS

Effective at 6 A.M. Sunday, March 23, the cafeteria will return to a cash basis. The only other way you can get a meal is to present an overtime meal ticket.

PERSONAL CARS

Also effective at 6 A.M. Sunday, only those individuals with an official DPMC drive-in pass will be allowed to bring their personal vehicles inside the Complex.

OFFICE HOURS

Office hours will revert to the normal schedule Monday.

CARPOOL PARKING

The sections of the parking lots reserved for carpools will again revert to that purpose on the day shift March 24.

EXPENSE CHECKS

Those individuals due reimbursable expenses for strike related activities should submit those accounts as soon as possible. All individuals - including those coming to the Complex from other Shell locations - must submit expense statements to the DPMC. If employed elsewhere, you can arrange for a check to be sent to your home or another work location.

THANKS

The Inside Story - which expects this to be the last issue - wishes to acknowledge the cooperation of those who helped make this publication a success during the past few hectic weeks.

Jim Hrous, DPMC general manager, left, explains Complex operations to B. E. Hill, parliamentary undersecretary for the minister of energy for New Zealand. The undersecretary visited Houston last week during a trip to the U. S. to review American oil technology.
