THE SCHOOL

Through these portals we pass daily to our classes. It is there that life-long friendships are being made; it is within this building that we laugh at the humorous incidents that occur, and wipe a misty eye when a touch of pathos tugs at our heart.

Within these walls our lives are being reshaped, stronger characters being built, and helpful bits of knowledge imparted. The contacts and associations that we have had here probably have made indelible impressions upon our minds. May we all, in recalling memories of the past, remember and cherish this school always.

FOREWORD

The staff, in offering this 1936 Houstonian, has endeavored to create a permanent record of the past school year with emphasis placed on a realistic presentation of the events as they actually occurred.

We have attempted to make this book a human document that gives recognition to the efforts of those who have sought to make better our University.

We offer, then, this annual as a means of recording golden memories of those events that we have learned to hold dear and treasure.

DEDICATION

In that we have found one whose work is characterized by a quality of constant cheerfulness; one whose every act and deed is tempered with kind consideration; one with whom sympathetic understanding is an innate characteristic; and one who has made every effort to lighten the burden of the student body:

We lovingly dedicate this book to

The Senior class of 1936 with 116 members, is 34 members larger than last year's graduation class. They have led the University in social events. These include the "get-together" at Pat Foley's home, the "Round-up" at McGregor Park, the "Cake-Dance" in the fall, the Class Night Banquet at Lido's, and the breakfast at Le Blanc's in the spring.

Class meetings were frequent and harmonious throughout the year. The genial president Pat Foley led the class successfully through difficult sessions when class rings, invitations and other business had to be decided. The class spirit was high and dues were cheerfully paid, this putting the class on a solid financial basis. The class drafted Mr. Holt, who had served as their junior class sponsor, to advise them.

Members of the Junior Class proved continually during the year their willingness to work for the betterment of the school. Class representatives took leading parts in all school activities of literary, athletic, dramatic, musical and social endeavors. "For the good of the University" was their motto.

The Junior Prom, presented April 24 at Beaumont, was an outstanding social event of the scholastic year and will long be remembered as a triumph for the class.

The Junior Class hopes for even greater success during the ensuing year of 1937. It is to be trusted that this great class has proved worthy of a deserving place of leadership in the greater University of Houston.

The Sophomore Class has been active in the University the past year. Throughout the year they have endeavored to uphold the traditions of the previous Sophomore classes.

This class has sponsored two dances during the year. The first dance was given November 15, at the University Club. The second dance was given at Truchart's on February 21. Both of these dances were attended by a large group of University students and were a success—as far as the entertainment was concerned.

The Sophomore group is composed of groups from both the General College and Night College. The sponsors of this class were Mr. Warren A. Rees and Mr. Lyle T. Hooker.

FRESHMEN

The Freshman Class is the largest that has yet graced the portals of our institution. Through the untiring aid and efforts of their sponsors, Robert W. Talley and Fred Smith, this class gave the opening social event of the season—the annual Freshman Dance, at the University Club, December 15th. This dance was a huge success in the eyes of all of those that attended, as well as being a financial success.

The Freshmen have been very active in all affairs of the University and have always proven themselves ready to aid other classes by supporting their social affairs.

ACTIVITIES

THE HOUSTONIAN STAFF

JAMES L. JULIAN

EDITOR

The editor's sentiments regarding this year's annual are that if you like the book give the credit to one of the most efficient and diligent staffs that ever put out a year book—if you do not like it, then blame the editor himself.

J. WILBUR SMITH

MANAGER

The staff was very fortunate in having one so capable as Wilbur to handle the business affairs of the Houstonian. The orderly and systematic methods that he followed were a true indication of the efficient and competent business man that he is. He has set up methods of management that should be adopted as permanent.

DOUGLAS E. CARTER

ASSISTANT EDITOR

Carter will assume the editorship of next year's annual with two valuable years of experience to aid him. When the student body voted to entrust this important office to him they did so with the understanding that one of the most dependable and capable students in the school was their choice.

DOROTHY CELY

ASSISTANT MANAGER

Serving in this position for her second year Dorothy has gathered valuable experience that will allow her to take over the business manager's position well prepared in 1937. She has won the reputation of undertaking any assignment with willingness, and has been given the task of completing many of the detailed duties that arose during the year.

ROBERT W. TALLEY

ADVISER

Armed with an intimate knowledge of the publication field, Talley was always on hand to offer the staff the benefits of his valuable experience. Due to the fact that the original plan of the book had to be changed several times, there were many instances when the staff needed both careful supervision and inspiring pep talks. The adviser always willingly subscribed his assistance.

When the call was issued for volunteers to work on the Houstonian, the staff readily and willingly responded, and freely offered their services. The members dedicated themselves to their respective tasks and each worked with industrious application at his job until the work was completed. The 1936 staff set a splendid example of co-ordination and team work that will be hard to excel in future years.

Under the editorship of Algerine Allen the Cougar reached a level that places it inferior to none in the weekly collegiate newspaper publication field. Much praise is due the staff of thirty members that worked faithfully and tirelessly in living up to the journalistic traditions of always making the deadline with their paper. The Cougar has largely aided in the promotion of all school activities during the year, and has come to earn the title of the "greatest unifying spirit in the University."

The University Singers is an organization composed of students who wish to express their vocal talent in the work offered by the organization. The club meets for a two hour period every Saturday afternoon, during which time they sing the numbers most popular with College Glee Clubs.

This club not only affords a means of musical recreation for its members, but also advertises the University in a most favorable manner. The first program given by the club was a Christmas radio broadcast, which was repeated in an assembly meeting of the student body preceding the Christmas Holidays. During the spring term the club sang a group of numbers from the Musical Comedy, "Tune In," at the Annual High School Reception held at the City Auditorium. This group also sang at the Founder's Day program and at the Commencement Exercises which were held at the Miller Memorial Amphitheatre.

Mrs. Pearl Marvel Martin, the director of this group is well pleased with the progress made and since most of the members will be back, she is looking forward to a very successful season next year. Miss Yvonne Moers is the accompanist of the Singers.

THE RED MASQUE PLAYERS

The Red Masque Players, with one of the largest memberships of the University organizations, seeks to afford students an opportunity to give vent to their dramatic inclinations. By staging four 3-act shows this year, the club made it possible for the majority of its members to take part in at least one production.

The first of the four three-act shows of the year was a comedy, "Are You A Mason?" The members taking part in this production were Dorothy Golden, P. S. Reed, Ellen Schuhmann, James Julian, Lois Fuller, Vivien Kroll, Dan Makeig, Robert Goodson, Iola Barron, Margaret Ames, Kitty Berthold, Al Gardner, Stillman Taylor, and Jack Robinson.

"The Howling Dog," a mystery drama, was the second show of the season. The cast for this production included, Mavis Anderson, Betty Martin, Ruie Lawrence, Edythe Reddick, Sally Powers, Barbara Phelan, Milton Caplan, Fred H. Jones, Douglas Carter, Joe Wullenschneider, Eugene Snapp, and Walter Easton.

The outstanding production of the year "Death Takes A Holiday," followed, and was played before a capacity house. This play was not only a huge success in Houston, but proved popular to a large audience at the Angleton High School. Doris Kennedy, Al Gardner, Eugene Snapp, Mavis Anderson, Dorothy Golden, Sally Powers, Douglas Carter, Evelyn Nicoll, James Julian, Stillman Taylor, P. S. Reed, Fay Cook, and Oswald Ewing, made up the cast of this show.

The Red Masquers closed the season with the comedy "Here Comes Patricia," which proved popular with its audience. Those who took part in this production were Algerine Allen, James Willett, Stillman Taylor, Dorothy Golden, P. S. Reed, Joe Potter, Doris Kennedy, Frank McWhorter, Miriam Smith, Jonnie Pace, and Helen Thompson.

The Club was host to the Texas Intercollegiate One-Act Play Tournament which was held here during the week of April 6. Fourteen schools sent representatives to the meet. The manner in which the visitors were received won much goodwill for the University.

L. Standlee Mitchell worked faithfully and tirelessly with his casts all year. He was assisted by Robert W. Talley. This left Mitchell free to devote his full energies to the supervision of the dramatic and technical phase of producing as Talley managed the planning and building of the sets. The effectiveness with which this combination worked allowed a new high mark to be reached in the quality of shows produced.

At the close of the year the club extended a vote of thanks to J. Wilbur Smith for the work he contributed in making the season a success, and to Al Aron, stage-manager, for the part he played in assisting Smith. The club was fortunate in having so capable a group of officers to handle its affairs.

The Cougar Collegians opened their social calendar for the year with a picnic at Hermann Park given for the fall-term pledges. The formal initiation for the pledges accepted for membership was held at the home of the Club's president, Algerine Allen. The Collegians entertained their mothers with a book review, given by Miss Ruth Pennybacker, held at the home of Jane Jennings. The Christmas Open House was also held at Miss Jennings'.

The pledges for the spring-term were entertained with a Vice-Versa Dance in the gymnasium of the University. The Formal Initiation for these pledges was held at the home of Margaret Ames.

A Gridiron Banquet honoring the girls' basketball team was given at Carolina Pines which proved to be an enjoyable evening in spite of the "roasting." The Junior League was the scene of the formal dance sponsored by the club. The activities of the year were terminated with a week-end party at the bay shore home of Isabel Ackerman.

As in former years, the club published a student directory.

The Houstonian Club is one of the oldest organizations in the school, having been formed back in the old Junior College days under the name of the Girls' Outdoor Club.

The Houstonians seek to afford students a better acquaintanceship through the medium of social activities that are sponsored at regular intervals. The program committee always attempts to employ as great a variety as possible in arranging social events. One of the outstanding offerings of the club was a Halloween Carnival staged in the gym. A vice versa dance given under the auspices of the Houstonians won favorable comments from those who attended. At this time plans for the annual bay party are being formulated.

UNIVERSITY SPEAKERS AND HOUSTON FORUM

The University Speakers and the Houston Forum were organized at the beginning of the school year last September, with the meetings scheduled for twice monthly during the regular class period.

Both organizations hold meetings in Mr. Harris' room. The purpose of these two clubs is to promote good fellowship among the students, and at the same time, to acquaint the members with practical parliamentary procedure.

Many varied and interesting programs have been presented by both clubs, and each is planning some type of social entertainment before the close of the school year.

THE LYRE STAFF

Originating as an organ for the Music Study Club, the Lyre has steadily grown in size and importance until it has become the spokesman of the General College. This paper has made it possible for the day school to have a publication that it needs as a unifying spirit for its students.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Coach Spiess' team this season continued the impressive records made by its predecessors by finishing the year without a loss charged against it. Paced by Winnie Allen and Ida Mehr, the Cougarettes defeated some of the strongest teams in the city. With most of the squad returning next year another successful season is predicted.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

The boys who led the Crimson and White into battle labored under extreme difficulties all season. Handicapped by the lack of assurance that a practice court would always be available, the team began the season displaying the traditional "never say die" Cougar spirit. When the squad reached its form about mid-season, another bit of bad fortune befell the boys when Coach Dan Snyder had to give up the team.

The University Guild is the only student organization in the University of Houston, which features a regular monthly luncheon program. The programs touch upon literary and current interest problems. Membership in the Guild is limited to approved applicants, and the organization seeks to be discriminative without being exclusive. A new note was sounded this year when ten outstanding Freshmen were selected for membership. Until that time, membership had been limited to upperclassmen.

HONORARY MEMBERS: Judd Mortimer Lewis, Mrs. E. E. Oberholtzer, Mrs. Harvey W. Harris, Mrs. Pearl C. Bender, and Mr. Naasson K. Dupre.

The Society of Engineers was organized in the spring of 1935. The purpose being to promote a better spirit and a more cooperative attitude among University of Houston students interested in courses of the mechanical nature. The entertainment committee of the organization always made it a point to arrange for outstanding speakers in the engineering field to address the club during the course of the year.

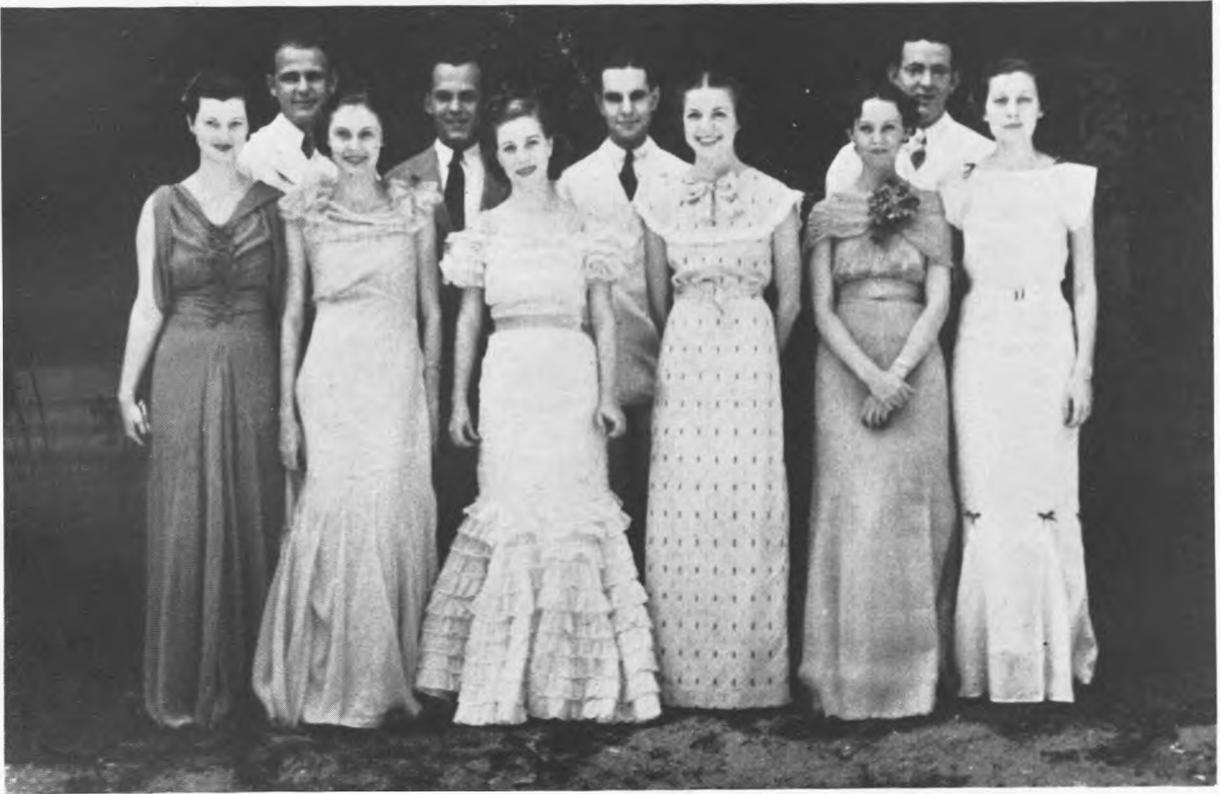

Plans are being made to promote engineering expositions that will serve to give the membership practical instruction and experience, as well as advertise the University in regard to the various courses that are offered which will appeal to prospective students who are mechanically inclined. The officers of the Engineers expressed that they were more than pleased with the interest with which the students have responded to the club's appeal for membership during its first year in existence. Plans are already being formulated for a schedule of activities to be worked out for following years.

The Royal Court represented the University at the Annual Reception given in honor of high school seniors. Membership was made up of representatives elected by each class. This year's reception was one of the largest and most successful since the establishing of the precedent nine years ago.

It was necessary to hold the affair in the city auditorium due to the large number of guests that attended. This marked the second year with which the May Fete has been held in conjunction with the reception. When the array of lovely maidens assembled to represent their respective high schools, and joined with the University Royalty there followed an impressive spectacle of beauty.

COLLEGIATE CALENDAR

- September 20—Large enrollment seen for college. Signed up 12 (pardon, we mean 1200).
- September 23—Smith sentenced to carry burden of Red Masque Players. Library enlarged by addition of 96 new volumes. Total number of books in library 97 (including the telephone directory).
- September 27—Fish feted and fought. Paint flowed freely. (As did the com-plaint.)
Frosh election. Miller clubs Jones into submission.
- October 4—Student council meets (just meets). Cougar Collegians welcome freshmen (hy'a toots). Student Council sets up regulations for student association election. (Council members found ineligible for these offices.)
- October 16—"Have You A Basin," first Red Masque Play. (Price of soap goes up.) Sport program announced. Juniors sell cake to finance Prom. "Have You A Basin" received enthusiastically by Tomball audience. More money made off sale of candy than of tickets. University Chorus realistically renders (meaning to tear up) "The Elephant and The Chimpanzee." Edythe Reddick and Cornelius Bartholomew (C. B., Jr., to you) Doolan play title roles.
- November 4—Debaters start practice. Day college sets up student government board. Faculty sets up board to govern student board.
Julian elected president of Studes Ass'n. (He musta counted the votes.)
- November 8—South resigns, saying he can't take it any more. Glad he didn't take it (meaning the $.)
- December 16—Algerine Allen sent to Huntsville. (To the Sam Houston State Teachers Ball, you dopes.)
- December 18—"Howling Dog," a noisy success. Mavis and Betty were particularly effective in the kissing sequences.
- January 24—Houstonian staff elected (Mercy on 'em). Debaters still practicing for first practice debate.
- February 5—Deadline announced for annual pictures.
"Death Takes A Holiday" presented in "the stall."
- February 6—After scheduling Sugarland, Goose Creek, and Galveston. "Death Takes A Holiday" finally presented in Angleton.
- February 7—Second freshman reception (eight fish attend).
- February 14—Day College Valentine Dance (orchestra got lost trying to find Camp Beatty).
- February 15—Positively no more pictures taken for "Houstonian."

February 22—Sophs give second brawl. Forty attend, ten of whom crashed it. Of the balance 26 had complimentary tickets.

February 26—Deadline for annual pictures extended to February 28.

Girls had chance to get even at Cougar Collegians vice-versa. Next day 200 boys absent (sore feet).

February 28—Time extended on annual pictures.

Ann Owen elected May Queen (by Pat Foley).

March 6—Elizabeth Gready elected "Miss Fashionette."

Profs shown up in Faculty Burlesque. Shamblin stars in "oui-oui" part.

March 7—Deadline for "Houstonian" pictures.

March 13—Pat's light o' love chooses him king of May Fite. He refuses to wear knee breeches, but agrees not to stand pigeon-toed. (But he did.)

March 15—Day Schoolites freeze at Galveston.

March 27—200 votes cast in Omnibus Ballot. (Al Gardner personally put in 199.)

April 1—Houstonians get fixed by boys—sponsor vice-versa. Plenty of girls but no boys. (Once bitten—twice shy.)

April 5—Deadline for Annual pictures.

April 6—Red Masque Players host to Texas Intercollegiate One-Act Play Tournament. Baylor played "L"—(Mary Hardin Baylor played "L" with one of our profs.)

April 17—Deadline for Annual pictures set for June 6.

April 27—Annual goes to press after hectic experiences. Julian and Talley got in an argument in February and were still at it when the staff showed them the completed annual done without help from either. Then they went claiming credit for the work done by the staff. Wilbur Smith, business manager, was out to all callers when the bills started pouring in. Dot Cely, assistant business manager, had the best alibis for missing meetings.

Considering all circumstances the rest of the staff was as bad as could be expected. Algerine Allen worked into the wee small hours of many nights. She often went home as late as 8:30 p.m. Jerry Bentley was another night owl. She could type so fast that the onlookers always fell asleep. Dot Golden worked tirelessly on the seniors and almost succeeded in selling an annual. Lois Fuller was a swell salesman (whenever the editor was watching). Margaret Ames worked hard (to get out of work). Sally Powers was a member of the staff, so they tell us. We never saw her. As chief alibi for bill collectors, Miriam Smith was superb. Al Aron rushed into many a store to sell ads. I still can't figure out how he always landed in some sweet lady's lap when kicked out. Lois Ehlers and Betty Martin when asked to prepare a list of the activities of Freshman boys handed in something like this: "Joe Doe—sits in parked cars—O.K.; Bill Smith—doesn't sit in parked cars—no sale; etc." Bill Haddock, ace cameraman, snapped pictures for five months before someone told him that his camera was empty. Prof. Holt almost made English students out of the staff, and Carter made the staff.

April 30—May Fight and Reception. Next day (sore feet and bills).

May 15—Cougar Collegians sponsor foot warming.

May 31—Seniors hear sermon.

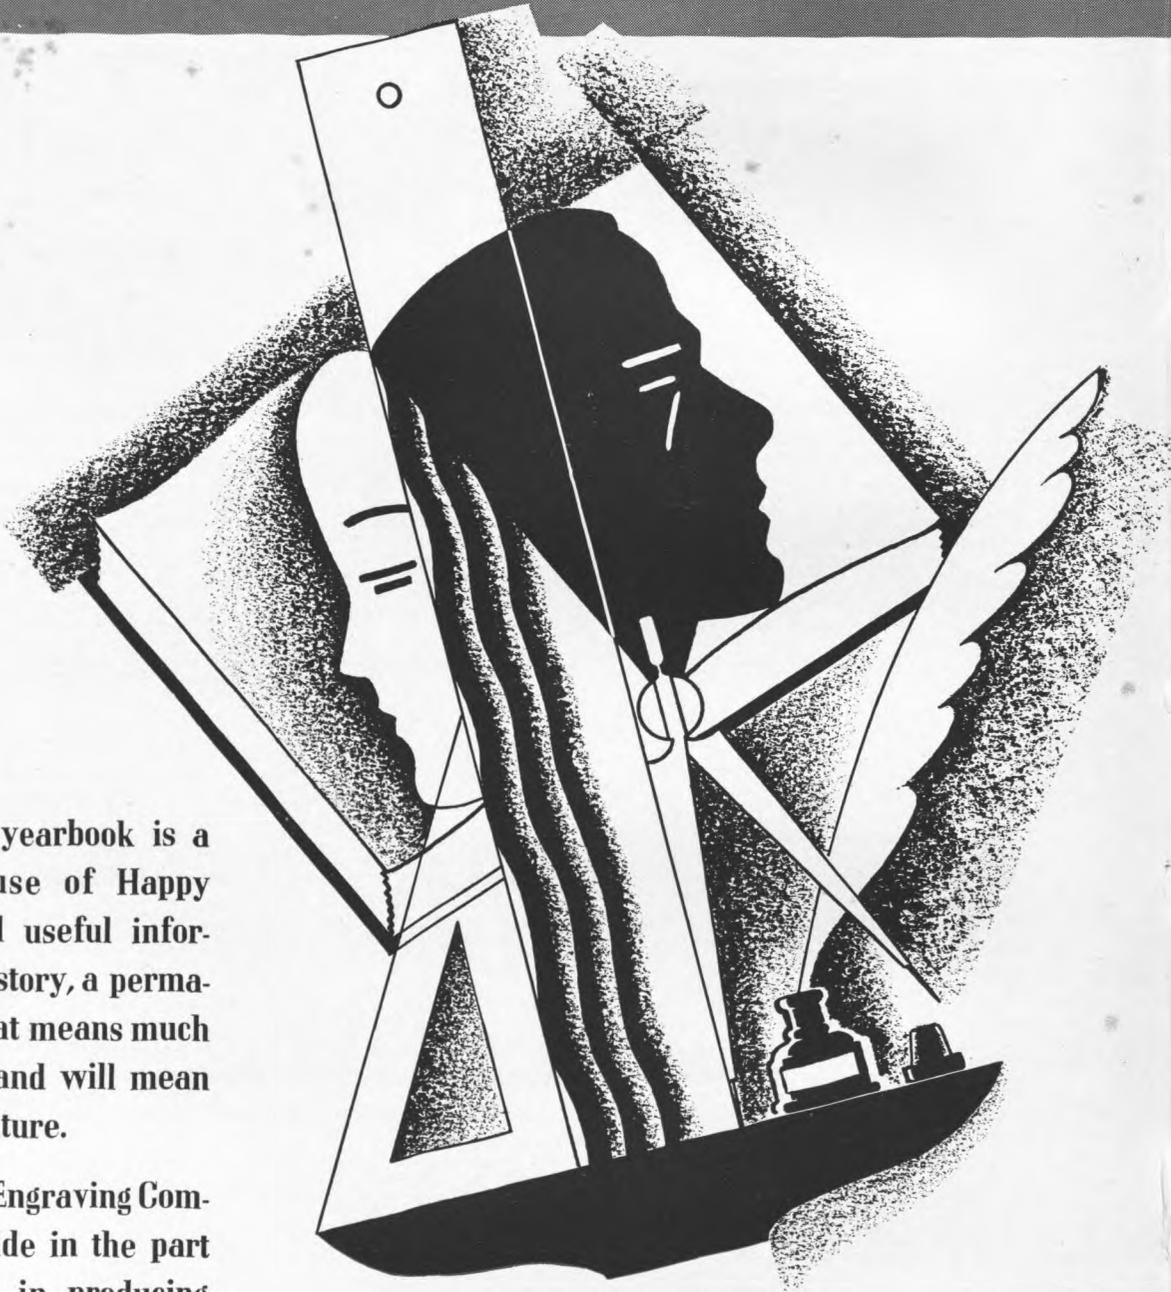

June 4—Seniors get sheepskins—next day—garbage cans get sheepskins.

June 6—School over—thank goodness (except for seniors who have to go to summer school to complete work).

EL FORO ESPANOL

The purpose of the club is to bring about a better understanding and to create a more friendly relationship between its members and the Spanish-speaking peoples of the world. The Foro sponsored a number of social events during the year, and celebrated all the holidays that are observed in Mexico and Spain. Themes are always followed at the meetings that are suggestive of the people whose language the members study.

LIBRARY CLUB

The Library Club is the newest organization in the University of Houston, membership being taken from student library assistants who are interested in this work. The type of meetings call for interesting presentations of some type of work the club deals with, followed by a social hour. Meetings are held once a month at the homes of the members.

One purpose of the club is to improve the appearance of the library. A scrap book will be made each year of activities concerning the entire school, of clippings from city newspapers and the Cougar.
