

COALITION OF GRASS ROOTS WOMEN

ALTERNATE CONFERENCE

Houston, Texas

Nov. 18-20

A SPEAK OUT FOR ALL WOMEN who want to cross all barriers of backgrounds--class, with a particular emphasis on the poor (employed, underemployed and unemployed), racial, economic, ethnic, sexual preference and religious--to struggle together against social, economic and political oppression and create a just, human society.

St. Joseph's Church School

1505 KANE ST. (ACTUALLY CORNER OF HOUSTON & LUBBOCK ST.) --
A TEN-MINUTE WALK FROM CIVIC CENTER: Coming out of Civic Center, turn right (away from Smith St.) and walk down Rusk St. At two stop signs it becomes Reasoner St. You pass Police Dept., cross at light, and it becomes Lubbock St. Come into the building attached to the Church through the parking lot.

A G E N D A

Friday

- 9 a.m. on -- Registration ($1 suggested donation)
- All day -- Informal discussion, information, literature, films
- 7 p.m. -- General Assembly:
Welcome, brief remarks, open mike (if time)

Saturday

- 9 a.m. to noon -- Workshops:
Women's Daily Struggles (housing, children, violence),
Women in the Workplace (employment discrimination, women's self-organization), Education, Health, Roots of Poverty (welfare, racism, elderly), others
- 2 to 5 p.m. -- Workshops:
Legal Rights and Justice (ERA, gay rights, prisoners),
International Relations and the Women's Movement
(Latin America, world hunger), Women's Consciousness
and Action, The Church, The Media, Human Rights at Home
- 7 p.m. -- General Assembly:
Reports and resolutions from workshops, open mike,
music and films

Sunday

- 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. -- Informal exchange of ideas on such topics as The Church as a Social Force, Socialist-Feminist Theory,
Implementing IWY Mexico and Berlin conferences
- 2 to 5 p.m. -- General Assembly:
Beyond Houston -- plans for the future, open mike,
music and films

JOIN WITH THE COALITION OF GRASS ROOTS WOMEN !

801 Riverside Drive, #6E, New York, N.Y.

