Mrs. Minnie Fisher Cunningham,
Galveston, Texas.

Dear Mrs Cunningham:

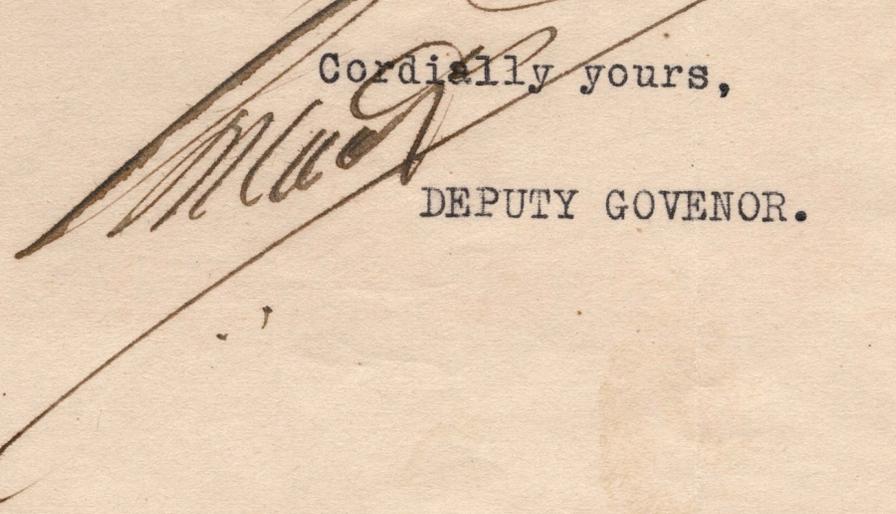

I want to assure you of my personal appreciation of the valuable service rendered by you in the Second Liberty Loan Campaign just brought to a successful issue. I realize that the speakers who responded so promptly to our call for help, did so at no small sacrifice, putting aside their own affairs in order to serve when their country called.

I feel that it is largely due to the hundreds and thousands of speeches made throughout this Federal Reserve District by those who were assisting us in this campaign, together with the splendid co-operation of the newspapers, that the people were finally aroused to a sense of their duty to the Nation in time of need. To those who left home and business to make these speeches, we, upon whose shoulders rested the responsibility for the success of the loan in the eleventh district, owe a great debt of gratitude.

The credit due the Woman's Liberty Loan Committee and the women throughout the district, who gave so generously of their time and talent to this work, cannot be overestimated. They are entitled to a large share of the honors for making the loan a success.

Trusting that we may work together again, if another similar occasion arises to serve Our Government, I remain,

Cordially yours,

DEPUTY GOVERNOR.
