To the Honorable James V. Allred,
Governor of the State of Texas,
AUSTIN, Texas.

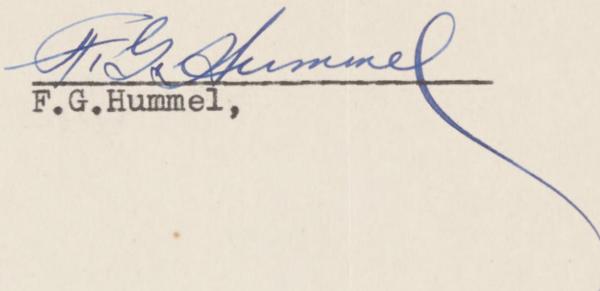

Dear Sir;

In connection with the trouble being experienced among the Pecan shellers here in San Antonio, it is my opinion, as well as many of my friends, that the police of San Antonio are handling matters very competently, and I am sure they are able to cope with the situation without any State officers being drawn in.

I hope that you will give this very serious consideration before taking any action in sending State officers to San Antonio.

Yours very truly,

FGH/h
