

Necco & Eiseemann, Props.

Ernest Necco.
J. Ed. Eiseemann.

HOUSTON CORNICE WORKS,

TIN, SHEET IRON WORKERS AND Slate Roofers,

TELEPHONE 670.

P. O. BOX 54.

HOUSTON, April, 26th., 1900

Mr. Austin Miller,

City Engineer.

Houston, Texas.

Dear Sir :-

We have repeatedly called your attention to the way the made earth against the bridge pier is malicing our place.

You have promised to give this matter your attention from time to time and up to this writing there has been NOTHING done. To advoid the reptition of the trouble herein stated. We would ask that you please call in person, and give this matter attention, and releive us of this continual annoyance.

Trusting that you will comply with the above request we remain,

Yours very truly,

Dic. E.N.

Necco & Eiseemann

C.

NEED A FLEETING TYPE?
HOTSTON CORNICHE WORKS
THE SHEET IRON WORKING AND Plate Rollers
HOUSTON, TEXAS

HOUSTON April, 20th., 1900

Mr. Martin Miller,
City Engineer,
Houston, Texas.

Dear Sir: -

We have repeatedly called your attention to the made earth against the bridge pier in making our place.
You have promised to give this matter your attention from time to time and up to this writing there has been NOTHING done. To avoid the repetition of the trouble herein stated, we would ask that you please call in person, and give this matter attention, and relieve us of this continual annoyance.

Trusting that you will comply with the above request we remain,

Yours very truly,

Mrs. J. C. ...

Dec. E.M.