Roundtable Holds Labor Discussion

By Newell Tilton

"Labor is being made the scapegoat of the present emergency," stated Mr. George A. Wilson, member of the Houston Labor Council, at a meeting of the University of Houston Roundtable last Tuesday night. The subject for discussion was "What Shall Be Done About Strikes in Defense Industries?"

After a careful survey of workers' wages and living conditions, Mr. Wilson went on to say, "It has been found that the minimum wage capable of giving a family the simple necessities and luxuries of life is $2200 a year, while the national average worker's wage is $1300." He implied that the "$2200 minimum should be striven for in the face of any emergency."

"No man should be compelled to belong to a union in order to hold

Police Chief Ray Ashworth Launches U. of H. 30-25 Club at Friday Rally

"You can't kill anybody unless you are driving fast," Police Chief Ray Ashworth said in an address before the student body yesterday at 11 o'clock.

The visit of Chief Ashworth inaugurated the campus 30-25 club which is being sponsored by the Cougar.

In his talk, Chief Ashworth said that contrary to popular opinion, drivers of college age had no more accidents than older or younger drivers. He pointed out the fact that Houston has had 35 deathless days since the beginning of the 30-25 campaign.

After the talk, Cougar Editor Maryanne Flanagan read the rules of the new campus 30-25 club and staff members circulated through the crowd taking signatures of those desiring membership. Approximately 400 names were volunteered the first hour of the drive and enthusiasm for the club was high.

Chief Ashworth spoke later at the Men's Faculty Club luncheon about the advantages of police work as a career, citing the municipal University of Wichita as having pioneered in police training.

Sue Morgan Named Junior Prom Queen

Brown-eyed Sue Morgan was crowned Queen of the Junior Prom which was held on the Rice Terrace Saturday, March 22. Runners-up in the election were Lela Blount, Patty Wade, Estelle Clayton, June Carter, Della Belle Collier, Josephine Hightower, and Gloria Del Costillo.

Following the introduction of officers of both day and evening classes was the coronation of the queen by Weed Peterson. Miss Morgan was dressed in white net and crowned with a halo of white carnations.

It will be held at 7 o'clock in the University cafeteria.

Other committee chairmen are Mr. L. S. Mitchell, program committee; Mrs. Nena Lewis, decoration committee; and Dr. C. F. Hiller, reservations.

Reception Queen

ALICE DAVID

Alice David Chosen Queen; Princesses, Duchesses Named

Alice David will reign as queen of the University of Houston High School Reception at the second annual Frontier Fiesta to be held in April on the campus.

U. of H. Will Offer Summer Workshop

By Glenera Thornton

In an effort to apply the theories of education, the University of Houston will again offer their educational workshop to teachers attending the summer session, Dr. Kemmerer said Friday.

Last summer seventy-five teachers of the Houston area participated in workshop activities. Such problems were worked on as "Adjusting Curriculum Activities to the Twelve-Year School," "Teaching Slow Readers," and many other problems which had arisen in the actual experience of these teachers. "Next fall," Dr. Kemmerer said, "We hope to add a Fine Arts Workshop which will be available not only to art majors but to all students of the University."

Burlesque Skit Features Bicycle

How to ride a bicycle as Dr. Hiller does, is Mitzi Sawtell's contribution to the Faculty Burlesque. Mitzi has been practicing getting on and off the metallic steed for two weeks now and says she has almost mastered the form used by Dr. Hiller.

"The only worry I have is mounting the wheel," said Mitzi. "I don't know whether I should warm up, run, and jump on the wheel or just sneak up on it and throw my leg over the bar and be on my way."

Mitzi is assisted in her act by John Hardy who helps to hold the bicycle steady. The skit is said to be one of the cleverest numbers in the Burlesque, and directors of the show claim that the costumes put the audience in hysterics even if the performance isn't authentic.

250 Candidates Are Listed For Degrees In May and August

A thirty per cent increase over 1940 in number of candidates for degrees at the University was reported by Registrar Pearl McMullin early this week.

There are 250 applicants for various bachelor's and master's degrees, she said. Of these candidates, 130 will be graduated in the May 26 exercises; 120 will be awarded diplomas in August at the first summer graduation in the history of the school, Mrs. McMullin said.

Eighty students are candidates for master's degrees in the two classes, as compared with fifteen in the first graduate school at the University, that of 1940. Twenty-seven of these will receive diplomas May 26, and 53 in August.

Mrs. McMullin listed spring can-

It's Your Fiesta

"There are a lot of nights in my life I don't even remember, but by gad I'll never forget that night!" These are not the exact words but the meaning is the same as that of a speech taken from John Steinbeck's play, "Of Mice and Men." In this speech old Candy, a crippled character, tells of an experience in Seattle—an experience which cost Candy his entire savings. But as Candy said there was no regret.

Our lives, too, are like Candy's. There will be countless days and nights which we will not be able to recall when we have grown older.

Why not start now and rack up some days and nights that we can't forget? Why not have memories that we can take with us? If we want to have recollections of a youth well spent there is no better way to begin than by working on the Frontier Fiesta.

An old proverb tells us that the only way to really know people is by living with them. Unfortunately we do not have dormitories on the campus at the present time so we must broaden our knowledge of people's character by working with them. The Frontier Fiesta alone offers the University of Houston students this opportunity.

The Fiesta may leave your hands and your back aching. But the memory, in time to come, of the experiences you underwent, the problems you faced and the friends you made will remain with you always.

Don't be one of those persons who always says "I haven't got time!" There is no one who cannot find an extra five minutes or half hour he can spend helping the other fellow. The busiest people are the ones who can always find time to devote to service.

Don't miss this opportunity to make friends and broaden your experiences. Volunteer your services to the Frontier Fiesta now! Opportunity knocks only once!—G.C.

Join 30-25 Club Now

No one wants to be a menace to his community, but everyone, when reckless driving is discussed, thinks that it's the "other fellow" who has accidents and sacrifices the lives of his neighbors. That "other fellow" might be you!

As a result of the 30-25 rule laid down by Police Chief Ashworth, our community has had 35 deathless days. By cooperating with this earnest attempt to make the streets of Houston a safe place for its citizens, we are not only insuring our own safety, but we are guaranteeing that we will never be in the tragic position of having taken a life through carelessness.

Students of the University have shown their interest in their fine response to Chief Ashworth's talk. Several hundred have already applied for membership in this club which the Cougar is sponsoring.

If you haven't affirmed your interest in making Houston a safer, and therefore happier place to live, do it now!—M.F.

U. of H. Will Offer--

S.M.U. will also operate workshops this summer.

This project takes the stress off grades, and instead encourages the student to emphasize what he is most interested in studying. It excludes examinations and term papers; thus the student evaluates his own grades, supplemented by the composite opinions of the complete faculty in the form of a written paper.

"This will eliminate the impression that when an examination is passed, the student has learned all there is to be known about that subject," Dr. Kemmerer pointed out.

The staff members have no set schedule for teaching but work out each problem at a round-table discussion to which the students are also invited.

Tuesday and Wednesday Dr. Kemmerer, Dean Dupre, and Dr. Arvin N. Donner attended the regional meeting of the workshop advisory committee which was called by the national commission on education.

Such subjects were discussed at the meeting as "characteristic features of the workshop," "local workshop—staff and credit," "acquainting the rest of the school with the workshop," "type of guidance to give—helping to define problems," and many others.

Plans are now being made to increase the scope of the 1941 workshop to permit a larger membership. National leaders in teacher education will again be secured as faculty members in this six weeks' course.

wind blows from the east and wafts in the gentle odors from the packing house?

After lecturing on Lord Byron's private life as a background for his writings in her sophomore English Class, Mrs. Carlton began a discussion of the poet's "Don Juan."

The sweetest song-birds nestle in a pair;

The eagle soars alone; the gull and crow

Flock o'er their carrion, just like men below.'

Now what was Byron?"

"A rat!" came the reply of a reformist in the back of the room.

Letter

(Editor's note: Weed Peterson, President of the Student Council, said, "I refused to sign the letter because it was merely an expression of personal opinion, and had nothing to do with the attitude of the Council as a body.")

Editor, The Cougar:

In your last issue there appeared in one of your "activity" columns, a paragraph which denounced the Student Council because of its ineptness, its "bowing and scraping" and for its general do-nothing policy.

Since the Council has no official publication in which it can defend itself, the Letters To The Editor column becomes our only channel of rebate.

The paragraph is uncalled for in the first place, because its author has never sat in on a Council meeting this year, and consequently has no knowledge whatsoever of the attitude of members while in session. No doubt when the writer speaks of a "dignified, defiant and self-respecting body" that was, he is obviously referring to the years when he was a member of that body. When the writer wants to know what became of the "vim and action" that was present on the last Council, our reply is this: If by "vim and action" you mean the "hot air" that was spewed so promiscuously last year by a couple of members, if you mean the irrelevant small talk that was indulged in by a couple of members—if you mean that—then you are right, this Council has no "vim and action." That type of Councilman has no place in the present Council.

Because the Dean has suggested and because of the nature of its work, the Council meetings in the past have to some degree been secluded, but interested persons have attended some of its meetings. And because of this semi-seclusion, certain apocryphal stories wend their way through the school and are given added credence by the writings of other people who know that the source of their information is spurious.

So "let us look at the record" as Governor Jim Hogg used to say when he wanted to smash the unfounded reports about his administration.

First, the Council has supervised and supervised ably, more elections than any other Council in the history of the school. And more elections are yet to be held. They have done this at the sacrifice of their own class time in order that balloting might take place smoothly and amicably.

Second, they are working on, with Dr. Kemmerer, a definite scheme whereby back pledges to the School Fund might be collected and also have set up the means whereby more money is to be added to the Recreation Building fund.

Third, they have adopted eligibility rulings for those seeking positions as representatives of the University at various functions.

Fourth, they have set up a committee which is revising completely the School Handbook.

Fifth, through and with the help of the Council more lounge rooms have been added.

Sixth, the Council has sponsored afternoon tea dances for the enjoyment of students.

Seventh, the Council is co-operating with the Student Assembly to bring about a better understanding of student problems and to discuss remedial legislation for those problems.

Eighth, more constructive legislation has been passed awaiting only the Dean's signature to make it official.

The Council does not intend to let itself be drawn into a degrading epithet-calling contest, to see which side can hurl the most lethal written and verbal darts, but will stand

I find in the past week some few criticisms of this column and columnist in reply to the non-appearance of another column. All members are asked to ride this afternoon at the Palace Stables at 4 o'clock.

MORRIS LAW-CLUB SPEAKER

Life at law school is no bed of roses. You cannot wait until exam time to begin cramming knowledge into your head. The exams require much preparation and constant study. If you go to law school to have a good time you are at the wrong place, was Mr. Carlos Morris' advice to the Pre-Law Club last Monday night.

Mr. Morris addressed the Pre-Law Club with a short lecture on how to study at law school and what to expect. This was followed by a brief discussion of contracts.

Mr. Morris is a former president of the Pre-Law Club of Rice Institute and a graduate of the Texas University Law School. The speaker congratulated the University Pre-Law Club on its outstanding work and gave the members some interesting material on which to work.

PSYCHOLOGY CLUB FORMED

The recently organized Psychology Club met Thursday evening and named officers, and stated the qualifications for prospective members. Betty Yates was elected president; Harold Mobley, vice-president; Dorthea Howard, secretary; Robert Duff, treasurer; and Dorothy Lee Engdohl, publicity chairman.

Students desiring membership in the club must have completed three hours in Psychology, and be working on the sixth hour of study. Applications must be accompanied by a $1 initial fee, and turned in to Mrs. Bender before April 10.

so much to this institution, start signing your letters because the handwriting is too familiar.

Heard that the Senior Class has signed Ed Gerlach's Orchestra for their dance sometime in May. This band really went over big at the Prom Saturday nite. Incidentally, Saturday night is a swell time to give a dance as evidence last week proved . . . There is much talk in the cafeteria that Louise Slataper and David Bailey will marry soon . . . Willie Stoppole and Buddy Cornwell are now well established into each other's interest . . . Congratulations to Norma Jean Schwewe who is in Navasota this week-end doing her second representative job for the University of Houston . . . Virginia Bryant is of late called Liberty Bryant, taking the name after much attention to the small town on Highway 90 . . . Myla Stanchfield from Minnesota and girl friend of our prexy, Weed Peterson, was in town this past week . . . Bill Cardiff (grizzly effect) really pushing that beard contest along, a swell fellow too . . . Felix Stanley doing a fine job in the assembly, also Gene Cuny, working on something all the time . . . La Velle Williams working hard on the Fiesta and getting little credit for it.

Maryanne Flanagan (Ye Olde Editor,) so busy she forgets to get her change at the Book Store . . . Milt Gardner and Leonard Gennusa cooperating on studies on the last lap for their degree . . . Lou Ann Flanagan, only girl manager of a floor show in the Fiesta and doing a good job . . . Evelyn Ruthenbeck holding the Buckaroo show down . . . Wish I could borrow about seven tents, pianos and P. A. systems.

Vic Insirillo and band playing at the University Club for the Engineer's Air Raid Dance next Friday night . . . Come and see King Stewart get caught in his red flannels . . . If you see a fellow there in a sheet looking like Mahatma Gandhi—that's me.

Soon the election will be around and you will have an opportunity to express yourself again and with such handwriting on the wall that any blind man could see, there is a chance to redeem what you did last spring and fall. My hat is off to those who were and still are outstanding examples of student leadership.

MUSIC and SUCH

By Jack Daly

Well, I told you so! And I'm sure anybody who heard Ed Gerlach at the junior prom, will wholeheartedly agree with me. That band it tops.

The juniors paved the way for the seniors to have a terrific success with Gerlach and his fine crew. There were a few who were a little skeptical about a new band but now that the whole school is talking about it, the seniors will have to get the biggest building in town to hold their crowd. Wish more of you could have been on the jam session with your cousin and several of the fellows from the band; Herb Harris, with George Olsen, had a chance to show what he really could do with a set of hides and no limitation on the noise.

Puff for Mr. J. D. Hutchinson. Aside from his regular math classes, he has two or three aeronautics classes a day and still he finds time to get out there on the grounds and work with the fellows who are building up the Fiesta. Saw him carrying lumber and driving nails all over the place. It's men like that that make us look pretty sad. And here I was thinking I was overworked.

Jack McHenry just bursts with enthusiasm every time he even thinks of his show. Well, I can understand it; he is going to have a fine group of entertainers, some of which are: Boots Manry and her all girl band; Howard Hartman, the lad with a fine voice (and he oughta be in pictures). Emma Jean Sappington, she of the beautiful eyes, is the fem sparrow in his quartet. And Jack himself, does a fine job of vocalizing.

The Radio Review, which was formerly my effort for the Fiesta, has been taken over by Homer Jones, who has some fine ideas and an even finer voice. I shall have another show which is as yet unnamed, but if you get lost on the Fiesta grounds, drop around and see me, I'll be glad to try and cheer you up for about half an hour.

Lou Ann Flanagan and Berkley Moore will have one of the best shows on the mid-way, they have arranged for an act from practically all of the local night spots to appear on their stage.

FASHION FADS

By Dorothy Cire

With the Easter Parade right around the corner why not have an outfit that really spells style?

For years now the colors predominating during the Easter season have been all shades of pastel. Those colors are still favorable but to really have something which is just the thing, your outfit should have either red, white or blue, or more preferably all three colors combined. With this outfit you can wear a small sailor hat in either of the national colors. To bring out the color of your costume you can wear lipstick of bright red, going under the name of flag red, navy red and other patriotic names.

Something else which is sure to catch the eye of all passers-by is a large frilly collar just like Thomas Jefferson wore in his day. These collars can be worn as an accessory to any style of dress and really add attraction.

Try some of these suggestions and you will find yourself one of the best dressed women to make up our Easter Parade.

The Latin American Institute will meet next Wednesday night at 9 in room 110-C. All members will please be present.

Fiesta Ticket Sale Is Begun By Clubs

"Sale of advanced tickets for the Frontier Fiesta has started with a bang," Dick Schill, chairman of the committee on sales, announced Friday.

With it started the usual competition among clubs for first place in the sales campaign.

Last year the Red Masque Players won the cup; but today, both the Cougar Collegians and the Buckaroos announced their intentions to take first place in the competition this year.

From April 1 to April 22, the huge thermometer set up on the north lawn of the Cullen building will register daily the number of tickets sold.

Advanced Music Class Offered In Summer

Mr. Cedric Seaver, supervisor of orchestra and string class work in the Houston Public Schools, will offer a course in the summer session of the University of Houston, Dean N. K. Dupre announced today.

The class will be open to teachers and to other advanced students of music who meet prerequisites of training or experience.

Correction

Commander D. D. Dupre, obviously, is not Dean Dupre's father, but his brother. Blame it on the noise of a printer's office, where "Feature That" received the story by telephone from "usually reliable" sources.

With Wilbur Joneson

"For when the One Great Scorer comes to write against your name,

He marks—not that you won or lost—but how you played the game—"

This bit of poetry by Grantland Rice expresses his philosophy acquired from indulging in athletic enterprises.

Promising Team

An overwhelming amount of ball-minded fellows attended the practice last Sunday and it looks as if the University will have another successful sport to add to its already proud basketball and hockey teams.

The three most promising softballers looked to be Buddy Toomey, Harry (of basketball fame) Hope, and Jerry Leinweber.

We Thank You

To you sir, Mr. Vance, of Vance Moody, Inc., we tip our hats, for your interest and help in connection with our softball team. May we express our sincere gratitude and appreciation.

Some Satin Latin

"Sine periculo friget lusus" a Latin proverb, partly expresses the thrill found in the art of fencing, literally it means—"Without danger the game grows cold." It is with this thought that perhaps the University's foil artists enjoy their daring sport which evidently seems to be going along fine despite the typical Houston weather.

Just an Echo

Your school needs your help to make your Fiesta a success. More workmen are needed in the art and construction departments—are you doing your part?

The returns from the Frontier Fiesta will go towards paying for the recreation building; so let's hurry and get it finished before both you and I have graduated.

Until we meet again—that's all, Virginia—and, so long—everybody.

After the election of the captain, pictures were taken of the team for the annual. Dudley Vance is in charge of arrangements for an informal dinner.

Coach Snapp stated that he is looking forward to next season. All of the team members are expected to return next year and there is some good material expected from local high schools.

Minerology Field Trip Scheduled for Today

The class in minerology was scheduled to leave early this morning on a field trip to the Central Minerals region west of Austin; they will return Sunday night.

There are 25 members of this class. They were accompanied on the tour by Dr. Keith M. Hussey, Mr. R. D. Woods, and Mr. Fred E. Smith, members of the faculty of the department of geology.

Two other trips are planned, one to Uvalde and one to the Bryan region.

Hand Receives Award Given by Harper's

The certificate of excellence which was awarded Frederick Hand, a freshman student in September, 1940, by Harper's Magazine of New York has arrived at the University and has been placed in the show case in the Cullen Building.

Frederick was awarded this certificate in recognition of superior literary promise shown in the poem that he contributed to the annual contest for students sponsored by the magazine.

Some poems of Hand's were published in the 1940 Harvest an annual publication of the Creative Writing classes of the University of Houston.

The Association of College and Reference Librarians has named a committee of six to study and organize services of university and reference libraries for national defense.

A softball team has been organized for the U. of H. ball players. An estimated 35 interested fellows turned out for practice Sunday at Lubbock field. Mr. Snapp, coach, says that the University may have one of the best teams in the city. The club is entered in the Recreation league, Thursday night at Murrelle Field.

The boys were divided into two teams, and a view of the kind of material on hand was seen. Outstanding players were Buddy Toomey, third base; Norman Woodruff, left field; Dudley Vance, short field; Bobbie Lewis, catcher; Buddy Hogwood and Glen Cornwell, third basemen; and Harry Hope, Jerry Leinweber, and Herman Earlywine prospective pitchers.

Practice hours are Thursday at 1:30 p. m. on the campus.

a job," Mr. W. P. Hamblen, attorney and former president of the Harris County Bar Association.

Mr. Hamblen suggested, as a means of settling strike difficulties, that mediation boards composed of local citizens of each defense manufacturing center should be set up, instead of the Federal Government's sending down a mediator who knows nothing of the economic conditions in the strike area.

That any group that tends to weaken the strength of the nation should be up-rooted was the opinion given by Mr. Murray A. Miller, teacher of American History at the University.

Mr. Val Jean McCoy, economics instructor, defined a strike as a "voluntary stoppage of work on the part of workers for the purpose of improving and protecting their interests."

"If the men could be guaranteed, economic security after the present emergency, there would not be as many strikes," Mr. McCoy observed. He went on to say, "Capitalists have already been guaranteed that security by the government's financing of expansion projects for the purpose of producing armaments. When the war is over, they can shut down their munitions plants without any fear of bankruptcy."
