

HESSUP &
PROFFERS

Washington
24th April 1846

Dear Sir.

I think the average value of the bonds issued since 1839, will be from 20 to 25 cents. I have no doubt but what interest will be paid on them, agreeably to their value to the Govt at the time they were issued. Tho: of the latter there may be some doubt.

Yours obt servant
J. M. Howson

To

Pro W. Gilford Esq
Philadelphia
Penn.

Washington

24th April 1846

Dear Sir

I think the ^{average} coverage value of the bonds issued since 1839, will be from 20 to 25 cents. I have no doubt but what interest will be paid on them, agreeably to their value to the Govt. at the time they were issued. Tho' of the latter there may be some doubt.

Your obt Servt

& friend

Sam Houston

To

Jno W. Tilford esqr

Philadelphia

Penna.

383