Petroleum Building,
Houston, Texas.

Dear Mr. Cullinan:

*****

Your suggestion regarding the visit to Villa de Matel is final and is all right with me. Neither the Mother Superior nor the buildings are going to move away soon! But, I imagine you are familiar enough with the ways of those Blessed Sisters to understand that when they once make up their minds to do a thing they are going to do it, or storm the ramparts of heaven.

Yours very sincerely,

(Sgd) PETER GRAY SEARS
