

U. of H. vs. WILLIAM & MARY IN FOOTBALL OPENER

Proof that the University of Houston was having "big time" in the football world was realized last week when it was announced that the Cougars would open their 1949 football campaign against the powerful William and Mary eleven.

The tilt will be the opening game for both teams and will be played here on September 17.

It had been previously announced that the Cougars would entertain Hardin-Simmons university here in an afternoon game on October 22, and the University of Houston here on October 1.

The Indians of William and Mary come to Houston as Delta bowl champions in 1949. A convincing 20-0 scalping of Oklahoma A & M gave Williamsburg, Va. team the crown.

Another feather in the Indians' bonnet was a 7-7 tie with North Carolina—the same North Carolina that drubbed Texas university 34-7 and won a berth on the 1949 Sugar bowl.

Games such as this are the first of what will form one of the top football schedules in the country for the University of Houston, local authorities believe.

Ned Thompson, Cougar athletic business manager, said that Ex-Students would again be given priority on season football tickets. He pointed out that season ticket holders would have the option of purchasing the same seat from now on until such time as they voluntarily relinquish this right. The athletic dept. may be reached by calling C-4-8251 or C-4-1681, Extension 34.

Recently the University terminated its membership in the Lone Star conference in order to have stronger schedules in all athletics. The Cougars entered a new conference, as yet unnamed, along with North Texas state, Hardin college, and Trinity university. Harry Fouke, University of Houston athletic director, was named vice-president of the new league.

February 7 saw an 80-man squad including over 35 new-comers report to Head Coach Clyde Lee for spring drills. Among the new faces under the Red and White helmets are Jack Chambers, Waco's great linebacker; Dudley Harrell, star center from Uvalde and Southwest Texas junior college; Rags Ragoni, letterman at Texas university; Floyd Winnfield, former all-state Oklahoma back.

Head Coach R. N. McCray has lined up a schedule for his William and Mary eleven that includes Michigan state, Duke university and University of Arkansas besides regular Southern conference foes.

Last year four bowl teams were selected from the Southern conference. William and Mary was rated 17th in the nation at the close of the season.

All-American fullback Jack Cloud, wheel horse of the Indians, has won all-conference honors two seasons in a row.

The Indian-Cougar tilt will be a night contest played in Houston's Public School stadium.

Record Broken for Enrollment Spring Term

Enrollment at the University is in agreement with the national picture. While enrollment at other colleges decreases, the university's registration increases each semester, reaching a total of more than 4,000 on-campus students.

The figure for this spring does not include the nurses enrolled, Mr. Terrel Spencer, registrar, said. The Downtown School enrollment reached 1191.

On Wednesday during registration we registered 4000 students, which is a record for one day. Approximately 450 students per hour are registered on this day with the employees and the faculty," Bud Spencer, registration manager, said.

President Names Two Committees

President Tom Menefee appointed two committees at the last meeting of the Ex-Students board of directors.

A Fund Drive committee consisting of Roger Bleike, Rose Mary Martin and Jack Valenti was named to work out plans for the upcoming fund drive. Bleike was named chairman.

The second committee appointed by the president was an Athletic committee to help work out plans for the annual Gridiron Dinner, selling of season football tickets and other activities related to athletics. This committee consisted of Al Swanson, Roger Jeffery and Walter Waldhauser.

FOOTBALL WAS NEVER LIKE THIS is what University freshman grid player Max Harding might be saying as four pretty coeds "urge" him to enter the Frontier Fiesta beard-growing contest. Lamarr McGinnis, extreme left, wields the "persuader" while Patsy Owen looks at the "victim" sympathetically. Doris Moore finishes the shaving job and Natalie Campbell (with shaving soap) watches gleefully. Beard growers will nurture their chin whiskers for two months. Prizes for the best beards will be awarded as a climax of the all-student show, scheduled on the campus April 6-9. For more pictures concerning Frontier Fiesta please turn to page 6.

Exes desiring tickets are asked to make their checks payable to The University of Houston and mail them to the Ex-Students Association on the campus.

"We hope the Exes who intend to go to this dance will purchase their tickets early," Johnny Goyen, Executive Secretary of the Exes said. "A great number of Exes were not able to purchase tickets to the last Homecoming dance simply because they waited too long," he added.

The Old Meeting The Young; That's W and M vs. U. of H.

By BRUCE UNDERWOOD

"It's a natural . . . as colorful as a rainbow over a painted desert." These words may well apply to the University of Houston Cougars' opening football game next fall against the Indians of William and Mary college.

This study in contrasts will pit the 15-year-old University against one of the oldest colleges in the nation. The University is a tot in rompers compared in age with William and Mary, the Methuselah of American colleges. W&M is the second oldest college in the United States, antedated only by Harvard. Actually the Virginia college's classes started several months before Harvard's. William and Mary college was founded in 1693 when a royal charter was granted by Their Majesties, William and Mary, king and queen of England, to a college in Virginia to be called by their names.

In enrollment, however, the democratic University with its approximately 12,000 students is more than six times as large as William and Mary. Sprawling Houston, the industrial, chemical, oil, and cattle metropolis, boasts a population of 700,000, while aristocratic Williamsburg, the site of W&M, is a town of 4,000 people.

The Indians from Virginia have played intercollegiate football since 1894, the year W&M tied Hampden-Sydney college. The cougars will be fielding the fourth gridiron squad in their history. The Southern conference, in which the Indians do their scalping, has been a recognized grid power for years. The still unnamed conference to which the University belongs, was organized this year after the University, Trinity, and North Texas state pulled out of the Lone Star conference.

"Are the Cougars getting too big for their breeches by taking on the 17th ranking team in the nation?" some fans ask.

"Just watch us come September 17," is the Cougars' answer.

Mammoth Stadium

Plans for a giant stadium for Houston that will provide seats for many thousands of Houstonians means good news for the University of Houston. And when this news is combined with announcement of the U. of H.'s big leap into big-time football via a game with William and Mary, results will be happy smiles for all Cougar fans.

For it means that there will be ceiling unlimited for the University of Houston sports world, both in quality of games and quantity of spectators.

It takes no seer to envision a day in the not-too-distant future when the giant stadium-to-be will be overflowing with eager fans as the Cougars play the number-one team of the year. When H. R. Cullen, chairman of the University's Board of Regents, recently said that he wanted to see the Cougars play Army, Northwestern, Navy and other "name" teams, some may have thought it to be visionary, but already this future is starting to come true.

For at the University, everything is possible. Most of us Exes well remember the day when the U. of H. itself was a dream in the minds of a few leaders. Remembering this, the plans for a giant U. of H. sports program seem to take on a firm reality.

Two civic leaders associated with the University are members of the Stadium Committee. Corbin J. Robertson, a firm friend of the U. of H. and of the Exes; and U. of H. President E. E. Oberholtzer, who made the dream of a University of Houston into a reality, are both at work on the committee creating a sports stadium of a size and scope befitting the future of Houston and its University.

Speaking for the Exes of the University of Houston, The EXTRA wishes to go on record as being 100% behind the new stadium. It will mean a great deal to the future of sports in Houston and to the University of Houston.

"The Other Fellow...."

Election time is coming around for Ex-Students, an important event which calls for action on the part of each Ex-Student of the University of Houston.

In the latter part of April, the Ex-Students Association's annual election will be held. Certainly no organization is better than its officers, who are in turn determined by the active members who take the time to vote. Thus, in the long run it is the members who determine if the organization is to thrive. So it is in the case of the Ex-Students Association.

It is the duty of each member to take an active part in the Association by casting his vote for the men and women he feels are best qualified for the job. If every member does this, 1949 cannot fail to be a banner year for the Exes.

Don't let "the other fellow do it." Passing the buck only means that you are not interested enough to use your good sense and judgment in selecting your officers.

Do your duty to the Exes by casting your ballot for 1949 officers of the Ex-Student Association when the time comes.

charge of all new car and truck sales.

Jeffery joined the Pearson organization in March, 1948, as sales promotion manager. Formerly, he was one of the star salesmen with Union Central Life Insurance Company.

The colorful and youthful Jeffery (he is only 32) graduated from the University in 1938 after capturing most of the elective honors available at the time. He was sophomore president, student council member and one of the most vociferous advocates of inter-collegiate athletics, a dream which finally came true.

Highly civic-minded, Roger has long been an active participant in varied civic movements in the city. For nine years he has served as a member of the senior Chamber of Commerce Athletic Committee; for many years he has been a leader in the Junior Chamber of Commerce. From 1943 until January, 1947, he was secretary of the Houston Oil Bowl Association and deserves a share of the credit for the jubilee pageantry of the Oil Bowl football games. In 1946, he worked as co-director of the first Houston Tournament of Champions golf festival.

Since 1945, Jeffery has been one of the dominant figures in the revitalizing of the Ex-Student Association. The first Homecoming celebration in 1947 was largely the handiwork of Roger in his capacity of Homecoming chairman. As a member of the Ex-Student Board of Directors, Roger was instrumental in the fabulously successful football banquets of 1947 and 1948.

Married, Roger and his wife, Harriet, and their three children, Bill, Judy, 2 and Jan, three months, live at 3836 Bellfontaine.

Best Beard Grower To Get 1949 Ford

By ELER BERTELSEN

Students got into the swing of the year's annual Frontier Fiesta carnival February 11 when the beard-growing contest officially began. Chairman Harrey Scott has named Frontier Fiesta "the greatest college show on earth."

Earl McMillian, Houston automobile dealer, presented a 1949 tudor as the grand prize for the best all-around beard, and Ex-Student Bobby Howard, who represented the Fruit Bowl Bottling Company, offered a horse and saddle for the winner of the "longest" beard contest.

Six other categories again will be sponsored by the Fiesta this year. They are ugliest, funniest, fanciest, unique, reddest and scrawniest beards. Prizes will be given to the winners and runners-up in all categories, Scott said. There are approximately 40 prizes donated by Houston merchants that will be awarded to the winners.

Ole Olsen, comedian of the "Hell-capturing poppin'" road show, will give the available 100 gallons of gasoline to the winner of the Ford. Mr. Olsen brought part of his show to the campus to entertain the beard-growing contestants. A 14-piece band entertained the students.

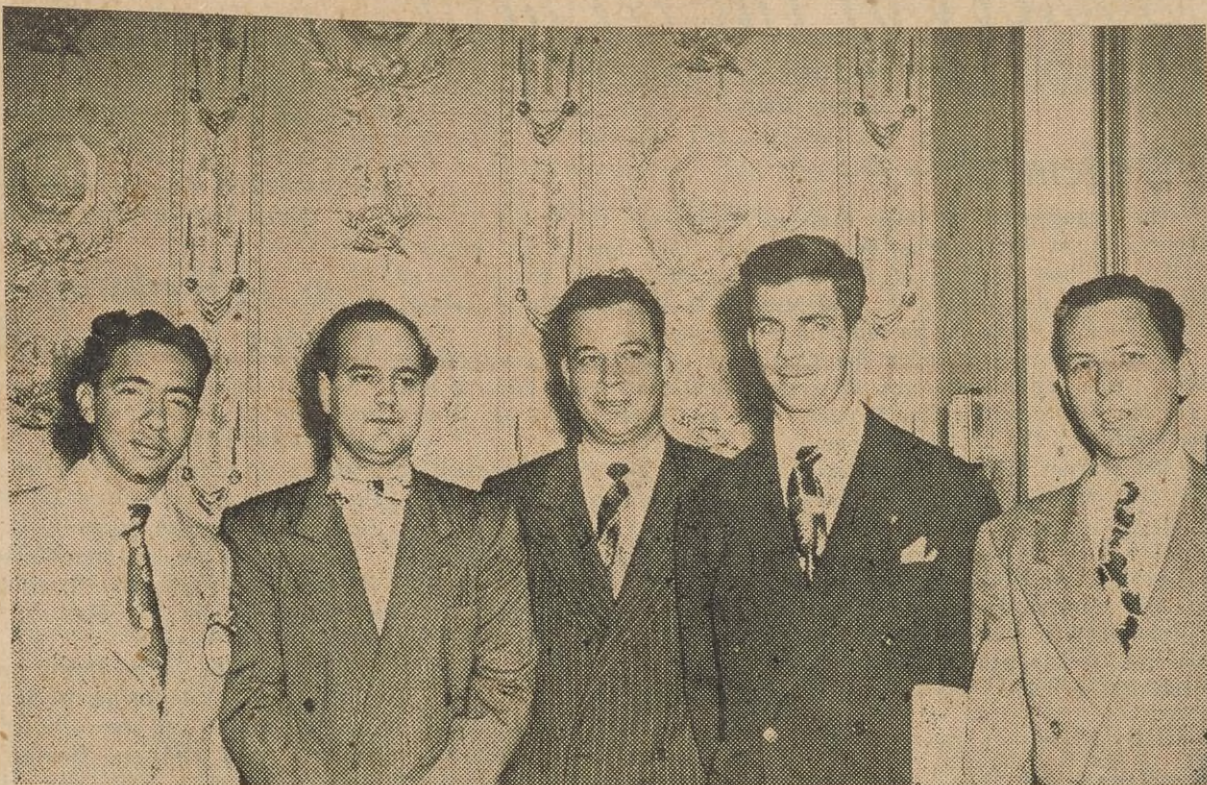

Construction of the gigantic Fiesta City was underway as The Extra went to press. The Crow's Nest, concession of the Sigma Alpha Chi, was under construction, and threatens to beat the rest of the clubs in complete a show site.

Officials of the university have indicated that the concessions must be constructed, scripts to shows approved, and shows rehearsed before the annual clapboard-front town can be opened to the public.

"That means lots of work on the part of every organization participating in the annual project," Scott said. "I know that we can count on every club. We need the

Jaycee Directors

The above four Ex-Students and one student of the University are making their marks in the Houston Junior Chamber of Commerce. They were elected to the Chamber's board of directors in January. They are, left to right, Henry Escamilla, the student, and ex-students Walter Waldhauser, Herman Earlywine, Herb Schmidt, and Wade Hubbard.

Civic Minded Exes Elected To High Offices in Jaycees

The University of Houston can lay good claim to developing young men who are leaders in the community. As a matter of fact, the Ex-Students association is filled with evidence of the truth of this claim.

Perhaps nowhere is this more dramatically demonstrated than in the Houston Junior Chamber of Commerce, which is the focal point of the leaders among the young business and professional men of Houston, the training ground for the civic leaders of tomorrow.

Four out of the fifteen members of the 1949 Board of Directors of the Junior Chamber are members of the Ex-Students association. A fifth member is now attending the University.

Walter Waldhauser, board member of the Ex-Students association, is doubling as board member of the Jaycees. A widely known and popular student in the University, Walter was a journalism major—one of the first to graduate with this major. He held almost every position possible on the Cougar, from reporter to editor to business manager. In fact, he was the only student, as far as is known, ever to serve variously as business manager and editor of the campus newspaper.

He is now director of publications for Tennessee Gas and Transmission, where he is making a most enviable record. Formerly editor of the Dynamo, Jaycee publication, Walt won high praise for his work on this magazine. He is a one-year director.

Henry Escamilla, the student, and Ex-Student Wade Hubbard are the other two one-year directors. Henry attended the University before the war. After several years in service, he returned to the campus and is working toward his degree in Business Administration.

He has been extremely active as secretary and co-chairman of the Inter-American activities committee for the past several years.

Wade Hubbard, who is with the New York Life Insurance company, served well as business manager of the Dynamo for two years, and was active in many other Jaycee affairs. He was a business administration major of the Dynamo for two years, and was active in many other Jaycee affairs. He was a business administration major at the University before the war.

Herman Earlywine, a pre-war great at the University, where he was active in intra-mural sports, is beginning a two-year directorship. He made his mark last year as chairman of the safety committee, which conducted the famous SURAD safety campaign. He is at present with United Gas Company.

Herb Schmidt was recently appointed by President Bill Walker to replace a resigned director. At the University, Herb was active in the business end of student publications, studied business and journalism courses. In the Jaycees, Herb has been a whirlwind in a variety of activities, especially in the personnel committee and as luncheon prize chairman. Herb is with the Liquid Carbonic company.

Incidentally, many other Exes and students have been extremely active in the Junior Chamber—notably Roger Jeffery, Peter Whitney, Billy Utter, and Harold Sprawls. Harold, completes his degree work in journalism this year, was editor of the 1948 Dynamo.

Student Appears On Monroe Show

Rena Kozakis, sophomore music major, appeared as guest artist with Vaughn Monroe and his orchestra in both performances of the two hour variety show in the City auditorium Sunday, February 13.

Mrs. Kozakis was selected when Mr. Monroe invited the University public relations office to select the most promising girl singer on the campus to sing with him at his shows. When the music department was asked to help, they immediately suggested Mrs. Kozakis.

The young lyric soprano has so impressed the music faculty and others who have heard her that the coveted Delphia Society music scholarship was awarded to her last semester.

Boris Goldofsky of the New England Conservatory in Boston auditioned Mrs. Kozakis last summer. He told her that she "must study with him." The famed teacher selects only six advanced students for opera each year. She said that she may accept his offer later.

A career in Metropolitan Opera is the ambition of Mrs. Kozakis, whose repertoire now consists mostly of operatic music.

The bride wore a gown of white satin and Alencon lace. Her finger-veil of silk illusion was attached to a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of orange blossoms and an orchid over a prayer book.

The honor attendants, Miss Peggy Jackson and Mrs. E. C. Mayfield wore powder blue taffeta. The bridesmaids, Miss Cordelia Sprong, Miss Maxine Bates and Mrs. G. L. Harrison, wore ice blue taffeta. All carried sweetheart bouquets of orange blossoms and white stock. Gene Weatherly was best man and Bill Schmucker was groomsman. Ushers were Carl Hooper, Jack Colley and Wallace Maurer. Paulen Warden was the flower girl and William Earl Edgar Jr., was the ring bearer.

A reception was held at the home of the bride following the ceremony. Later the couple left for a trip to San Antonio. They will live in Victoria.

Mrs. Weatherly attended the University the past year and Mr. Weatherly graduated from the University in August with a bachelor's degree in journalism. He was a member of the Press club and sports editor of The Cougar and The Houstonian.

University Ex-Students Are Wed In Evening Ceremony February 16

Two ex-students were wed Wednesday night in a ceremony at St. Paul's Methodist church. The bride, the former Miss Mary Anne Rowntree, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rowntree and the groom, Robert Louis Howard, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Howard.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an original model gown of antique ivory satin. It was styled with a portrait neckline and a princess skirt of cathedral length. The yoke of illusion was edged with a deep bertha of lace, which also trimmed the double cascade of the skirt. A regency bonnet held her voluminous veil of silk illusion.

She carried a Bible overlaid with an orchid and stephanotis.

Mrs. Lloyd J. Money was matron of honor and Miss Toni Badami, Miss Jean Dugan, Miss Norma Terrell, Mrs. Frank McCracken, and Mrs. William B. Hodge Jr.

The attendants were gowned alike in magnolia faille taffeta, which featured deep portrait necklines, pointed basques and full circular skirts. They carried dubonnet carnations.

Suzanne Shippee was the flower girl.

Frank W. Smith, Jr. was best man. Groomsmen were William H. Skipwith Jr., Robert Abercrombie, Henry C. King Jr., Frank S. Groves and Elmer Bertelsen.

Ushers were Lloyd J. Money, Jack Stalsby and Harlen Stringer.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents.

After a wedding trip to New Orleans the couple will make their home in Houston.

Both are graduates of the University.

Two Parties Honor Prospective Bride

Miss Amy Beth Batterson, prospective bride of Bill Douglas, was honored Friday night with a personal shower. It was given by Mrs. Thomas Mayes in the home of her mother, Mrs. Glenn Parmlee.

Saturday Miss Eloise Yett complimented Miss Batterson with a luncheon at the Empire Room.

Song of Norway To Run Mar. 16, 17 In Music Hall

Exes will have an opportunity to see a Broadway show in Houston when the University presents "Song of Norway" in the Music hall March 16 and 17.

The "Song of Norway" is based on the life of Edvard Hagerup Greig, famous Norwegian composer. One of Greig's best known compositions is his music to Ibsen's "Peer Gynt."

A chorus of 48 already is rehearsing for the production under the direction of Bruce Spencer King, musical director. Mr. King explained that the University's home economics, music, student activities, radio production, drama, physical education, and public relations departments are assisting with the event.

Tickets, which may be purchased in the University Student Activities office, are priced at $1.50 for lower floor seats, and $1 for balcony seats. Children's tickets are 60 cents.

Cougar Cagers Out of LSC Race; Remaining Games Out of Town

Eliminated from Lone Star title consideration, the Cougar basketball team has two remaining games on their schedule.

On February 14 the Cougars suffered their fourth loss of the season to league leading Stephen F. Austin 67-44. The defeat pushed the Cougars into fourth place and out of the 1949 Conference picture.

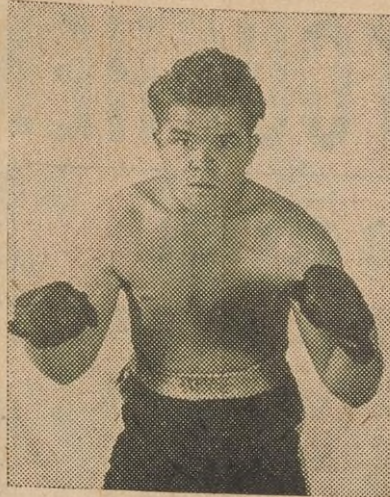

The Cougars' Lloyd Hendrix split high scoring honors for the evening as he racked up 15 points.

The only Cougar bid came halfway through the first half when they cut the Austin lead to 13-11. Arleigh Duff dampened the rally as he racked in four straight field goals and the 'Jacks pulled away to a 22-13 lead.

In Denton two weeks ago the Cougars whipped North Texas 75-59 in a great last half battle. The Cougars were behind at the half, but came back to tally 47 points in the final 20 minutes to take the Eagles. Dick Berg had 22 points to lead all scorers for the night, while Louis Brown pushed in 17 markers.

In the East Texas game the Cougars were away off their regular brand of ball in losing 66-60. In the final minutes the Lions came from behind to win. Hendrix led all scorers for the night with 19 points, and Berg chalked up 15 tallies.

The Cougars round out their 1949 season away from home with games with Trinity and Southwest Texas State.

RED MITCHELL

Cougars Win Titles In Golden Gloves

Two Cougar battlers, Ivis Rister and Tom "Red" Mitchell, were crowned regional boxing champions in the Golden Gloves tourney held at the City Auditorium two weeks ago.

Both boys fought under the sponsorship of the Heights club and were managed and trained by Benny King, also a University student.

Rister, letterman center on the Cougar football squad last season, won the light-heavy title when he out-slugged Bobby Lawson in a three round slugfest.

The Cougar griddler held the upper hand throughout the battle which saw both fighters out on their feet in the final round. Boxing was traded for good old-fashioned slug-ging as both fighters went to the fore with everything they could muster. Rister chalked up two knockouts over Gene Bloomfield and Robert Hill in previous bouts in the tournament. Rister's long right proved the difference in both of these battles.

Red Mitchell pulled the upset of the tourney as he beat Herb May in a three rounder for the middle weight title. Mitchell used rough powerhouse tactics, and the outcome was never uncertain. This fight was the first loss for May, considered the number one fighter in amateur boxing circles.

Powerhouse tactics paid off for Mitchell in his first bout of the meet as he knocked out University student Paul Billingsley in the first round.

scripts as soon as possible."

Hickman Corley and Betty Jo Speight have been named prize chairmen. Corley said that a complete prize list, with categories to which each will be awarded, will appear in the next edition of The Extra.

In past years the Ex-Students Association has sponsored a coffee and doughnut "snack bar," Johnny Goyen, executive secretary, said, commenting that he hopes to interest the Board of Directors in a larger project this year.

"It looks like the Fiesta is getting bigger and bigger," Goyen said. "And the Ex-Students Association is likewise getting larger. We want to keep pace with these undergraduates."

The annual carnival will be held April 6-9 on a permanent five-acre site on the campus adjacent to St. Bernard Street.

SPRING DRILLS TOUGHEN FOR GRIDDDERS

By BRUCE UNDERWOOD

University of Houston's Cougars jumped into rough scrimmage sessions last week after only four days of spring training workouts in preparation with their opening game against the Delta Bowl champion William and Mary Indians.

Newcomers swell the total footballers working under Clyde

Lee to over 75. This includes more than 30 new prospects and 32 returning lettermen.

Maurice Elliott and John Niscavits, both wingmen last year, have been switched to fullbacks. Elliott played at Kilgore junior college before coming to Houston last fall. Niscavits, a 1948 squadman, is a St. Thomas high school graduate.

Max Harding, former Galena Park fullback and last year Cougar squadman, has been playing at quarterback under the "T" during the spring drills. Boyd Tingle, of Pasadena, was changed from quarterback to halfback.

The first four days of the spring workouts saw all players going through blocking and tackling drills. Backs worked on timing and plays, passing and pass defense.

Among the new faces under the red and white helmets are Floyd Winnfield, all state Oklahoma back in 1946, Rags Ragoni, letterman halfback from Texas university, Center Dudley Harrell from Uvalde and Southwest Texas junior College, Jack Chambers, Waco's great line-backing center, Gene Shannon of Freeport and Tyler junior college.

Nick Dokos, three-year San Jacinto player, has shown good prospects at guard. Tackle Tom Petty, from Louisiana, is one of the largest of the new boys. He weighs 197 pounds and is six feet-one inch tall. Petty has been especially capable at defensive tackle.

Ends Frank Roddy and Leslie Ralson showed good ability in getting downfield under passes. Roddy played four years for Jacksonville high school and was a standout on defense last fall for the Cougars. Ralson played two years for his Rusk high school and was a squadman for the University last year.

Coach Lee indicated stiff workouts are in store for the squad during the entire 30-day period. There will probably be a scrimmage between a Red and a White team at the close of the spring drills.

Rice Hotel Scene Of Cougar Dance

The Varsity "H" association at the University of Houston will sponsor a "Sweetheart" dance in the Rice Hotel's Crystal ballroom March 11 from 8 p.m. to 12 p.m.

Sweetheart of the association will be presented at the dance after being elected by the University athletes.

All clubs on the campus will have a coed representative for the honors. Initial voting will be done before the dance to eliminate all but four "Sweetheart" candidates.

Glen Bond, treasurer of the Varsity "H" association, is dance chairman. All Ex-Students are invited to attend. Tickets are $3.00 per couple.

FORMER WACO CENTER

JACK CHAMBERS, former center of the class AA State Champion Waco team, should see a lot of action this coming season when the Cougars face William and Mary, Hardin-Simmons, Wichita and other big teams. Chambers enrolled at mid-term.

The dance, which will feature continuous music from 8 p.m. to 12 p.m., promises to be the biggest in the history of the University, spokesmen for the Co-Ed club stated.
