Dear Sir,

The note dated July 21st, which I have just received, advises that, you, Mr. President, have had the opportunity to reappoint me to the military statistics commission, of which I became a member in 1839. In turn, I have attended to various assignments and I have contributed much information as well as implementing strategies for the purpose of making progress in this objective.

Therefore, I shall once again promise to accept such a prestigious appointment to the commission by all means available to me as in everything else having to do with our country. Therefore, in a respectable manner, I wish to extend to you, Mr. President, my most heartfelt gratitude to you, for offering me this distinction. By this reply, I reiterate my affectionate consideration of you.

God and Liberty. Mexico. July 27, 1846.
