"VOTE FOR AN APE"

The bumper sticker message you might have seen around town is not in reference to any of the candidates appearing in the upcoming November ballot, but in support of Proposition 2 Woodland Zoo Bonds campaign. Literature from the "Citizens for a Better Zoo" committee note that the biggest problem facing the Zoo Bonds issue is getting enough voters to the polls. Local laws require a 40 percent voter turnout and a 60 percent majority to pass a bond of this nature.

Whether you pro or anti the proposition, you are urged to exercise your voting right on Election Day, November 5th. Your vote really can make a difference.

Details coming.

AND SPEAKING OF CHRISTMAS...

Again this year, a Christmas Crafters group has been formed for those of you handy with needles and hooks - or would like to be. Christmas Crafters organizer, Karyn Sullivan, notes that weekly get-together sessions are being held every Wednesday through December 4th at Harry's from 12:30 to 1:30 PM. If there is a specific craft you would like to learn or would want individualized instruction, call Karyn on X5294 or talk to her during one of the sessions. It's a great opportunity to create some did-it-myself Christmas gifts, to learn some new craft techniques and to get better acquainted with some people of like interests.
