

New SCORA officers

The recently elected SCORA officers for 1981-82 are (top row) Vice President Johnny McDaniel, South Instrument Shop, and Secretary Jerri Dromgoole, Administration, and (sitting) President Melba Hall and Treasurer Barbara Bond, both General Services.

Medical offers weighting game

Do you feel like you're overweight, but you haven't been able to get enthusiastic about taking off those unwanted pounds? Would you like to have some incentive to get rid of that flab?

Well then, the Medical Department has just what the doctor ordered—a four-week weight loss contest that begins April 6.

Prizes for the top three biggest losers will include two free pairs of tickets to either Astroworld, Six Flags over Texas, Astros' games or selected movies, with the first prize winner getting his first pick of the goodies. The runner-up will then get a choice of four tickets from the remaining prizes.

Losers of three pounds or more will receive a decal and persons shedding 10 or more pounds will receive a free pair of SCORA movie tickets.

Of course, everybody losing weight during the contest will get another prize—the bonus of improved health that can come from relieving strains on joints and ligaments and helping to avoid complications of being overweight that can lead to diabetes and aggravation of hypertension.

Responding to our readers

Shellegram will take on brand new look

Take a good look at this Shellegram because it's the last one exactly like it you're going to see.

Next week's issue will be much bigger than this one. It will measure more than 11 inches wide and 17 inches long as opposed to the current 8½-inch by 11-inch format. You will be seeing this bigger edition, which contains about twice as much story and picture space as the current Shellegram, every other week from now on—at least twice a month,

But you will continue to receive a Shellegram each week. On the weeks we don't publish a big issue, you will receive a smaller one. The small edition will have pages the same size as today's Shellegram, but it will only have two of them.

We are changing the looks of the Shellegram to give you, the readers, what you asked for in our recent readership survey. Many wanted more stories and pictures, while a strong majority also wanted to continue seeing stories and features, such as classified ads each week. Now, we can respond to all those requests.

The extra space this change will give us will be used to report what all departments are doing as fairly as possible. But we will continue to need your help. If you know of an interesting person in your group or a newsworthy event about to take place, please call the editor at Extension 6301. Remember though, the weekly deadlines continue and the earlier the news tip is, the more timely any ultimate story is apt to be.

After you've had a chance to see a couple issues of the new format, your editor would be interested in what you think of this change. We hope you like it!

Special cookoff feature inside

The Shell clubs' chili cookoff attracted more than 600 people from the DPMC, other Shell locations and the public to the new Deer Park Chamber of Commerce building. For a close look at some of the fun the day held in store, turn to the photos on pages 2-3.

Weight game set...

To compete, you must weigh in at least twice on your own time during the four weeks under the Medical Department's supervision. But you'll be on your own because the Medical Department will not dispense any dietary plans or give anybody any special advice on losing weight. If you need help, it might be a good idea to consult your family doctor.

You can weigh in at the following times and places:

—Monday, 2:30-3:15 p.m., South Main Gate.

—Tuesday, 11:45 a.m.-12:45 p.m., South Cafeteria. 2:30-3:15 p.m., Resins Main Gate.

—Wednesday, Noon-12:30 p.m., North Shop. 2:30-3:15 p.m., Olefins West Gate.

—Thursday, Noon-12:30 p.m., South Shop. 2:30-3:15 p.m., North Main Gate.

—Friday, 11:45 a.m.-12:45 p.m., North Cafeteria. 2:30-3:15 p.m., North Main Gate.
Good luck!

Golf fee deadline will be April 3

Don't forget! If you're going to play in the April 12 SCORA Golf Tournament at Ellington Golf Course, you must pay your entry fees by April 3.

Those fees, which will be $12 for members and $13 for guests, will cover entry and the cost of providing a golf cart. The fees should be paid to Doc Laskie or Tom Dickey, who are both at the South Machine Shop. When you register, you can do so as a foursome—or individually and be assigned to a foursome.

Tee times for the tournament, which will operate under the Callaway handicap system, will start at 7:30 a.m. and continue all morning.

Up for grabs will be place prizes, which will all be cash, and longest drive and closest-to-the hole prizes for designated holes, which will be merchandise.

This will be the only SCORA golf tournament this year. So don't miss your chance. Sign up today!

Help's a call away

By the time Monday rolls around, a lot of people are going to be trying to figure out how to work their new phones—which are going to be installed throughout the Complex over the next two weeks.

If you have problems with your new phone, General Services advises you to first look for a solution in the explanatory booklets that will accompany each phone. If you still have problems or want more information about the new system, call Billy King, senior analyst, General Services, at Extension 6567.

Some like it hot Shell clubs' chili cookoff draws crowds

Jim Paar, North Boiler Shop, grits the teeth of his scorched mouth after winning this trophy for eating a plateful of jalapenos.

As judge Doc Laskie, background, South Machine Shop, looks on, these contestants show the determination that made the arm wrestling contest fiercely competitive.

Square dancers whoop it up.

Contestants for the $1.98 beauty contest came in all sizes.

Making sure the Piney-Woods Chile Cookers' chili (a rare concoction of deer, raccoon and armadillo meat) is tasty is Larry Noble. Other members of the team include Ed Overmeyer, Mike Bush and Smokey Edwards. All except Bush, Industrial Relations, work at the South Machine Shop.

PERSONAL

I want to express my sincere appreciation for the great retirement party. We had fun didn't we? I am really going to miss all you gals and guys. Our association over the years was certainly a great highlight in my life and I want to thank you for making it so enjoyable. The gifts, money and especially the beautiful scroll are really appreciated. You folks will never know how much it means to me and my family. Come and see me.
