At Chambers,
December 18th 1864.

The petition of Clementine Holman, widow of the late Sandford Holman, deceased, having been presented & filed, praying for a yearly allowance & maintainance out of the effects of the said deceased's estate for herself and two minor children, agreeably to the law in such case made & provided; and the same having been duly considered by the Court, It was ordered & decreed that the following property designated in the Inventory be set apart & appropriated for said purpose, & that corresponding receipts be passed, which will be good in settlement as vouchers, & Viz:

	Articles,		Valuation per Appraisement
1	Sorrel Horse	at 16 years old	$75.00
20	Head of Hogs	"	20.00
1	Feather Bed & stead	"	20.00
1	Lot of Cooking utensils	@ "	7.50
1	Common Safe	"	15.00
1	Rocking Chair 10$ and 1 split bottom 60¢		11.00
1	Set Table Silver Spoons		20.00
1	Set Tea Spoons	"	10.00
2	Pair Glass Decanters	"	5.00
3	Silver Tumblers	"	30.00
1	wood Clock	"	15.00
1	pine or Book Case	"	40.00
1	Glass Stone	"	2.00
	Amt allowed for the purchase of meat then being now on hand		40.60

the wife of said decedent will take charge of the above specified property & use the same for her own benefit & support.

It is further ordered agreeably to the prayer of the petitioner who is one of the Executors of said A. Bethune's Estate, that the first money received by them be used to discharge the privilege debts of said estate, Viz: funeral expenses, expenses of his last illness & costs of Court & in order to meet & pay the same, without additional cost accruing. It is ordered that a sufficient amount of property be disposed of as will be necessary to liquidate the same without delay.

December 21st. 1844.

A. M. Davis
Probate Judge

Estate of C. Lehmard

Allowance for widow

Feb December 24th 1844
John P Brown C P C
By Charles Oppenheim