

The time has come for Texas Women to feel

It is Glory enough for one day
To shout the name of the living God
In the teeth of an army of foes;
To throw all prudence and forethought away,
And for once to follow the call of our souls
Out into danger of darkness to council with right.

It is to be glory enough for one day
To have dreamed the bright dream of
The reign of right not might.
We will fasten our faith, like a flag,
To that immortal staff, and be willing to sail
Without chart and only stars for our guide.

We have fitted a cruiser for right and sail
Unafraid to venture a sea full of shoals.
It will be glory enough for one day
To have and to do our part in the battle of Liberty and Freedom to be fought on Texas soil
These next few weeks.

Paraphrased from a Poem by William Herbert Carruth.

Mrs. Hoover