FROM THE EDITOR

I know that "From the Editor" usually has been speaking of statewide activities across Texas and Louisiana, but recently something happened that really raised my ire! The advertising policy of this paper has been to protect the Gay community from any rip-offs being set up for them. Other than that, advertising space is open to any individual or business that would like to purchase it.

Last week, an ad was purchased by a business that advertised some "cut" prices on some merchandise that they carry. This seems to have stirred up a couple of businesses to the point of saying that they would no longer distribute The Nuntius as long as a certain business advertised in the paper. As I previously stated, advertising space is open to and always will be open to any legitimate business or individual that wishes to purchase it. I will not be dictated to by any businesses or threatened with their dropping distribution of The Nuntius.

The Nuntius is given FREE to any business that wishes to distribute it. As of today, over 100 of these businesses exist. They distribute The Nuntius for the benefit of their customers, at NO cost to their customers, and at NO cost to themselves.

The Directory guide on the back has always been open to any business before that wished to be listed whether or not they were a distributor or supporter of the paper. As of next week, the new "updated" directory will appear on the back page. Only those that are supporters or distributors of The Nuntius will appear. This will be those businesses that want to give their customers a little extra.

This decision was made by me and me alone. I will not be intimidated by any businesses or individual that does not like what another advertiser prints. First of all, if the businesses complaining were weekly advertisers, I might see into their point of view. But the advertisers are the ones that let The Nuntius be distributed at NO cost. Without them, there would be no weekly paper.

I am sorry that some businesses feel that by dropping distribution of The Nuntius will intimidate me in my letting businesses advertise. I'm sorry, but this will not work!

To you, the Readers, my thanks once again for asking at your local businesses for copies of The Nuntius. The Nuntius gives the advertisers the LOWEST ADVERTISING rates of any weekly publication in the Southwestern United States along with the largest distribution. It is only because of your individual support. Once again my thanks to you.

MOVIES

The first film this week is "The Hindenburg" starring George C. Scott and Ann Bancroft. The film is about the legendary zeppelin that crashed at Lakehurst, N. J., in 1937, killing up to 100 people.

George C. Scott plays the German commander in charge of security on the big airship. Miss Bancroft is the Countess along for the ride. The producers of the film use the theory of sabotage to base the plot on. It seems that after the crash it was brought out that someone or something sabotaged the Hindenburg so it would crash. This very slim theory was never proven. To this day it is not known what caused the big airship to go down.

It is known that the Hindenburg rubbed against some tall power lines, causing a rupture and the helium exploded. In short, when helium explodes, it causes a massive raging fire and everything is destroyed. Well, naturally since blimps used helium it is safe to assume that's what caused it to go down. But Hollywood being Hollywood, they had to give their film that added suspense of a saboteur being on board.

George C. Scott's performance is typical; all he does is run around spying on people. Miss Bancroft is, alas, Miss Bancroft; she does possess that certain quality of making you feel sorry for her.

When the film finally draws to a close and you just can't wait to see the big crash, hold on! The finale is just breathtaking. The film uses the actual newsreel of the Hindenburg crash with some of the best Hollywood special effects ever. It would even make Irwin Allen green with envy.

The film was a terrible mess up to the crash; but my God, it takes forever to get to it!

How many of you can honestly say that you've seen a good X-rated foreign film? I just recently saw "The Story of O" playing most everywhere. It is a French made art flick dealing entirely with the pain is pleasure routine. If you are a leather freak and dig the s/m scene, then this movie is tailor made for you.

It concerns the major exploits of a young girl brought into the leather world by her boyfriend. He is the master and she is the slave. There is also a slight catch to this relationship. Anyone else that is in this circle of leather people can also use her for their sexual desires when they want.

I was truly captivated by the film from beginning to end. For an X-rated foreign art film it was made with the upmost care. I must also add that all the sex scenes are simulated. This is your basic tasteful X-rated film. Plenty of naked bodies and sexual goings on to please most any taste.

The dialogue was very well done; you could understand every word. Every scene fitted in sequence with the one before; you didn't find yourself asking the person next to you what the hell is going on!

All the actors were French, but I can't remember any of their names. If you want a film totally out of the ordinary, the "Story of O" is the one to see. It was a visual experience into a truly different world of sexual expression. Highly entertaining if you ask me.

Until next week,
T. G. Pretender

BIGGEST MARIJUANA CASE

In what must be one of the biggest marijuana cases ever, federal drug agents have arrested four San Diego residents and charged them with conspiring to smuggle an incredible 15,00 tons of pot.

The drug enforcement agency says the four were named in a 21-person nationwide indictment handed down by a federal grand jury in Detroit.

The 21 defendants are charged with smuggling 15,00 tons of grass into the U. S. over a two year period beginning in September of 1972. Among those named was the executive director of the San Diego Mental Health Association 15,00 tons of dope is a lot of weed: it equals 30 million pounds or enough pot to produce at least 15 billion joints. That's about 7 joints apiece for every man, woman and child in America.

DIAL AN ARGUMENT

You've heard of "dial-a-date", or "dial a joke", but how about "dial an argument"?

An Australian couple started a "dial an argument" service last week, and they say their phones haven't stopped ringing since.

The Melbourne couple, who call themselves only "Frank and Aileen" said they started the "dial an argument" service "as an outlet for frustrated people."

Well apparently there are a lot of frustrated people in Melbourne: the couple report that on the first day alone, they received more than 100 calls from people wanting to wrangle and dispute over various things. "Frank and Aileen" say that finally, weary and hoarse, they had to quit and take their phones off the hook.

ELTON JOHN GETTING HAIR TRANSPLANTS

A reporter for the Toronto Star says that Elton John has been undergoing secret hair transplant operations in Canada.

The reporter, Bob Graham, claims to have indisputable proof that Elton has been discussing hair transplant procedures with Toronto hair specialist Dr. Walter Unger.

Elton was in Toronto during the period, but wore a hat at all times -- so all indications of any new hair follicles were hidden from view.

In the meantime, Rolling Stone says that Dr. Unger has denied having Elton as a patient.

NEW KIND OF BREAD

Are you ready for bread that helps you loose those unwanted pounds instead of putting them on?

Medical World News is reporting that a new kind of bread contains 25% less calories than most breads -- yet has 25 times more roughage. Roughage is considered absolutely essential in most weight reduction diets.

The medical magazine says one study has found that people who ate more than 7 slices of the cellulose bread each day over a 53 day period lost 5.72 pounds on the average.

The new cellulose bread is made of the very stuff newspapers are printed on. Medical World News does not mention how the bread tastes.
