SPECIAL INFORMATION ON THE FANTASY WORLDS FESTIVAL

The TOASTMASTER will be Jon de Cles.

The COSTUME CONTEST will be stage-managed by Marion Zimmer Bradley. Prizes will be given (but we don't know yet just what they will be) for the best Darkovan and Deryni costumes, and possibly other categories. Prizes will NOT be impressive--we like the idea of people making costumes because they LOVE making costumes, and the theme of the Costume Ball/Masquerade will be "Come as your favorite fantasy character" not "design a costume for a fantasy movie." SPECIAL PRIZE FOR ENTRANTS UNDER THIRTEEN.

The ART SHOW is in the capable hands of Anodea Judith, artist and muralist in the Bay Area. If you wish to enter the Art Show, send a stamped self-addressed envelope and mark it ART SHOW RULES; they will be sent to you at once.

DEALER'S TABLES are somewhat limited, so items sold at the tables should have some relevance to the Fantasy Worlds theme of the convention --no Star Trek or movie-media items, please. Jewelry, art work, books and fanzines are appropriate, as are costume items. Send SASE for details.

There will be a Costume Swap room where you may sell or swap an old costume which you have outgrown, which no longer fits, or which you have worn so often that you cannot look at it without queasiness. Costumes brought for sale or swap must be in wearable condition; medievals, Renaissance or fantasy-science fiction costumes are OK. Dorothy Breen will be in charge of the Costume Swap room.

NEW THIS YEAR: there will be a specially catered Banquet of Darkovan foods by Adrienne Martine Barnes, who created several of the Duke's Dinners in the Bay Area, as well as some Regency Breakfasts and a number of small but exciting wedding breakfasts and teas. Adrienne is known locally as a fabulous cook and caterer and this banquet should really be something special. NOW HEAR THIS! If you wish to attend the banquet, you MUST have your reservations in BEFORE February 10th. Price is not yet fully determined, but will be in the vicinity of $10 (and well worth it) and there will be NO FREE TICKETS--not even to committee members. A small number of tickets at reduced price may be available to Serving Wenches in return for doing donkey-work in preparing and serving during the banquet; write IMMEDIATELY if you can do this, to ADRIENNE MARTINE BARNES, 5228 Miles Avenue, Oakland CA, 94618. Also for details of price.

Entertainment; we will have a brand new musical THE KEEPER'S VICE, by Phillip Wayne, Cindy McQuillin, Marion Zimmer Bradley, and Gilbert and Sullivan. In addition we would like to showcase the talents of local fans and musicians at the special Pre-Registration Party on Friday night, open ONLY to pre-registrants; no tickets will be mailed this year, but pre-registrants can come Friday night to the party, get tickets and door prizes, and hear the special entertainment, as well as meeting our guests of honor. Your badges will be given out then.

PLEASE MAKE ALL CHECKS PAYABLE TO FRIENDS OF DARKOVER!
