HOUSTON NEGRO HOSPITAL

Mr. J. S. Cullinan, Building.

Dear Sir:

I find Mr. R. R. Moton's letter to me of May 31, 1926, in my files, which I now recall, and regret that furnishing you copy was overlooked.

However, nothing came of Mr. Moton's suggestion that a representative of the National Association of Negro Hospitals visit Houston and go over the matter with us.

Yours truly,

WWM:EL
