UH HEAD COACH: Ruth Nelson

Ruth Nelson

Ruth Nelson, 30, is in her sixth season as University of Houston's women's head volleyball coach—and she has had quite the career as a player and coach to date.

Her first UH team (1974) placed fourth in the national tournament with the Cougars finishing third the next season and fifth in 1976. The Cougars won the Region IV AIAW (Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women) Tournament championship in 1974, 1975 and 1977.

The 1970 graduate of Northern Colorado University (Greeley), with a degree in Physical Education and Psychology (plus a masters in PE earned at George Williams 1973), is also an assistant coach for the United States' women's Olympic volleyball team. Nelson earned that spot in January 1977. Two of her former UH stars, Flo Hyman and Rita Crockett, are members of the Olympic squad. Nelson has been appointed recently as a member of the AIAW's National Volleyball Committee.

She has been player-coach of the United States Volleyball Association (USVBA) team, Houston Stars, the last four years with the team tying for fifth in the AAU nationals in Chicago this last summer. The Stars were 15th at the USVBA Nationals in Dayton, and third at the AAU Junior Olympics in Chicago, also this last summer. She was a USVBA second team All-America in 1978.

Nelson coached the United States Collegiate Sports Council women's team to a fifth-place finish in the World University games, plus the South squad to a gold medal finish—and the Midwest squad to a third-place spot at the U.S. Sports Festival in Colorado Springs, all this last summer.

Nelson is known as one of the best setters in volleyball, as attested to the teams she has played for. She was a member of the 1972 U.S. National team that toured Mexico with the Mexican and Chinese teams. Nelson was a member of the 1973 World Cup training squad, the E Pluribus Unum national championship team in 1973-74, the U.S. Women's Olympic training squad that competed against teams from Japan, South Korea, West Germany, Bulgaria, Romania and Italy from 1974 through 1976.

Before taking up volleyball Nelson was the No. 1 varsity tennis player for Northern Colorado in her freshman through junior seasons, a starting leftwinger for the field hockey squad two seasons, a starter on the basketball team for two seasons and a starter in centerfield in softball her sophomore season. Because of shoulder problems she took up volleyball, and spent her senior season playing for the USVBA Denver Firebugs. Nelson was a member of the USVBA Chicago Rebels in 1971.
