HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
MINUTES

The meeting of the House of Representatives was called to order October 24, 1960, by Jim Boyd, Speaker of the House.

The minutes of the last meeting were read by the Secretary and stood approved as corrected. The secretary called the roll and members present for the first time were sworn in to the House.

Mr. Bancroft Henderson, Sponsor of the House, was called on to give a "pep-talk" concerning the present year. This is Mr. Henderson's fourth year as Sponsor of the House and he related many interesting points as to the possibilities the House could, or could not reach. A very important point Mr. Henderson brought out was the fact of swearing in new members every meeting so that they could read a bill for Student Government appropriation.

Tommie Holub made a report of the House Rules Committee. Members should have a copy of the House Rules by the next House meeting. The stencils have been cut and are in the printers hands.

Speaker Jim Boyd called for nominations of officers:
Speaker Pro-tem:
Clay Moore, Bill Hensley, and Marc Grossberg were nominated but declined their nominations for various reasons. Carmen Stallings and Dan Hrna were nominated and made speeches of their qualifications. Kathy Berberian made a motion that house rules be suspended and that we not vote by secret ballot. The motion was voted on and failed.

Arnold Nemor made a motion that House Rules be suspended and the rule of qualifications be disregarded. The motion was voted on and failed.

A vote by secret ballot elected Carmen Stallings, Speaker Pro-tem.

Bill Lipscomb made a motion that voting not be conducted by secret ballot. It was seconded by Nancy Coffman. A vote of House members carried the motion.

Nominations were called for Clerk of the House. Harriet Waldvogel was nominated. The House elected Harriet Waldvogel by a unanimous vote.

Nominations for Secretary were called. A motion was made by Bill Hensley to suspend the House Rules on the qualifications. A vote of members carried the motion. Nancy Coffman and Marilyn Holub were nominated and gave speeches of their qualifications. Marilyn Holub was elected.

Nominations for Parliamentarian were called. Dan Hrna was nominated and elected by a unanimous vote.

Marc Grossberg, Chairman of the Monetary and Fiscal Committee, made a report of his committee meeting. He gave maximum expenditures for members to remember when drawing up their bills. They are:

$1.00   per meal
 3.50   per night
  .05   per mile (when Driving)
50.   registration fee

Taxi and limousine fare is not to be included in a bill. Marc gave an explanation of the committee's purpose. He gave a report on the decision of the Committee on House Bill #3.

Sam Goodner, President of the Student Body, made appointments to the Supreme Court.
    1.   Jim Knox-Chief Justice
    2.   Emerson Turner
    3.   Bill Hensley
    4.   James Williams
    5.   Jack Gregory-Senate
    6.   Clay Moore-House of Representatives
Marc Grossberg made a motion to accept the Supreme Court appointments. It was seconded by Harriet Waldvogel. The appointments were accepted.

Clay Moore, representative of the Inter Fraternity Council, made the second reading of House Bill #3. Discussion began from the floor. After debate, Arnold Nemor made a motion to table House Bill #3. It was seconded by Kay Mc Kee. The motion failed and debate ended. A vote of members passed the Bill.

Marilyn Holub read the names of two more members chosen for the Social Educational and Development Committee by Tommie Holub, Committee Chairman. They are John Paul Jones and Carolyn Langford.

Marie David, representative of the Newman Club, read House Bill #4.

Clay Moore made a motion that the meeting adjourn. Mickey Reinbert seconded the motion. The meeting adjourned approximately 10:00 p.m.
