C. SCHRACK & CO.

Now know ye that Christian Schrack in the village of Philadelphia, is hereby licensed to sell by retail merchandise for one year following the Thirty-first of December, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Fifteen [1815]

THE above is an abstract from an old license granted the founder of C. Schrack & Co. His motto was: "Durability above price is true economy."

This standard of excellency we have maintained, and is universally acknowledged by a host of our life-long friends in the trade. We are proud to herald the undisputed fact that we have had the longest experience of any American manufacturer in the varnish and color industry; and our goods are unexcelled. Prices at all times the lowest and governed by the market for raw material.
