

July 10, 1929.

Miss P. A. Newby,
Houston, Texas

My dear Miss Newby:-

I have your letter of today's date claiming reimbursement for your traveling expenses to Houston, and in addition, claiming a month's salary.

I will remind you that the position offered you was one for which you were expected to report on July 5th and that your telegram explicitly stated that you would report for duty on that date. With your failure to appear on July 5th and for nearly four days subsequently, it was necessary for me to make another arrangement for the operating room, and so the position was filled.

I realize of course, that you have had a heavy outlay in coming to Houston, and as I am sure the Board and friends of the hospital would not wish you to suffer undue hardship, I am writing this to offer the next best position available in the institution at a salary of Sixty ($60.00) dollars per month. Promotion will, of course, depend upon the quality of your service and your ability to cooperate loyally in the work of the institution.

Yours very truly,

M. H. Bright.

cc Dr. J. W. Slaughter
J. B. Grigsby

cc WWM 7-15-29 to

Mr J S Cullinan (H~~o~~-NY) (bln)
Dr J W Slaughter
C H McGruder