HOUSTON REFINERY

"IT STRIKES US THIS WAY"

No. 55

EXTRA SPECIAL EDITION FOR SJ (INN) DAY Saturday, Dec. 15, 1962

The plans have been made.....the shrimp boats are about to dock....oysters are in season...and Monday - December 17 - is the day for staff employees to take the trek toward the San Jacinto Inn for our Christmas Party. That well-known artist whose work has appeared in the SHELLETTER in the past sketched out the following layout of the SJ Inn, so you'll feel right at home and know where everything is.....as soon as you arrive.....

Party code:

- A. Registration tables (two tables - sign the guest book and get your tickets here for Section "E" below).
- B. Name Tags (Let your friends know who you are - pick up your name tag here)
- C. Cold Food Table (Naturally, the best in shrimp, oysters)
- D. Cold Refreshments
- E. Hot Food Table (The best in seafoods and chicken - kept piping hot, but you'll need a ticket!)
- F. Dining Tables (Got to have a place to sit down and eat...here it is)
- G. Ain't no "G" - 'cept for "Good" times by everyone.

NEWS IN A NUTSHELL

Time: High Noon til 6:30 p.m.

Dress: As you are.....informal

Place: San Jacinto Inn

Food servings: At 1:00 and at 4:00 p.m.

SAFETY

The Silver Dollar Mystery Man, fur-lined boots and all, made his calls this week and turned up five new winners in our Safety Contest. It was so cold our hidden microphone froze up on us, so we don't have the on-the-spot comments by the glad gang of winners.....But here comes the parade: H. D. (Rosey) Smith, Sam Costa, John Bowley, Fred Wischhusen, and Ervin Moss.....Welcome to the club.

...AND REMEMBER THE SLOGAN -
