In Time Of Loss

Lonely is the home without you,
Life to us is not the same;
All the world would be like heaven:
If we could have you back again.
A light is from our household gone,
A voice we love is still,
A place is vacant in our home,

That can never be filled.

May the God of Love and Mercy,
Care our loved one is gone,
And belss with consolation,
Those left to carry on.

The happy hours we once enjoyed,
How sweet their memory still.

But death has left a vacant place,
This world can never fill.
How dearly we love you,
And pray you might live,
But Jesus just beckoned,
And we had to give.

God gave us the strenght to bear it, And courage to fight the blow, What has it meant to lose you, God alone will ever know.

A Psalm of David

The Lord is shepherel: I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leachth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leacheth me in the paths of righteousness for his name sake.
Year though I walk through the valley of the shackw of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: than aromest my hear with oil: my cap numeth over:
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell inthe house of the Lord for ever:

-Psalm 23

Things are not the same without you. I'm blue. I miis your smile, your touch, your laughter, and how much fun we always have when we're togetherand Tve been thinking about the days (and nights) we've shared. When you're here with me, I feel so complete ... so alive. From the first day we met. I knew I would love you like I'd never loved anyone before. like I'd never love anyone again Things just aren't the same without you ... and so do you know what? I miss you.

Recessional

We sit beneath the night sky by the whisper of the windsong... in the quiet of darkness. And they are never far. Those we have loved and cherished, those who have changed our lives in some small or profound way are closer than we know. because it is their light that shines in our world. It is the brilliance of their souls that makes our night sky glow. A star in heaven shines on just for you.

I know when I look up in the sky and see that one bright star, I will know that is you looking down on me, telling me to shine.

I Love You Always
