

The meeting was called to order at 8:10 p.m. by Speaker Bill Hensley. The invocation was given by Mike Weingart and the minutes were approved as read.

Committee Reports.

Certification and Installation.

Four new members were sworn in.

Two members were suspended.

Monetary and Fiscal.

House Bill #22 did not go through committee.

House Bill #23 for $47.50 passed.

House Bill #24 did not have an amount given. The sponsor was asked to get the cost of the buttons and come back to committee.

House Bill #25 was passed for $200.

Social, Education and Development.

Bills for this committee would come up later.

Process and Procedure.

No report.

Old Business.

Lawrence Gessner was recognized for the second reading of House Bill #22 for the Writer's Club. It was moved that the bill be brought from committee. Motion passed. Moved that bill be passed. Motion made to table the bill until the next meeting failed. It was moved that the bill be amended to read $266.08 or $50 less than the original total. Motion failed. Vote on the main motion carried.

Gayle Smiley presented the convention report for Kappa Alpha Mu. They returned a check for $34.38 to Student Government. Mike Weingart was elected National Vice President of Kappa Alpha Mu. The U of H won second place in the photography contest.

Sue Friedman read House Bill #23 for a robe for President Hoffman. Motion carried by acclamation.

House Bill #24 for homecoming buttons was presented for the second reading. Motion for passage carried.

House Bill #25 for the school flags was presented for the second reading by Gayle Smiley. Motion for passage carried.

New Business.

House Resolution #6, a recommendation for a cage for Shasta, was read by Sue Friedman. Motion for passage failed.

George Harris presented House Bill #26 for the first reading for the Newman Club.