

House of Representatives

The first meeting of the 1962-63 House of Representatives was called to order by Speaker Charles LaMonte, on Monday, October 22, 1962. All approved members were sworn into membership.

Marilyn Holub was appointed as temporary secretary by the Speaker.

Charles LaMonte read amendments to the House By-Laws. A motion was made by the chair to accept the amendments. It was seconded and passed by the House membership. The House Standing Rules were read and amended. It was moved, seconded, and passed to accept the Standing Rules.

The Speaker announced committee chairmen and the members of the Monetary and Fiscal Committee. Committees are:

Monetary and Fiscal:

Jerry Monroe---chairman
Tommy Baron
Allan Gordon
Marilyn Holub
Wayne Paris
Len George

Process and Procedure:

Alan Segil---chairman

Social, Educational, and Development:

Joyce Simpson---chairman, declined

Certification and Installation:

Bari Bodden---chairman

The chair called for nominations of officers for the current year.

Nominations for Bayliff:

Tommy Baron, Johnny Odom, and George Harris---declined.

Sue Friedman moved nominations cease. It was seconded and passed.

Nominations for Parliamentarian:

John Purdue

George Harris moved that nominations cease. It was seconded and carried.

Nominations for Secretary:

Sue Friedman, Bo Evans, and Marilyn Holub---declined.

Joyce Simpson moved to cease nominations. It was seconded and passed.

Nominations for Clerk:

Joyce Simpson

Sue Friedman moved nominations cease. It was seconded and passed.

Nominations for Speaker Pro-Tem:

George Harris, Alan Seigle, and Wayne Paris.

Joyce Simpson moved to cease nominations. It was seconded and carried.

Charles announced that elections would be held at the next House Meeting on November 5, 1962.

A question was raised from the floor about the by-passing of individuals names. Charles suggested that they check in Chief Mitchell's office about a mistake or hold-up. Sue Friedman moved to adjourn the meeting. There was a second and the motion carried. Respectfully Submitted, Marilyn Holub, Temporary Secretary