Houston Cruise Circuit Closed

by Mel Plummer

For many months past, the Montrose Citizens Association has worked in vain trying to get the Gay community to move their cruise route to another location. Working with the Gay Political Caucus, the Metropolitan Community Church, and other local organizations, the MCA (Montrose Citizens Association) even mapped out a new cruise route and handed out circulars on weekends trying to convince Gays to move the route themselves.

The main complaint from citizens in the Montrose area was they they wanted their streets back after dark. It seemed that the cruising area was heavily infiltrated with cars and walking pedestrians from dusk until dawn. Some mornings at 2 a. m. the cruise route had a definite resemblance to rush hour on the Gulf Freeway. This in turn created excessive noise, honking of horns, and excessive pedestrian traffic during all hours of the night.

After failing to convince Gays to move by handing out mapped circulars, the MCA then went so far as to barricade the streets at night. This they said was done "with the cooperation of the Mayors office", but of course illegal action without proper permits from the City Council and without police supervision. This they stated was their last stand before police harassment would begin to all those who frequented the infamous "Montrose Circuit". But for some reason, even the threat of police on their cruise route did not deter Gays from fre-quenting their favorite spot.

The idea of the MCA to move the circuit to a better location was a very good idea. However, the choice of locations was a bad one that Gays simply found impossible to move to. Of course the streets on the circuit are bad. Bad is not even a very good word to describe the streets. They are rutted, patched, and repatched so much, that a cow trail might have made easier riding. Yet despite negative response from local citizens and bad street conditions, Gays still refuse to move from their position of maintaining the Montrose Circuit as their cruise route.

On Wednesday, January 26th, the MCA and the city of Houston may have made the last move concerning the location of the circuit. All cross streets that crossed over the two main streets that contained the main bulk of traffic were served with the official death warrant of the Montrose Circuit. All streets crossing the circuit had signs stating No Turns 7 p.m. to 6 a.m. placed on the corners. This has thereby stopped all cars from circling the cruise area and prevented any turns being made on the circuit streets. The main test came on Thursday, January 29th, when it was reported that Houston Police issued 43 traffic citations for illegal turns and five people were taken to jail. This has all but assured that the Montrose Circuit exists no more.

Next week: An indepth look at why the move to a new location failed and a possible new circuit route for Houston Gays.

FROM THE EDITOR

The month of February is just about in full swing now. The pre Mardi Gras activities in New Orleans are in full swing and promise to continue right up until Mardi Gras day on March 2. During the next few weeks, the Nuntius will be bringing you an update on Mardi Gras and just where the places to be are in New Orleans.

I would like to say that the Nuntius is proud to present Miss Gay Texas 1976 at the Old Plantation, Houston April 10th and 11th. This years pageant promises to be the most successful contest ever. The Texas pageant will be the only preliminary contest in Texas for entrants in the Miss Gay America Pageant from Texas. It should promise to be quite a contest with the best in female impersonation from all over the Lone Star State competing for the top prize.

Congratulations to Rev. Bob Falls and E. D. Lloyd for winning the Mr. and Ms. Oddwad Contest this past Sunday at the Inside/Outside. The contest was sponsored by the Gay Political Caucus as a fund raising event. The caucus also has "Oddwad" T-shirts now on sale. Be sure to pick one up and let everyone know that you're proud to be an oddwad.

Just a note that C. J.'s Boutique is now open at the Depo$itory. Business looks good at the new location. It appears that one of C. J.'s main sellers is the ever popular Bunk/House.

Don't forget the Mr. and Miss Gay Laredo contest coming up at the El Vaquero. Be sure and check at the bar for full details. It should be quite an event for the border town.

Til next week,

Miss Gay Texas

The Nuntius weekly newspaper in conjunction with the Miss Gay America Pageant will present Miss Gay Texas 1976 April 10th and 11th at the Old Plantation Club, 2020 Kipling, Houston. Miss Gay Texas 1976 will be the official preliminary pageant in Texas for the Miss Gay America Pageant to be held during August in New Orleans. Miss Gay Texas and the two runner ups will be the only Texas entrants from the Lone Star State in this years Miss Gay America Pageant.

Contestants will be competing for a total of over $400 in cash prizes and an expense paid trip to and sponsorship at Miss Gay America. All entrants will be judged in the categories of sportswear, gown, and talent. Five finalists will be judged in all categories plus a live interview on stage.

Contestants wishing entry information may write to Pageant 4615 Mt. Vernon, Houston, Texas 77006. An entry form along with pageant rules and schedule will be returned.

Former Miss Gay Texas Pageants have had some of the greatest response from female impersonators across Texas. Over thirty contestants competed for Miss Gay Texas 1975 with standing room only audiences attending both nights of the pageant. This years pageant will be hosted by two of Arkansas loveliest female impersonators to come down from the hill country. The first Miss Gay Arkansas from 1971 the beautiful, talented and ever witty, Tuna Starr, along with Miss Gay Arkansas 1972 and Miss Gay America 1972 Norma Kristie will hold the pageant together with a mainstay at the microphone.

CARNIVAL

As is true with any hospitable hostess New Orleans is happy to entertain her good friends. But, what these good friends must understand is that Mardi Gras and the whole Carnival season is actually a great big rollicking family party given by the people of New Orleans for themselves.

It is in every sense a "family tradition" of long standing. In fact, it is believed that as soon as New Orleans was founded by Bienville, 250 years ago, his men had their first Mardi Gras celebration.

THE RELIGIOUS SIGNIFICANCE Mardi Gras, which means "Fat Tuesday", is intrinsically oriented with the season of Lent. It is the last day before Lent begins and is the high point of "Carnival". Derived from Latin meaning "Farewell to the Flesh", it's a time for masquerading, parties, balls, parades and celebrations of all kinds before the fasting and penitence begins.

Officially, the Carnival season begins on the Feast of the Epiphany, which is January y, the Twelfth Night after Christmas. This is the day the Three Kings visited the Christ Child and recognized him as the Messiah.

Carnival ends at midnight before Ash Wednesday, and early the next morning the lines of penitents fa tents are formed at the churches for them to receive the cross of ashes on their foreheads.

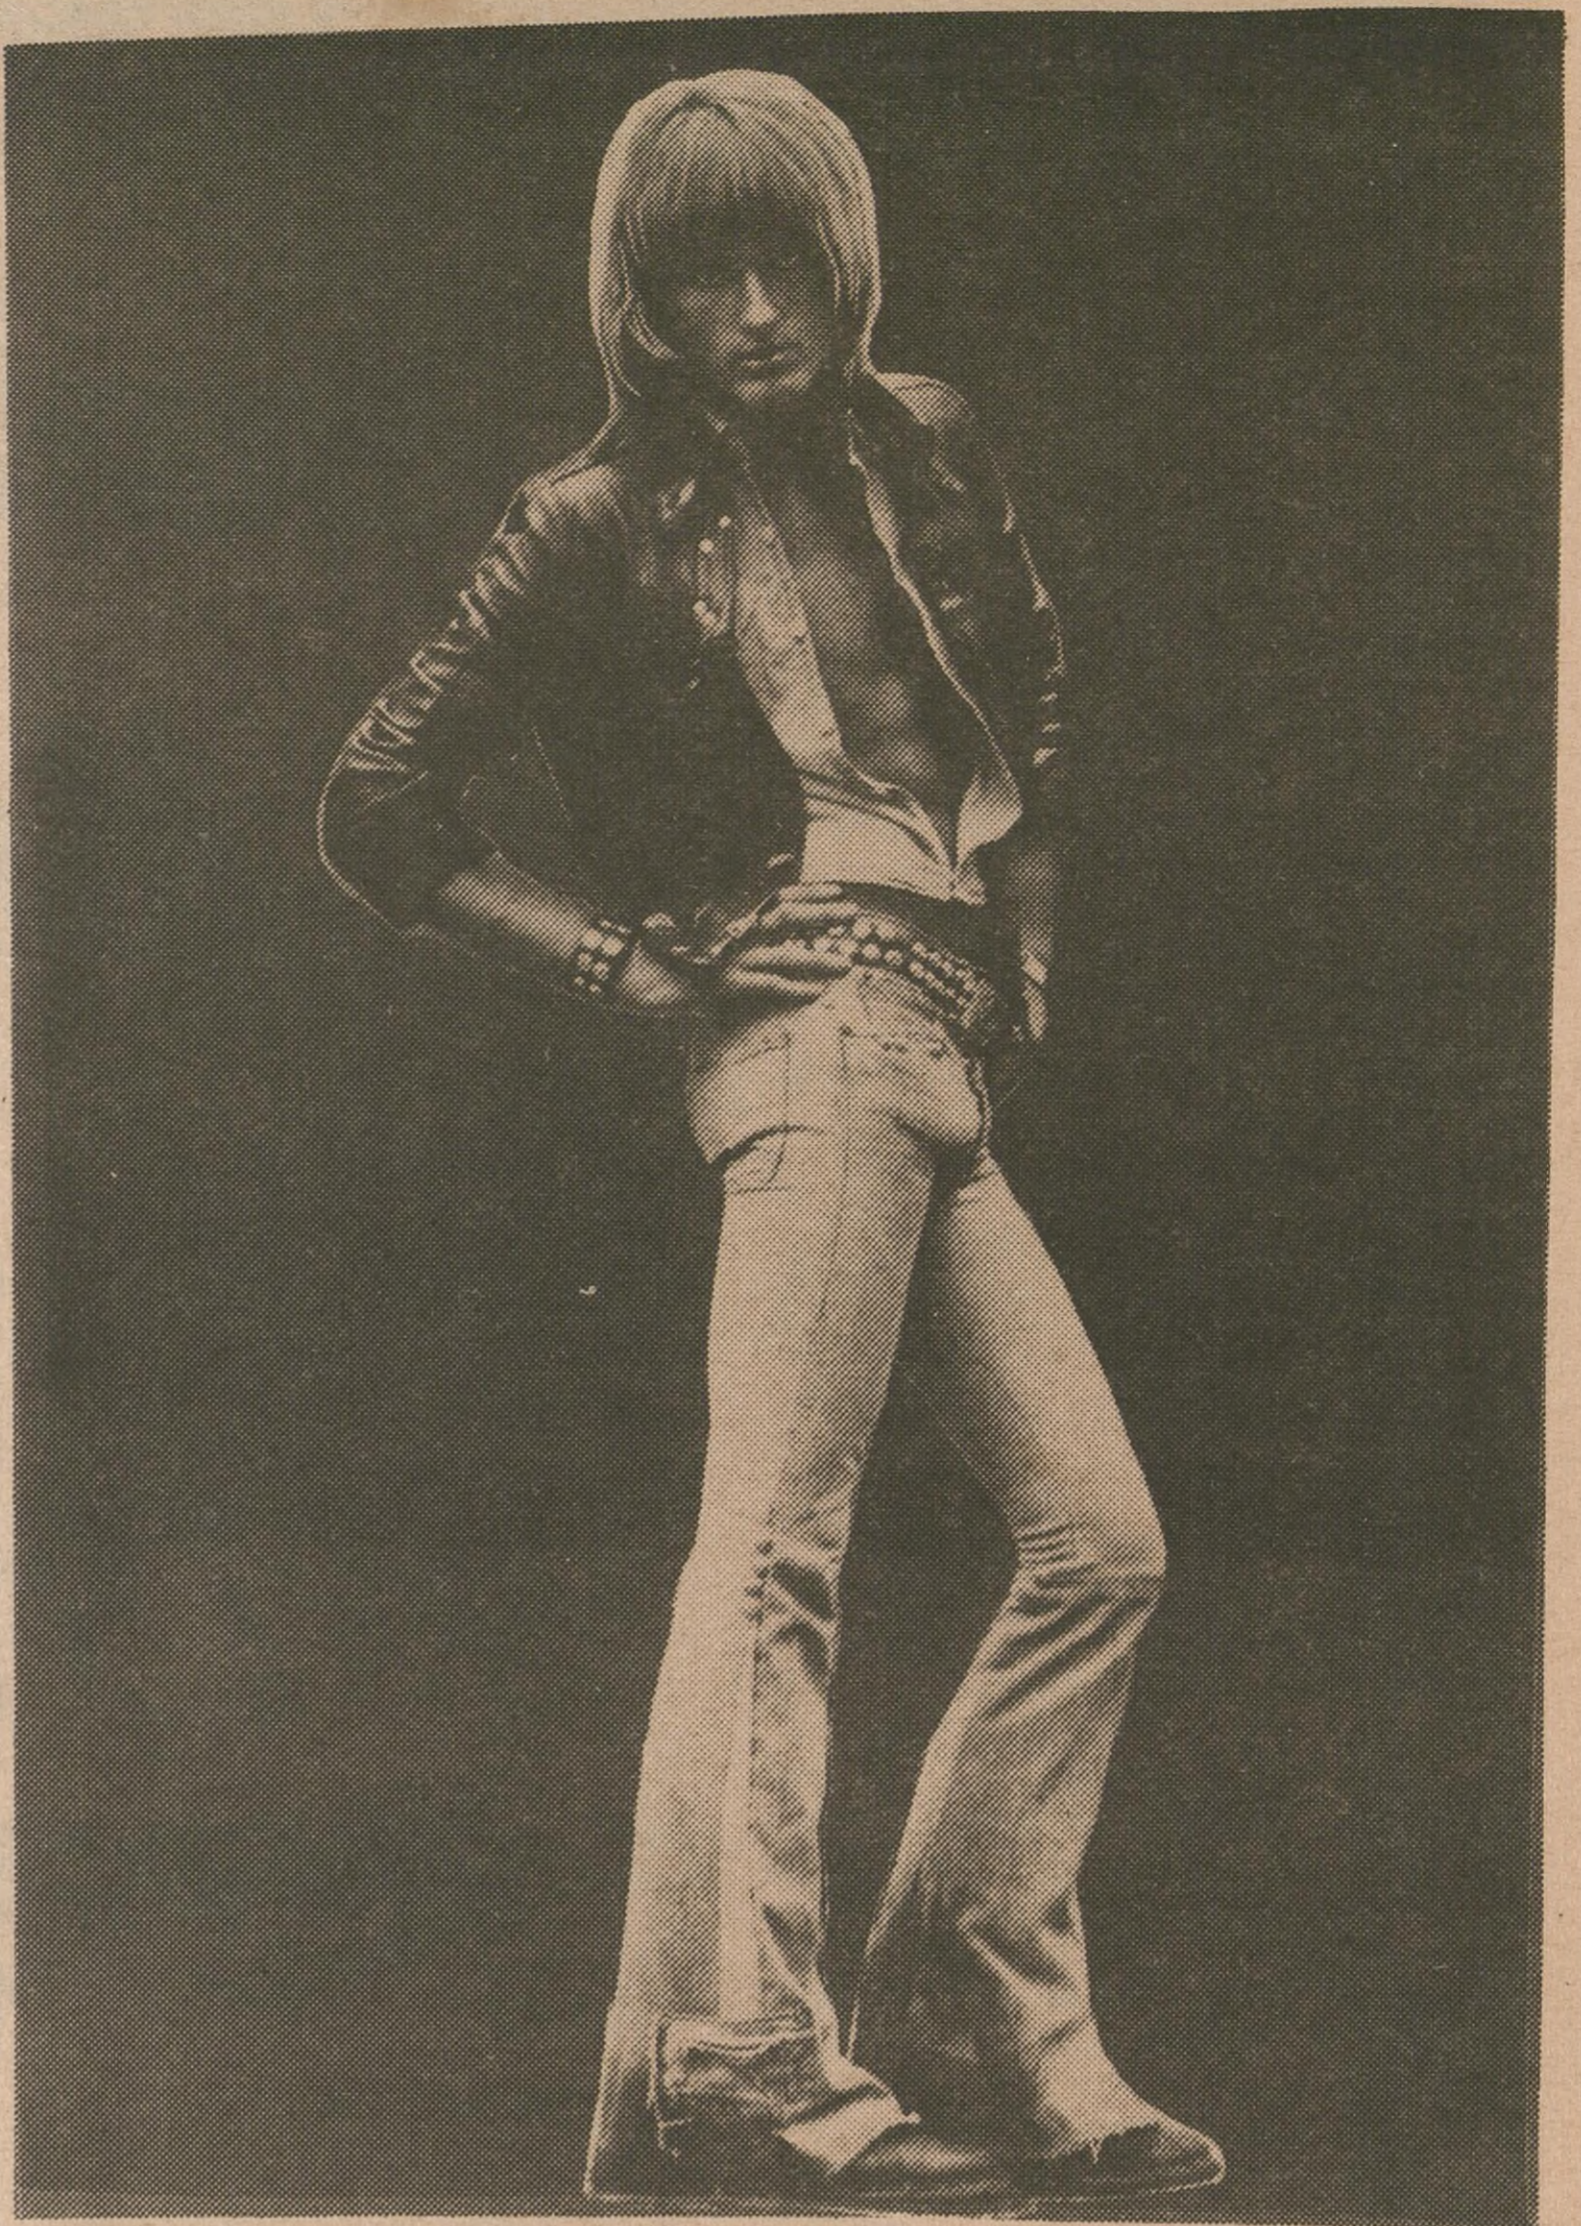

A LONG AND GLORIOUS HISTORY

Since New Orleans was originally a French city later ruled by the Spanish, it is not surprising that the Latin festival was traditional from earliest times.

It was celebrated with masquerade balls by the elite of the city and with street dancing by the people. As early as 1838, an organized street parade was reported in the paper.
