Thanksgiving Time for all our special blessings

Benjy Morgan, operator, Tank Farm

EDITOR'S NOTE: In honor of Thanksgiving, we asked a number of folks around the Complex what they were thankful for. Here's what they said.

Benjy Morgan, operator, Tank Farm: "I'm thankful for a lot of things. I'm thankful the Lord came into my life and blessed me, and I'm thankful for a life eternal."

R.F. Dement, boilermaker, Maintenance South: "I'm thankful for good health and I'm thankful for my family — three children and two grandchildren."

Jerry Brown, mechanic, Automotive North: "I'm thankful for my family and my sons — two boys 14 and 9 and a little baby one-month-old."

Ralph Graves, special tester, Refinery Lab: "I'm thankful mostly for good health and for my family."

Elizabeth Patrick, nurse, Medical: "I'm thankful all my family is healthy and that the house we started building seven years ago is finally finished."

PERSONAL

Many thanks to all the kind friends at DPMC for the going-away retirement party with the nice words and wonderful gifts. I'll miss the DPMC and all you friendly, sincere people (but not the Houston weather). June and I will be settled in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia—drop in anytime.

What are you thankful for?

Tom Stewart, lab technician, Phenol Acetone: "I'm thankful to be alive and have lots of good friends and family. If I've got all that I don't need much more."

Bonnie Walker, general helper, Maintenance South: "I'm thankful for just about everything and I'm happy about it. I enjoy most things in life."

Celia Vazquez, clerk, Purchasing Material Control: "I'm thankful I'm going to have a baby December 1."

Dawn Buffington, senior secretary, West Operations: "I'm thankful for my home and my family. My children are healthy and that's the most important thing to me."

T.D. Bennett, electrician, Maintenance North: "I'm thankful for my family, and for being healthy."

Veronica Cartwright, senior clerk, General Services: "I'm thankful just to be alive and to be able to lead a normal, everyday life. What more can you ask for?"

Evelyn Russ, receiving clerk, Purchasing: "I'm thankful for my family — my husband and my two sons — and that I'm an American. We're very fortunate to live in this country."
