

In 1957 Damon Knight founded the Milford Writers' Workshop in Milford, Pennsylvania, for professional writers of SF. Ten years later, Robin Scott Wilson started the Clarion Workshop at Clarion State College for fledgling SF writers. Over the years both Workshops have moved around quite a bit--"Milford" became generic and was held wherever Damon and Kate were living; the same with "Clarion," from Pennsylvania to Tulane to Michigan State in 1972.

It's Anniversary time--Milford is 20 years old; Clarion 10. So, all alumni of both Workshops are invited to:

THE GREAT COMBINED MILFORD AND CLARION DECENNIAL JUBILEE, COLLOQUIUM AND BEER BASH

to be held on the campus of Michigan State University, East Lansing, Michigan, on Friday, August 26 and Saturday, August 27, 1977.

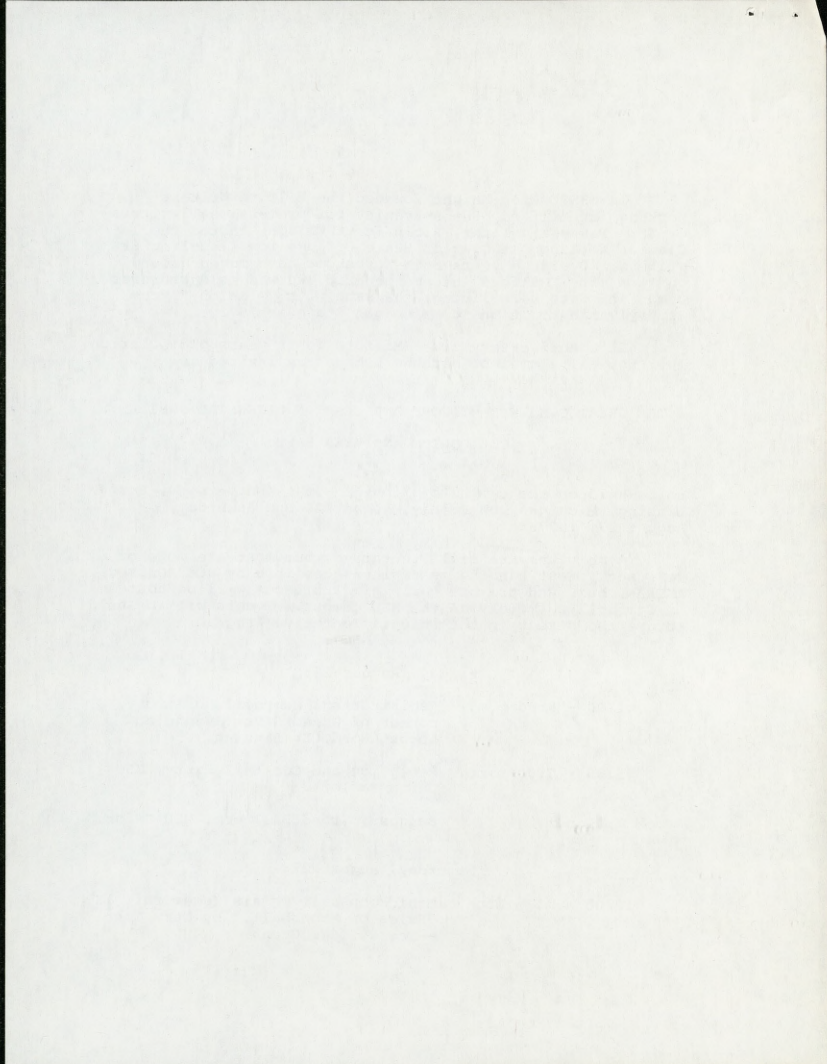

Some plans are still tentative, but most are more or less set. East Lansing is easily accessible by air (United), AMTRAK, bus, and private car. All Jubilants will be housed in Campbell Dormitory on the MSU campus. Events will be held across the street in the Union. Tentative Program:

Friday, August 26:

- 1:00 - 5:00 p.m. Registration, Campbell Dormitory, corner of Grand River Avenue and Abbott Road, E. Lansing.
- 5:00 - 7:00 p.m. Reception and Cocktail Party, MSU Union Parlors.
- 7:00 p.m. Banquet, Grand Ballroom, MSU Union.

Saturday, August 27:

- 10:00 a.m. - Noon Mini Moopsball Trials (see Orbit 18, "Rules of Moopsball," by Gary Cohn)
- The College Green

2:00 p.m.

Panel Discussion by Illustrious Milford/
Clarion Alumni. Topic:

What is the Contemporary Role of
SF in the World Today? - Grand
Ballroom, Union

Evening

Perhaps a film; general partying and the
"Bash" part of the Jubilee

Sunday - on to the World Con

More Details:

Jubilee Registration Fee: $4.00 per person

Housing: $8.00 per night, single

$5.75 per night, double

Payment for rooms should be made at registration. The University has no facilities for billing or credit cards.

The banquet will be the only planned meal. A continental breakfast will be available in the Dorm both Saturday and Sunday mornings at $1.50 per person. Otherwise, the location of the Dorm is such that any and all kinds of food is available within a block's walking distance.

Large free souvenir buttons will be available for all-- blue for Milford, red for Clarion. We're working on other goodies of similar ilk.

The Banquet Menu for Friday the 26th will be:

Prime Rib of Beef/Au Jus

Appetizer

Salad

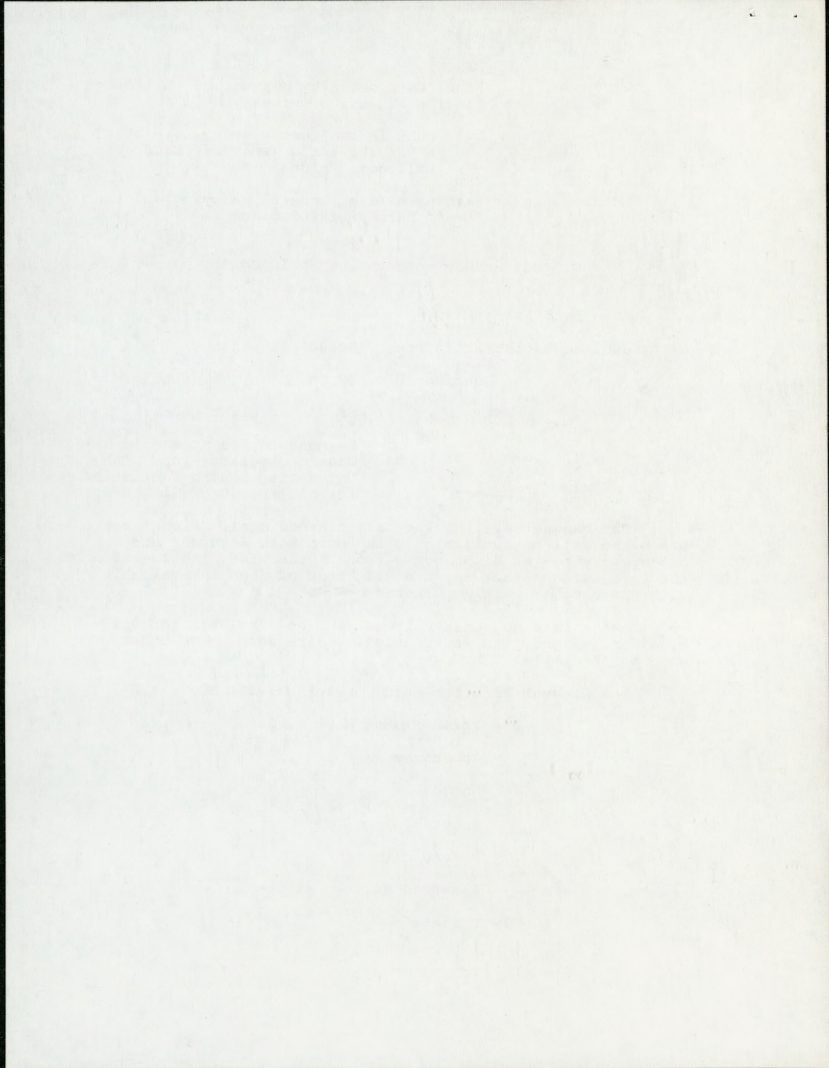

Vegetable

Potato

Assorted Rolls

Dessert

Cost: $6.50

Spouses are welcome; children not.

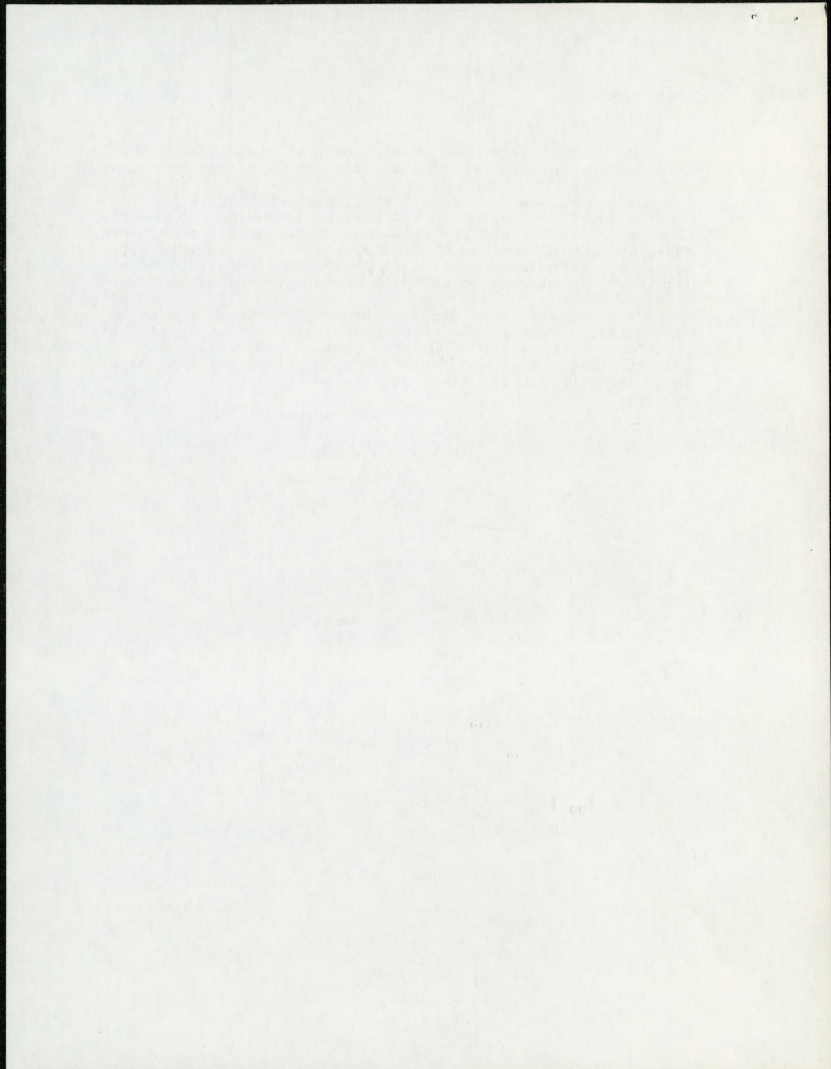

We will try and have an alphabetical list of all those in attendance available. There will also be a message board.

Robin Wilson and Damon Knight, respectively, will be sending out this invitation and will be enclosing two copies. SF types are notoriously mobile, and while between them Damon, Katie and Robin know the whereabouts of most everybody, the extra copy is to send to a Milford/Clarion alumnae who might be missed. Duplicate invitations are greatly superior to none.

So: on behalf of Michigan State University, and me in particular, I warmly extend our Hospitality for an event that signifies the vitality of Science Fiction today. In many respects Damon, Kate and Robin are responsible for this happy state, and the Jubilee is to do them Honor.

Sincerely,

Glenn Wright
