R. B. WHITE

NEWCOMB CARLTON CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD J. C. WILLEVER FIRST VICE-PRESIDENT

Send the following message, subject to the terms on back hereof, which are hereby agreed to

Austin Texas February 18 1938

Donald Henderson President United Cannery Agri Packing and Allied Workers San Antonio Texas

I appreciate your telegram expressing your appreciation of investigation made by the Industrial Commission and stating that the police are arresting picketers additional and confiscating picket signs stop You request me to send/Rangers there to correct these conditions stop Personally I do not approve of arrest of picketers who are not violating the law but I know of no authority for the Governor to supplant the police with Rangers stop I have talked with Chairman Everett L Looney over the telephone and he states that in his opinion I have no legal authority to take this action but under the facts stated in your telegram and brought out in the hearing before the Industrial Commission in his opinion you have a right to court injurction to restrain these arrests stop He has cited me to the case of Gurtov versus Williams one naught five Southwestern second series page three two eight by the Galveston Court of Civil Appeals upholding the right of injenction to prevent arrest of picketers not made in good faith stop Of course the Governor does not have the power of injunction, this power being expressly and solely given to the courts stop If I should send additional Rangers to San Antonio they would have no more authority than the local police and would have no authority To prevent arrest of picketers stop Only a court injunction could accomplish this stop For all these reasons I am firely convinced that at present time and under existing circumstances I have no right to supplant the local authorities

ALL MESSAGES TAKEN BY THIS COMPANY ARE SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS:

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it repeated, that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one-half the unrepeated message rate is charged in addition. Unless otherwise indicated on its face, this is an unrepeated message and paid for as such, in consideration whereof it is agreed between the sender of the message and this commany as follows:

1. The company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, of any message received for transmission at the unrepeated-message rate beyond the sum of five hundred dollars, no five thousand dollars, unless specially valued; nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines; nor for errors in cipher or obscure messages.

2. In any event the company shall not be liable for damages for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for the non-delivery, of any message, whether caused by the negligence of its servants or otherwise, beyond the sum of five thousand dollars, at which amount each message is deemed to be valued, unless a greater value is stated in writing by the sender thereof at the time the message is tendered for transmission, and unless the repeated-message rate is paid or agreed to be paid, and an additional charge equal to one-tenth of one percent of the amount by which such valuation shall exceed five thousand dollars.

3. The company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward this message over the lines of any other company when necessary to reach its destination.

3. The company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward this message over the lines of any other company when necessary to reach its destination.

4. Domestic messages and incoming cable messages will be delivered free within one-half mile of the company's office in towns of 5,000 population or less, and within one mile of such office in other cities or towns. Beyond these limits the company does not undertake to make delivery, but will, without liability, at the sender's request, as his agent and at his expense, endeavor to contract for him for such delivery at a reasonable price.

5. No responsibility attaches to this company concerning messages until the same are accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of the company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.

6. The company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message is filed with the company for transmission. In the case of intrastate messages in Texas the company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within ninety-five days after the cause of action, if any, shall have accrued.

7. It is agreed that in any action by the company to recover the tolls for any message or messages the prompt and correct transmission and delivery thereof shall be presumed, subject to rebuttal by competent evidence.

8. Special terms governing the transmission of messages according to their classes, as enumerated below, shall apply to messages in each of such respective classes in addition to all the foregoing terms.

9. No employee of the company is authorized to vary the foregoing.

No employee of the company is authorized to vary the foregoing.
