I am pleased to announce that nine Westin hotels and resorts have been named as members of Conde Nast Traveler magazine's first "Gold List -- the Best Places to stay in the World," featured in the magazine's January, 1995 issue.

To earn a place on this distinguished list, Conde Nast Traveler reporters interviewed over 5,000 of its readers, discussing with them the high points of the finest places they have visited within the past three years. These interviews were then compared against the magazine's annual Reader's Choice poll, which in itself represents the opinion of more than 30,000 readers.

Westin's "Gold List" members include:

- ★ The Westin Resort, Hilton Head Island
- ★ The Westin Maui
- ★ Walt Disney World Swan, Orlando
- ★ Arizona Biltmore, Phoenix
- ★ The Westin La Paloma, Tucson
- ★ Las Brisas, Acapulco, Mexico
- ★ The Westin Brisas Resort, Ixtapa, Mexico
- ★ The Westin Stamford & Westin Plaza, Singapore
- ★ Hotel Vier Jahreszeiten, Hamburg, Germany

Please join me in congratulating the staffs of these hotels on their recognition.
