FOREWORD

It is indeed true that we never value anything at its true worth, while we possess it. But after it is lost and gone beyond recall, we never fail to remember what a precious thing has slipped through our fingers.

These years in college, once gone, can never be recovered, so it behooves us to live them, loving, laughing, and laboring to the utmost, so that when they are in the past, there'll be no regrets.

If, in future years, this book helps to refresh and enhance your most pleasant memories of the year just past, our efforts will have been more than justly rewarded.

ACTIVITIES

In the mind of this man, for years the University of Houston has held first place . . . his dreams were, in no small measure, the beginning from which our Alma Mater has grown . . . his sincere friendliness and helpful counsel have lighted the path many a time when the way has been dark . . . his incessant efforts have enabled the school to attain its present heights, and his heartfelt zeal will long serve as a driving force in the continued rise of this university.

To DR. W. W. KEMMERER, with everlasting devotion and a deep sense of gratitude for all his labors in our behalf, we dedicate this 1939 Houstonian.

CLASSES

SINCE 1935

The present senior class has made an enviable record . . . because of the varied activities of its members, this group has held to a high scholastic standard and also led in extra-curricular activities.

Several members of the class have held high office in the Student Association and Student Council as well as in numerous other activities, and have distinguished themselves as student leaders.

We are able to look back on the past four years with much pleasure, and to look forward to the future with enthusiasm and optimism, knowing that the University, through its faculty members, has given to us of its best, that we may be prepared.

VANITY FAIR

January 18, 1939

Mr. Jack Palmer,
Editor "The Houstonian",
2905 Hamilton Street
Houston, Texas

Dear Mr. Palmer:-

I am returning to you, herewith, my selections of the eight most beautiful girls for the Vanity Fair section of the 1939 Houstonian. I had almost forgotten how beautiful Texas girls can be. I can assure you that my job was a difficult one.

I have tried to take into account as much as possible the disadvantages of looking at photographs over actually seeing the girls in person.

There has been a feeling of regret about the whole procedure as if I were saying to the girls who were eliminated that I didn't consider them as beautiful. Had I been able to follow my own inclination, I would have sent all pictures back with instructions to publish all and to give them all first prize.

When I accepted the assignment, I did not believe that it were possible to send me eighteen pictures of such beautiful girls. However, I hope my selections will prove satisfactory to you all.

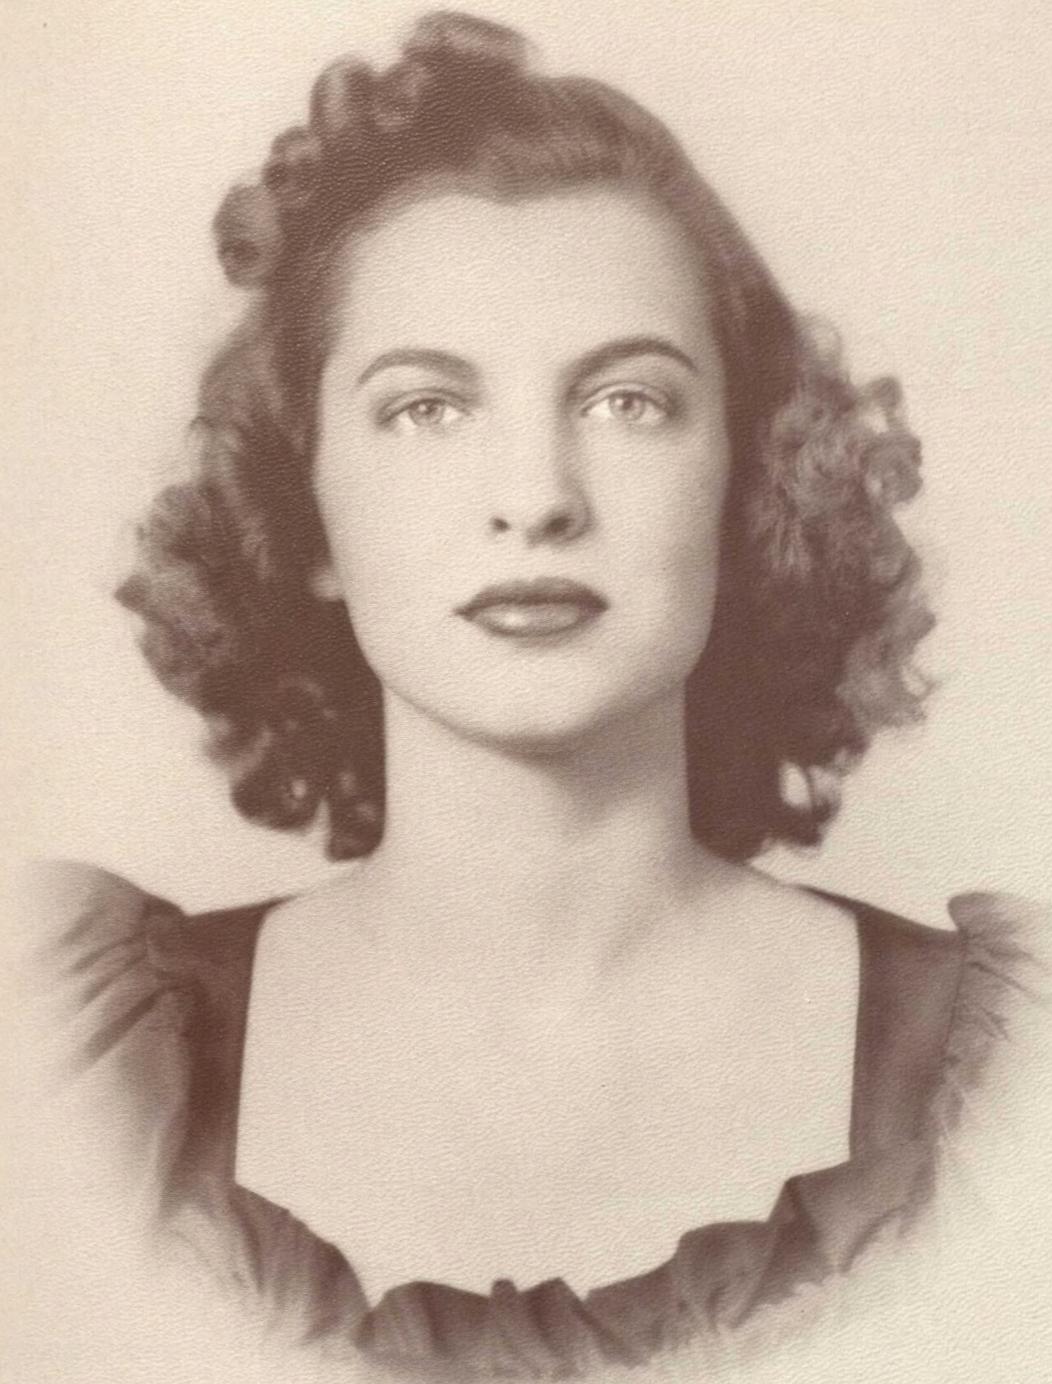

With my best wishes,

Sincerely,
King Vidor

COUGAR COLLEGIANS

Among the activities of the Cougar Collegians for the fall term were a tea, a sport dance, and formal initiation in October. The week-end of November 5 a bay party was held at Casa del Mar, and the annual Christmas Open House was held December 29, 1938.

The formal dance — "Cupid's Fling" — was held February 10, 1939, and at this affair the nominees for the Vanity Fair section of the Houstonian were presented. The spring initiation was also in February, and in March a bridge party and appreciation dance were given. The week-end of May 6 was given over to the annual Galveston beach party, and concluding the year was the senior luncheon May 30.

The annual show this year was "Let Us Be Gay," starring Evelyn Nicoll and Nat Davis. Four new members were taken in in memorable initiation rites held in conjunction with the Tri-Cities cast. Matrimony mowed a wide swath in the membership, counting Treadway, Golden, and Loughridge among its victims. The C. D. S. members directed several one-act workshop plays for the Red Masquers, and again this year Shakespeare failed to produce a suitable script for our use.

The initial banquet of the year was at El Charro in October. A Christmas party was given at the home of Mrs. Soule in December, and a dinner to honor students of Escuela Militar Ramirez, Bogota, Colombia, in February. The Pan-American Day celebration was highlighted by a talk by Dominican Consul Rafael Esbillat in April.

The major aims of the club are two: the interchange of scholarships between the University of Houston and the Latin American republics, and the construction of a Pan-American building on the new campus.

Weather today: warm and fairer.

Gad! Cole! What a hole!

Gorgeous Gerry and Not Much.

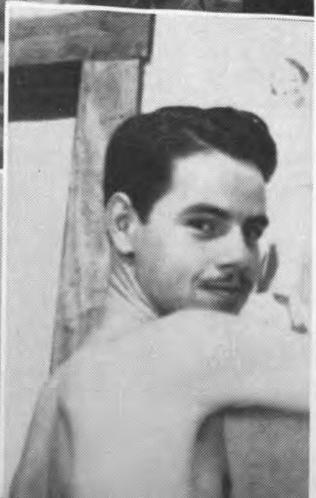

Blount beams on Bill's bitter end.

Wothehell, Kelly? He can't vote.

Puccio pings home the prize.

Kelly again: paid political adv.

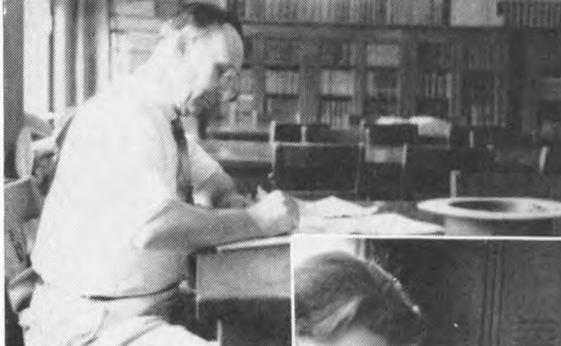

Floyd Gibbons, and Bill Kirk's wee one.

Turn around Morris—we're the ones who should be staring.

Rarity extraordinaire! An honest injun librariosum studentiaris.

No use staring, Dimney—she's flown the coop for good.

Kittenish Dawson grabs another!

Today I yamma man!

Prexy-elect preaches.

Glamour girl off guard.

The inimitable: Clop.

Ted sounds off—again!

Pig! We wanna bite.

You can't take notes waving it in the air goilie.

Oh, you kid! Gwannow!

Beam, Briggs, Beam!

Just a filler.

Beatty's got her eye on a new guy.

Preview: The Oleander Duchess.

Russ hoops it up.

Shhh! She's got gapolis.

Hohl just abhors the limelight.

Sweetheart of the Skos.

Egad! It can't be that bad.

June dreams — and it's not Montgomery!

Loughridge before the vows.

Go on and laugh, Louise.

You figure it out — we can't

Tsk! Tsk!

Ain't he sweet.

Careful! You'll get hurt.

Who you smiling at?

Naw, we didn't mean you, Potter.

Where'd you get the tablecloths?

Such be-ootiful knees! Gad!

Beware! The dean approaches!

Air conditioning ten years ago.

Warbling, waddling goil of me dreams.

No Crosbies, we betcha.

Slime Smalley humbled for once.

girls see the face not even a mother could love.*

Refer to page fifteen—see, we wuz right!

We see you too, Willie.

Style, a la O'Leary.

Just filler again.

'Smatter Bibbs?

Junior League?

Hell, no, that's Pinky!

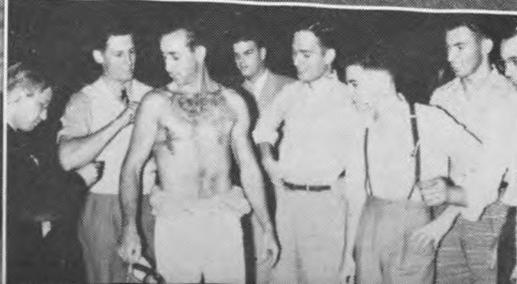

Move those hams, we wanna see too.

Quit kickin' that plumb line, Eddie.

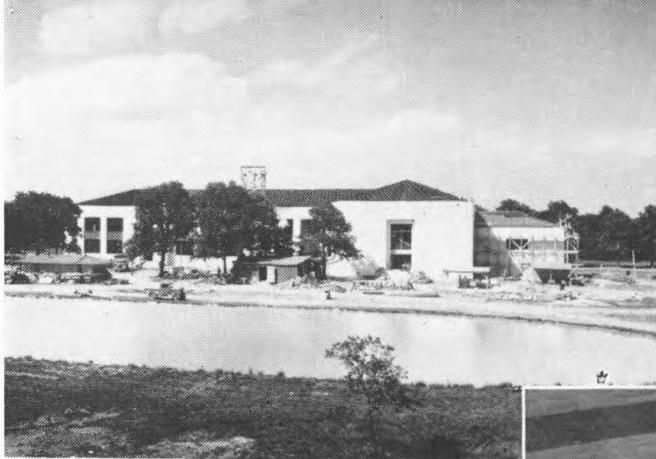

How the devil did they get in here? That musta been the night we got drunk.

Here's that double for Dracula again.

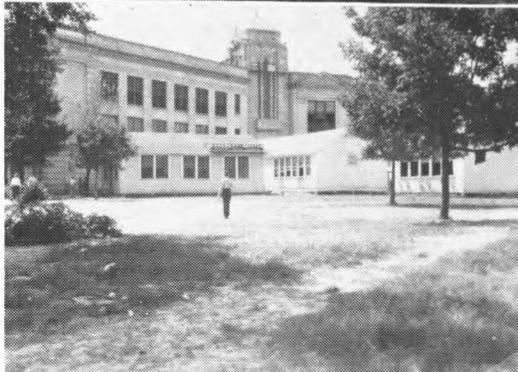

You guessed it, O'Leary bribed us.

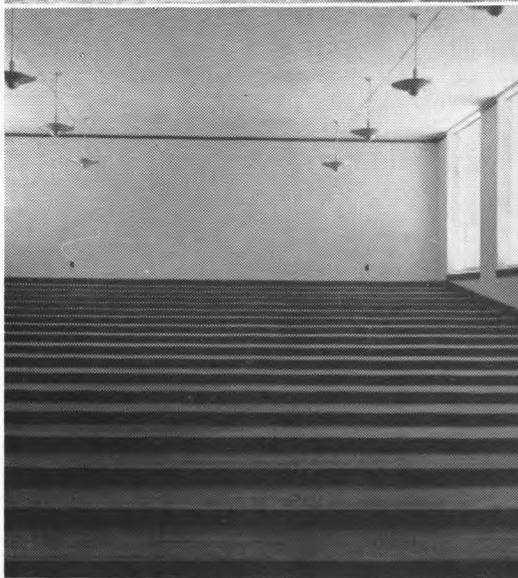

Science building shoots up over lagoon.

Glorified linoleum, don't you think?

Talley's history class—most popular prof in school.

Water fountains.

There's only one word for it: Magnificent.

Lookout, Loughridge, we've got you with the goods—redhanded.

Edward ! ! !

LaVail loafjs.

Dimney was drunk again.

Ain't he purty!

Wham!

Clement ! ! !

Cowboy rides again.

New campus—in the raw.

So we're conceited—so what?

Not Much on parade with fair Frances Lenoir of the Reagan contingent.

Heart of Harts, and migawd, O'Leary again!

Dot Hohl, just curtsyng, and Tom Yerxa, just.

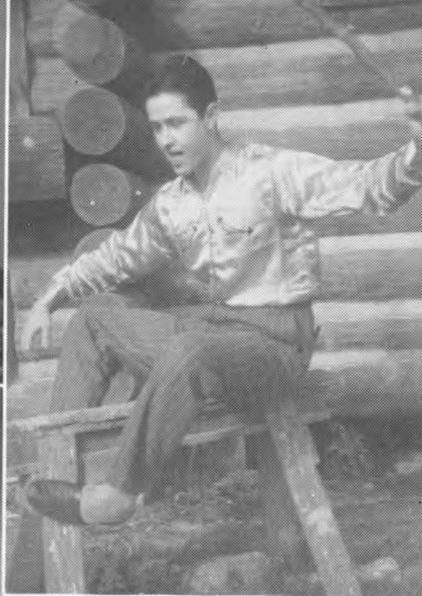

Don't hold so tight, Cowboy—she won't fall.

Beautiful Bentley, really a queen, and Shark Palmer, with knees a-twitter.

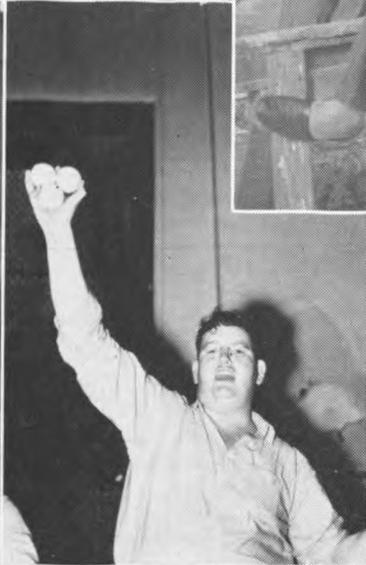

What's that phone number?

She's reeling, but Talley lost money just the same.

*Try a valve on your voice,
Kelly.*

He's having hallucinations.

Sweethearts — '38 and '39.

Carnival barker supreme.

More engineers—they bribed us.

Hart, Schaffner and Marx models.

Blonde torchante deluxe.

He speaks for himself.

Campbell tells 'em how.

The editor's most enticing view.
