

United States Post Office

05-4107

Houston, June 24/26.

Now J. S. Cullinan

Houston, Tex.

Dear Sir:— Please
accept the heart felt thanks of a downtrodden;
defenseless; persecuted; and oppressed people for the generous gift of a hospital to serve their needs.
Would to God the South had more like you,

(2)

United States Post Office

and less Tillmans, Vardamans, D. H. Griffiths
Thos. Dixons, John Temple Graveses, Joe Baileys
K. Lantry Bonners, and Billie Wayfields.
May Heaven's choicest blessings rest upon you.

Respt.

J. S. Tallies.

Box Clerk, P. O.

UNITED STATES POST OFFICE

Houston, June 24/ 26

(HOUSTON NEGRO HOSPITAL)

Hon. J. S. Cullinan,

Houston, Texas.

Dear Sir:

Please accept the heartfelt thanks of a downtrodden; defenseless; persecuted; and oppressed people for the generous gift of a hospital to serve their needs. Would to God the South had more like you, and less Tillmans, Vardamans, D. W. Griffiths, Thos. Dixons, John Temple Graveses, Joe Baileys, K. Lamity Bonners, and Billie Mayfields.

May Heaven's choicest blessings rest upon you.

Respt.

(Sgd) J. D. Collins,

Box Clerk, P.O.

✓
Ho-NY-WWM-CFC

Mrs. JSC