

OUR GALA 10th ANNUAL SCIENCE FICTION CONVENTION

FANTASY FAIRE 1980

JULY 25 - 26 - 27

Travelodge International Hotel 9750 AIRPORT BLVD. • LOS ANGELES (Near LAX)

GUESTS OF HONOR

The Guest of Honor for the 1980 Fantasy Faire is the creative and talented Katherine Kurtz. Famed for the Deryni fantasy series, Katherine's most recent book is "Camber the Heretic." (To be released this Fall). She will be in attendance all three days.

Also for this convention we are having a fan Guest of Honor. Greg Akers has attended all of our conventions and, as far as we know, only one other—ever! Does this make him our #1 fan?

AWARDS DINNER

The Awards Dinner will be on Saturday, July 26 at 1:30 p.m. Featured will be the Guests of Honor Awards, the Fritz Leiber Fantasy Award, the Bob Clampett Animation Award, the Clark Ashton Smith Poetry Award and special tributes paid to Mike Jittlov and George Pal by Dr. Donald A. Reed, President of the Academy of Science Fiction, Fantasy & Horror Films. The dinner is $12 per person and will feature swiss steak. Please order NOW so we can let the hotel know how many to expect.

CABARET

Featured Friday evening will be the popular Cabaret. This program was a big hit at the Science Fiction Weekend. Spotlighted was the folk and filk singing of Dorothy Fontana, Lynn Barker, Karen Willson and Cynthia McQuillan among others. For Fantasy Faire we have added more belly dancers, more group singing and a magician. Audience participation is invited.

COSTUME CONTEST

This exciting program will be held on Sat. evening and will be emceed by Marion Zimmer Bradley. If you wish to enter, write for entry forms or pick them up at the Registration Table before 5:30 Sat., July 26. You are invited to come in costume whether or not you enter the contest. Come as your favorite s.f. character.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS

After the costume contest Katherine Kurtz will demonstrate Scottish Country Dancing, Darkover (Hastur's Fancy) and Deryni (Lady Bronwyn's Reel) style. On Saturday morning Katherine will read from her latest book "Camber the Heretic" and sign autographs.

On Sunday Marion Zimmer Bradley and her group will present a play, "The Free Amazons of Ghor." Based on the counter-earth stories, the satire was written by Randall Garrett and Vicki Ann Heydron.

On Saturday Mike Jittlov will do a talk & show the film "All About the Wizard." Steve Rubin will talk and show film clips on the James Bond movies & the book he's writing.

Bob Burns will show slides and talk about the Halloween shows he's presented over the years. He'll also show a short film "Major Mars," a take-off on Space Patrol. Morris Scott Dollens has agreed to show the movie, "Space Pioneers," which he made in the early fifties. Morrie did all the model work and sets as well as shooting the film.

Don Rico will show slides of his comic collection and work in this field and there will be other programs by Bob Clampett, C. L. Moore, Fritz Leiber, George Clayton Johnson, Stephen Goldin and Kathleen Sky (the Convention emcees) and others.

FILMS

For our tenth anniversary we have lined up some really good films, both old and new. We've scheduled Superman (the movie), Dark Star, Slaughterhouse 5, The Andromeda Strain, Jason & the Argonauts, Young Frankenstein, Mysterious Island, The Hideous Sun Demons, episodes of The Prisoner, and much more, over 30 hours of films. If you're a film buff, please try to get your membership in before the cut off for mail orders so we'll know that we haven't made a mistake in budgeting our largest sum ever for films!

GENERAL INFORMATION

Some of the unofficial activities at Fantasy Faire include room parties, video parties, games, etc. You will find groups interested in various fan activities and publications such as NADWAS, LASPAS, Darkover Councils, S.F. Film Academy, SCA, Star Wars, Star Trek, Doctor Who, film making, pulp and comic collectors, and much more.
