INSURANCE - Fire & Tornado
Houston Negro Hospital
Nurses Home, Utility Bldg. & Pavilion

Judge W. W. Moore,
19th Floor,
Building.

Dear Sir:

Referring to Mr. James H. Durbin's letter to me dated August 24, 1931, returning the fire and tornado policies of the Atlas Assurance Company issued to the Houston Negro Hospital, Inc., which have now been approved as to form by Mr. J. Y. Powell.

Mr. Durbin also enclosed Fred S. James and Company's invoice in the amount of $763.08 together with their credit memorandum for $258.23 occasioned by the reduced rate and Co-insurance Clauses making a net premium due by the Houston Negro Hospital of $504.85.

It is my understanding that these policies should be forwarded to the Houston Negro Hospital together with the invoice and credit memorandum covering premium, such premium to be paid by the Houston Negro Hospital.

Please advise if my understanding is correct.

Yours very truly,

(SIGNED) R. E. POWELL

Secretary
