

McC

503 Trust Bldg.,
March 28, 1917.

Mrs. A. N. McCallum, Pres.,
Austin Equal Suffrage Assn.,
Austin, Texas.

My Dear Mrs. McCallum:

Our President is otherwise occupied, and has asked that I write and urge that you forward to her, as soon as you can possibly manage it, a photograph of yourself and as many of your children as you can send. If you have a group picture, so much the better. And they must come with the understanding that we will do our best to have them go back to you, - but come they must, even if you never see them again.

We are working up favorable publicity for the Convention, and are going to fall down "mighty flat" if we do not get photographs of MOTHERS and their offspring. Please do not disappoint Mrs. Cunningham. It will revive her drooping spirits for this convention preparation and the "harder-than-ever" money campaign if you respond generously and promptly with these photographs. I am writing Mrs. Penn in same mail; so, as misery loves company, you can neither one get lonely over this. We have ever to make sacrifices for Suffrage, and Mrs. Cunningham urges this specific sacrifice, if it happens you so regard this particular form of service.

Are enjoying a real "Austin" day and it takes me back a few weeks. A letter from Mrs. Cunningham accompanies this. I add "me, too" to all it contains.

With abundant good wishes for yourself and family, and your Suffrage family, - the Austin Association, - as well,

Sincerely yours,

Headquarters Secretary.