HOUSTON NEGRO HOSPITAL

copy Financial Plan

Mr. J. S. Cullinan, Building.

Dear Sir:

1. Unless otherwise advised by you, I will revise and have printed the forms as suggested in your letter of May 29th, after conferring with Dr. Slaughter.

2. I will then place the subscription forms in the hands of I. M. Terrell to be followed up among the negroes of Houston by him and his associates, so as to develop the support for the hospital that may be expected from that source.

Yours truly,

WWM:TH.
