Dear Mr. Stiner:

In the absence of President Williams your inquiry about admission to the University of Houston has been referred to me.

I appreciate your sincere interest in furthering your education and in the University of Houston. However, I have to report that to date no negro has been admitted to the University of Houston. The subject of desegregation is a matter of serious study on the part of the University and its Board of Governors. When any decision has been reached, I am sure you will see reports of it in the daily press.

With best wishes for your future,

Sincerely yours,

Alfred R. Neumann
Assistant to the President

MESSAGE: "Dr. Williams, perhaps this is a little unusual, but I would like to request a little help if you find it possible. I would like to enter

~~Received by~~ your school at any time for further training. I am a Negro and have studied under University of Houston instructors before TSU came into being. I wonder if there would be a possibility that I could further my training leading to a Ph.D. degree. This is not anything that has to do with court action or any organizations. I would not enter any school where I could not be welcome. If there is something you can work out, I would appreciate it."
