PROGRAM - SELF DEFENSE FOR WOMEN

[Aug. 1974]

SELF-DEFENSE FOR WOMEN

Alice Shrader, Chair for Houston NOW Task Force on Rape and a member of the Houston Rape Crisis Coalition will present a program on Self Defense Techniques; Physical and Psychological.

Alice will be happy to discuss other related issues - Rape Prevention, the case for and against Weaponry, the status of Houston's Rape Crisis Center, and the progress of institutional aid for rape victims.

The meeting will be Thursday, August 1, at 7:30 pm, at the Uniting Church, Reseda and El Camino Real in Clear Lake City.

WOMEN IN SPORTS

The Women in Sports Task Force has been very active this month. Frances Hicks has proven herself to be Friendswood's "uppity woman." Right On, Frances!

Burdy Miskimin addressed the Dickinson School Board Monday, July 22nd. They know we're here - the Board asked several "polite" questions.

Linda Eichblatt addressed the Clear Creek School Board Tuesday, July 23. She also went to Austin on the 26th with Jan Cunningham from the Houston Women in Sports Task Force. The purpose of the trip was to meet with the Director of the University Interscholastic League, which governs all interscholastic events in Texas. Linda represented Texas NOW at the meeting. A more complete report of the meeting will be in next month's newsletter.

Text book reviewing is now on the final lap. Patience is wearing thin with Witches-she (why not warlocks-he), Doctors-he, and Students-he, he he he he! Bills of Particulars are due August 1, and they must be signed - a new requirement not mentioned in the Instructions.
