Sixty Years of Weird Tales

PROGRESS REPORT 2

IN DREAMS THERE ARE TRUTHS

Do You Dream Of...

A copy of Dark Carnival, A Canticale for Leibowitz? Are there just one or two "Impossible" books missing from the collection you've spent years trying to complete?

We are proud to have assisted in the compilation of some of the more important collections in the genre both here and abroad. Can we be of help with the more difficult items in your collection?

We are known for paying the highest prices in our field for fine 1st editions, manuscripts, original art, A.L.S., T.L.S., in short-ephemera of all sorts. Extensive Want List, New Catalogue available, Please Enquire - We are Exhibiting in Dealers Room.

We at FANTASY ARCHIVES believe in dreams. We specialize in the unusual and the hard-to-find. Our forte is 19th and 20th century Science-fiction and Fantasy for the serious collector.

WORLD FANTASY 1983 UPDATE

The 1983 World Fantasy Convention will be held in Chicago the weekend of October 28-30, 1983. This second Progress Report is being sent to all members of the Convention, as well as all members of the 1981 and 1982 Conventions. Enclosed with this booklet is the 1983 World Fantasy Awards Nominating Ballot. All members of these three conventions are eligible to nominate in all categories. Please fill in and return your ballot before the deadline given on the form.

As of March 1, 1983, the following professionals have indicated they will be attending this year's convention:

Jack Williamson
Phyllis Eisenstein
Karl Wagner
Victoria Poyser
Don Maitz
Patricia Wrede
Susan Dexter
Stuart Schiff
Ramsey Campbell
Ellen Kushner
Barclay Shaw
John Silbersack

Fritz Leiber
Gordon Dickson
David Morrell
Peter Straub
David Mattingly
P.C. Hodgell
Martin H. Greenberg
Donald Wollheim
Alan Ryan
Whitley Strieber
Joe Haldeman

Glen Cook
Sandra Miesel
Alicia Austin
Philip Jose Farmer
Roland Green
Marvin Kaye
Jane Yolen
John Coyne
Sharon Jarvis
Tom Kidd
Ed Bryant

Many others are expected to join in the months to come.

MEMBERSHIP

$30.00 till May 31, 1983

$35.00 thereafter

Membership is limited to 750 paying members. Early memberships save you money and help the convention run smoother. All members will receive a confirmation in the mail. Last year's convention did sell out.

Supporting memberships are $12.00. This entitles you to the Progress Reports, the Convention Program Book and Souvenir Book, and any other surprises.

A convenient membership form is provided at the back of this booklet.

DEALER'S ROOM

The Dealer's Room is sold out. A listing of attending dealers and what they specialize in will be printed in the Program Book, along with a map of the dealer's room showing all locations. There will be a number of out-of-print specialists as well as many small press publishers, art print dealers and new book sellers. Fine jewelry and sculpture will also be available.

BANQUET

The World Fantasy Awards Banquet will take place on Sunday afternoon. Robert Bloch will be the toastmaster (which alone is worth the price of the banquet!) and the 1983 World Fantasy Awards will be given at that time. The menu is:

Chilled Assorted Fruits
Tossed Chef's Salad
Sliced Roast Round of Beef, Bordelaise
Fondant Potato
Peas and Sautéed Mushrooms
Honey Glazed Carrots
Coffee, Tea or Milk
Marriott's Black Forest Torte

Price is $20.00 per person. As with all such banquets, seating is limited and we have to know in advance how many people will be attending. Please use the handy convention form at the back of this booklet to order your banquet tickets. The tickets will be given out at the registration desk of the convention. (A vegetarian menu is available if necessary. Please contact us for more information.)

THE HOTEL

The Chicago Marriott O'Hare, 8535 W. Higgins Rd., Chicago, is the site for this year's convention. The hotel is located only a few minutes from O'Hare airport and offers free limo service to and from the airport. It is right off the Kennedy Expressway, making it easy to reach by car from anywhere in the midwest. And, the newly constructed O'Hare branch of the Chicago El makes the hotel easy to reach from (and easy to travel to) downtown Chicago.

The Marriott is an exceptional hotel, with over 700 luxurious guest rooms. There are six restaurants and lounges; a heated indoor pool; a health club and sauna; excellent room service; and free parking. We are the only convention at the hotel and all of the facilities are located on the first floor, close to the restaurants and lounges.

Special convention room rates are $65.00 for a single, $75.00 for a double, $80.00 for a triple and $85.00 for a quad. Room reservations cards are sent with all memberships. Publishers and guests with special room needs are asked to contact Nancy Ford, our special liaison, at the convention address. As a hotel used for many meetings, the Marriott has extremely fine facilities for large or small parties as well as several exceptional suites for those wanting the utmost in luxury.

PUBLICATIONS

The convention will feature a Program Book with all the information necessary to have a good time at the Convention. Also free to all regular and supporting members will be a Souvenir Book. This 8½ x 11" paperbound book will feature full color covers by Rowena Morrill and 30,000 words of new material written for that book. Some highlights include "The Cat" by Gene Wolfe, a new story set in the time of the Book of the New Sun; "Willow He Walk" by Manly Wade Wellman; and articles by Jack Williamson and Robert Bloch on Weird Tales. Other unique items have been commissioned and will make the Souvenir Book a unique collectible.

RARE BOOK AND ART AUCTION

This project has captured the interest of many attendees. Already lined up for this Sunday evening event is the original manuscript for Gene Wolfe's novel, PEACE. Other manuscripts are promised as well as signed proofs. There will be original art by Bok and Finlay, as well as rare fanzines and collectible books. Remember, this is an open auction, with any member of the convention able to submit material, with the convention only taking a small commission. For all necessary information, contact Bob Weinberg. (Auction items have to be registered in advance to keep everything running smoothly - and on time.)

ART SHOW

We will have nearly 4,000 square feet of display space for the art show, with excellent lighting, including track lights where necessary. There will be an art auction as well as the possibility of direct sales. Artists are asked to contact Greg Ketter at the convention address for more information.

YOUR SCIENCE FANTASY BOOKSHOP ... IN THE MAIL

One of the best things to happen to the science fantasy field in the past few years has been the growth of the SF Bookstore. Unfortunately, these shops are few and far between. If you don't live in a major metropolitan area, you are out of luck. However, we offer a viable alternative to the local SF shop; a complete Science Fantasy marketplace, with a stock comparable to specialty shops, along with several exciting extras, through the mail.

We feature a full line of new Science Fiction and Fantasy books, paperbacks, and fanzines from all of the major publishers and Specialty Presses in the SF field. And, we offer a 10% discount on orders of $25 or more! Our catalogs are issued monthly (by first class mail) and feature entertaining annotated listings. We are full-time book dealers and offer fast, friendly, reliable service. Our packers are collectors themselves and treat your order with the same care they would want shown to books they would order through the mail.

Some of the many publishers we stock include Donald Grant, Underwood-Miller, Phantasia Press, Arkham House, Whispers Press and many others including all of the major trade publishers. We have a large mystery stock including many Sherlock Holmes items. British paperbacks and fanzines are a specialty and we have over 50 British Dr. Who novels in stock.

Fanzines we handle include Nyctalops, Farmer-age, The Weird Tales Collector, The SF Collector, Whispers, The Armchair Detective, Fantasy Tales (U.K.), Dark Horizons (U.K.), Kadath (Italy) and many others.

And, we offer autographed copies of many new books like THE MANY COLORED LAND, TALES FROM THE NIGHTSIDE, THE UNREASONING MASK, THE KEEP and more, at no extra charge to our customer.

Send 25¢ for a copy of our latest catalog.
We think you'll be pleasantly surprised.
