

Chestn 12. P.M.
Jan'y 31. 1861.

My Dr. Sir

I am just from the Capitol - at 12 tomorrow we pass the Ordinance about 8 will vote ag^t it out of 170 and upwards. The Copy I send was only subjected to a few verbal alterations.

Tomorrow Genl. McClellan has his reception at 12 P.M.

Houston this evening sent in a Com^m. He recognizes the Const. as a legal body. And will cooperate if the people ratify the Ordinance of secession. He and his tools here have hid their very heads in shame.
Secession they at length discover is a thing not to be resisted.

Tomorrow night Com^m to Mountgomery will be chosen. No one is spoken of as yet. The U^S has not yet been determined on.

The matter of Federal property in the State is under consideration in Com^m. - Trigg will yield, if applied to authoritatively. - An application to Gov. Moore has, as yet been brought forward.

In great haste
Yours Truly
R. Campbell

Austin 12 P.M.
Jan'y 31, 1861

My D'r Sir

I am just from the Capitol. At 12 tomorrow we pass the ordinance. About 8 will vote agn it out of 170 and upwards. The copy I send was only subjected to a few verbal alterations.

Tomorrow Genl. McQueen has his reception at 2 P.M.

Houston this evening sent in a comn. He recognizes the comn. as a legal body. And will co-operate if the people ratify the ordinance of secession. He and his tools here have hid their very heads in shame. Secession they at length discover is a thing not to be resisted.

Tomorrow night coms. to Montgomery will be chosen. No one is spoken of as yet. The no. has not yet been determined on.

The matter of Federal property in the State is under consideration in comee. Twiggs will yield, if applied to authoritatively. No application to Gov. Moore has as yet been brought forward.

In great haste

Yours truly

R.C. Campbell