

John Wharton Maxey,
CONSULTING
CIVIL ENGINEER
WATER WORKS
SEWERS AND ELECTRIC LIGHT PLANTS, INSTALLED COMPLETE

LANDS, TOPOGRAPHY,
PARKS, CEMETERIES,
SEWERAGE, DRAINAGE,
RAILROADS, IRRIGATION, AND ALL CLASSES OF
MUNICIPAL ENGINEERING.

14 YEARS PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE
IN TEXAS AND MEXICO.
CONSTRUCTION SUPERINTENDED.

OFFICE SUITE 203 BINZ BUILDING

CHIEF ENGINEER, HOUSTON BRAZOS & NORTHERN RY. MAYERICH - CLARKE, S.A.
GENL. SUPT., CALVERT COAL & CLAY CO.

HOUSTON, TEXAS. Apr. 25, 1900.

Mr. I. Austin Miller,
City Engineer,
Houston, Texas.

Dear Sir:

I have yours of 23rd in reference to manhole on St-Emanuel Street and the crossing of our road and Congress Avenue, and beg leave to advise you that same shall have our prompt attention.

Very respectfully,

Dictated to J.D.L.

John Wharton Maxey

Apr. 26, 1901.

Mr. J. Austin Miller,
City Engineer,
Houston, Tex.

Dear Sir:

I have your of 23rd in reference to matter of 23rd-

There is no record of the matter of 23rd in the files of the City Engineer's office. It is possible that the matter was handled by another official.

Very respectfully,

J. D. [Name]

Handwritten signature

EMERSON