

Oct 23^d & Well, here I am - yet - but off to the South tomorrow - Hope I shall see you, in two Months or so - nothing from you not already answered - add these few lines, by way of closing up, for the present - There will be enclosed in Radcliffe's letter written to you in my absence. In fact I thought these letters would have gone during my absence but it seems they did not, nor they will all go by Neptune to sail Saturday - I have nothing from Ros, since what I have already told you - I am expecting her to write and advise me of Dft which I will provide for - I was at Washington last week - saw Dunlap - He spoke voluntarily of the Dft - and said tell Morgan that I will pay it if in my power, at maturity - If not, I will return him his property - I am satisfied he will pay it, if he possibly can - See Mr Radcliffe's letter for particulars of shoes & coat - also, the seeds, and cost - I will add the needful to it & send you the paper two files, one by the Ebro - and one by the Neptune - Command Mr R's Services you know in every thing, in which he can be of any use to you & be amply to all the Ladies, & believe me Very truly Yours, Most Cordially I Wm
