

Salpauze. Texas. June 3rd 1864

Received of John Shearn in C.S. Treasury notes the sum of eleven thousand two hundred dollars upon his indebtedness to Shearn enemies ~~as~~ reported by him, and he is responsible for the genuineness of the bills paid and should the judge of the C.S. District Court for the Western District of Texas refuse to allow said payment, the C.S. money will be returned before the 1st July.

William W. Holt
C.S. Receiver

June 17/64

The U. S. District Judge recognized the right of Mr Shearn to pay in genuine U. S. Treasury
Notes, only holding him
bound for the notes
being genuine

William Mott
U. S. Receiver

Webb, William, LaGrange Treas.

LaGrange Treas. June 3rd 1864

Received of John Shearn in C.S. Treasury notes the sum of eleven thousand two hundred dollars upon his indebtedness to Alien enemies as reported by him, and he is responsible for the genuineness of the bills paid and should the judge of the C.S. District Court for the Western District of Texas refuse to allow said payment, the C.S. survey will be returned before the 1st July

William G Webb
C.S. Receiver

across verso:

June 17/64

The C.S. District Judge recognised the right of Mr Shearn to pay in genuine C.S. Treasury notes, only holding him bound for the notes being genuine

William G Webb
C.S. Receiver

William B. Bates Texana and Western Americana

University of Houston, Special Collections.