909 Congress Avenue,
February 9, 1917.

Mrs. W. H. Fain,
Savoy Apartments,
Houston, Texas.

My Dear Mrs. Fain:

Your wire arrived this morning. In response, herewith list of officers to address in clubs near Houston; some, it is true, are not clubs, but the ones addressed might be interested.

Mrs. Cunningham sends her love and says she will write you again some time. She was feeling very badly again last evening, but back at work by ten o'clock this morning.
You appreciate, I am sure, the strain she is under and it is almost impossible for her to get to write her own mother and husband.

In haste to get this in the mail.

Sincerely,

Headquarters Secretary.
