HEADQUARTERS

1626 RHODE ISLAND AVENUE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

October 11, 1917.

Dear Treasurer:

I enclose herewith my quarterly report to your State Association for the fourth quarter of the fiscal year. The latest date which I have been able to make the report to, in order to get it in time for your use in making out your report, is October 11th. Our fiscal year runs to October 31st, and whatever you can send me up to that date will be credited on this year.

I am sending you also a blank form for your report to the National Treasurer. It calls for (1) the fourth quarterly report of moneys sent to the National Treasury; (2) the total amount paid by your Association to the National Treasury for the fiscal year September 1, 1916 to October 31, 1917; (3) the total amount raised by your Association on its apportionment under the Million Dollar Fund.

It is very important that we should know the total amount raised by the entire National Association in all of its work for suffrage this year. It can only be done by full reports from State Treasurers of State suffrage expenditures.

Hoping that you will be able to bring up your pledge and affiliated dues to the full amount and get your report and check in my hands by October 31st -

Yours very sincerely,

Emma Wimmer Rogers
